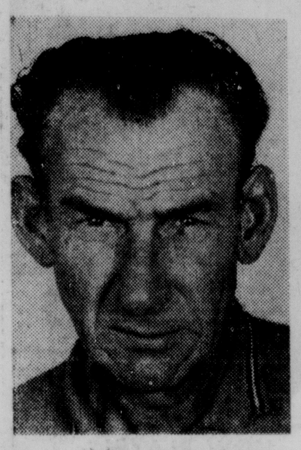
Belvedere Stakeout Traps Suspected 'Funeral Burglar'

San Francisco Ex-Convict Invades Bereaved Household

How Belvedere police, equipped with walkie-talkie radios, nabbed a suspect in Marin's series of funeral burglaries was disclosed today by Police Chief William S. Woodington.

Behind bars in the Marin County Jail, charged with two counts of burglary plus parole violation, was John Theodore Synko, 45, a 6-foot, 4-inch San Franciscan of no fixed occupation or address.



JOHN SYNKO
Rang bell, walked in

He was arrested yesterday inside the Thomas P. Phelan home at 152 Bella Vista Avenue, Belvedere, while the Phelans were attending Requiem Mass for their daughter, Sharon, 17, at St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon.

"It was a hunch," said Woodington, that led him to "stake out" the Phelans' five-bedroom, two-story home.

The "funeral burglary" series started March 25, when a burglar made off with $870 worth of household goods and camera equipment from the home of Mrs. Bernice Hicks at 1206 Cambridge Street, Novato, while Mrs. Hicks was attending the funeral of her husband.

ENTERED HOME

On June 3, someone entered the home of Mrs. Helen Hamilton at 23 Glenn Drive, Mill Valley, and stole $830 in cash while she was at the funeral of her husband.

On June 16, burglar entered the home of Robert S. Sitkin at 270 Beach Road, Belvedere, while family members were attending the funeral of Mrs. Sitkin's father, Ward Cox, in San Francisco. The burglar made a $1,450 haul, including a diamond and sapphire ring, a silver fox stole, and two cameras.

"We were figuring what might happen on a prominent funeral," said Chief Woodington.

He arranged with Phelan, president of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, to have Sgt. Robert L. Coppock concealed in the house when the Phelans left for the Mass.

PATROLMEN HIDDEN

"Patrolmen William Fraass, William McKillop and I were hidden out in the general neighborhood," related Woodington.

"About 9:50 a.m., the telephone began ringing, according to Coppock. The Phelans had left for the funeral at about 9:10 a.m.

"It continued to ring. Finally the door bell rang and there were knocks on the door. Then at 10:11 a.m. Synko, dressed in a polo shirt and light khaki pants, opened the unlocked front door and came in.

"He went like a flash down the stairs into the lower bedroom, where he ran smack into Mrs. Will Holloway, the housekeeper. He saw Mrs. Holloway and turned and ran up the stairs. Coppock, at the head of the stairs, pulled his gun and told Synko to stop.

"Synko came to a sudden halt just outside the front door. Then the rest of us moved in."

Woodington, Fraass and McKillop had kept in touch with Coppock during the action via walkie-talkie radios.

Synko, who first told officers his name was Jack Burke, denied any connection with the Marin "funeral burglaries" or with similar burglaries recently in the East Bay.

Woodington reported Synko is on parole from a Folsom Prison work camp. He was serving a sentence for an August, 1958, burglary in Orange County. His police record dates back to 1935 and is made up mainly of burglaries, the Belvedere chief said.

Boys Stone Skunk, It Is Rabid

Another rabid skunk, Marin County's 14th this year, bit the dust Tuesday, the county health department announced today.

The skunk was killed by two 13-year-old San Rafael boys who saw it duck into a culvert at Deer Park and Summit avenues. Ed Coyne Jr. of 360 Summit Avenue and Ron Brannigan of 1330 Grand Avenue killed the skunk with rocks.

The location was near the 200 block of Locust Avenue where a rabid skunk was killed less than two weeks ago. That was the first rabid skunk killed in San Rafael, and this was the second.

The boys saw the skunk fall down before it went into the culvert, so they killed it and called the health department. Laboratory tests were completed this morning.

This has been the worst year for rabid animals on record in Marin. Worst previous year was in 1955 when 11 rabies cases were found.

Bay Employment Sets Record High

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Employment in six Bay Area counties is 2.3 per cent higher than a year ago, increasing by 9,200 jobs since May, according to the state Division of Labor Statistics and Research.

However, the agency reported yesterday that unemployment also is greater than last year and a month ago, with 75,300 Bay Area workers out of jobs. It said the unemployment increase was seasonal.

Total civilian employment now is 1,239,800 jobs, an all time high. During the past year every industry posted gains except manufacturing, but that industry accounted for much of the increase since May.

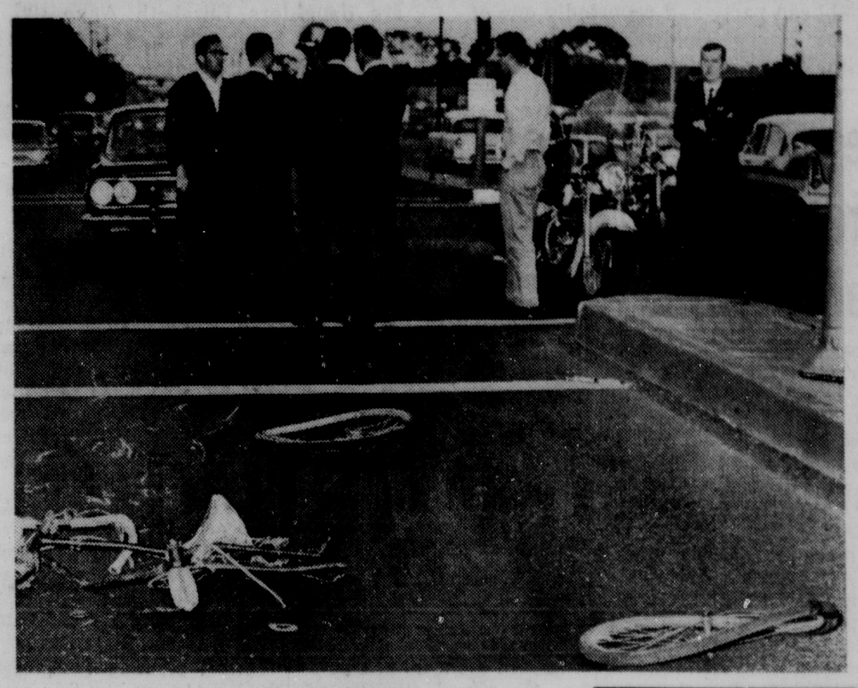
Robert C. Miller's bicycle lies in twisted pieces on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near La Cuesta Drive intersection in Greenbrae after being hit by a car which continued west, turned back and was forced a stop by an eyewitness who gave chase. Robert, 12 years old, was in poor condition today in Marin General Hospital. The suspected driver is free on bail, charged with hit-run and felony drunken driving, after allegedly running a red light to cause the grim mishap. (California Highway Patrol photo)

Boy Cyclist Run Down, Hit-Run Auto Stopped



Witness Cuts Off Driver

A 32-year-old Greenbrae man blocked the escape last night of a motorist who struck a 12-year-old bicyclist and left him lying critically injured on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near La Cuesta Drive.

Robert C. Miller of 30 Corte Loyola, Greenbrae, was in "poor" condition today at Marin General Hospital with fractures of pelvis and left leg, head injuries, and multiple cuts and bruises.

SUSPECT HELD

John P. Lee, 34, of 501 Oak Avenue, San Anselmo, was jailed after Robert McCullough of 70 Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, forced Lee's car to stop near the accident scene.

Lee posted $2,200 bail today to appear in court Monday on felony drunk driving and hit-run charges. He was also cited for running through a red light and for having no valid operator's license in his possession.

Lee is a management consultant with Joseph Froggatt and Co., accountants and auditors on Montgomery Street in San Francisco.

RAN RED LIGHT

The boy, riding a bicycle, proceeded through the intersection from La Cuesta Drive when the light turned green at 8:15 p.m.

The car driven by Lee, west bound on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, ran the red light, hit Robert and threw him into the air. The boy landed on the rear end of the car and fell to the pavement 129 feet from where he was struck, according to California Highway Patrol Officer Angelo J. Corvino.

McCullough was waiting for the traffic light to turn green. He said he saw that the black 1962 Chevrolet was not going to stop at the red light. He drove part way out onto the intersection and blew his horn.

"I could see what was going to happen and it did," McCullough said.

Lee's car kept going through the intersection. McCullough swung his car around to follow Lee.

Lee made a U-turn one-fourth of a mile away and drove back on the opposite side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. McCullough said Lee passed by the accident scene at a slow speed, watching the persons who had run to aid the boy.

McCullough pulled over to force Lee to stop. Lee's car hit the left rear fender of McCullough's auto as both drew to a stop.

GOP ROUNDUP

Barry Backs Rights As Scranton Fades

COMBINED AP & UPI

Sen. Barry Goldwater promised today he would enforce the new civil rights law, not seek its repeal, and go beyond it in trying to end discrimination if he becomes president.

Goldwater also said this morning that the decision to release Ohio's 58-member delegation from its favorite son commitment could give him a first-ballot victory at the GOP convention next week.

Later the Senator engaged in a heated civil rights exchange with a GOP platform committee member which culminated in an emotional appeal by the Arizonan for all americans to abolish discrimination.

Goldwater said he would enforce the law, just as former President Harry S. Truman used the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act even though it was passed over his veto.

Goldwater's clash with delegate George A. Parker of the District of Columbia, lone Negro member of the platform group occurred after the front-running contender for the Republican nomination had urged the committee to end "petty feuding of party fractions."

In a question period which followed Goldwater's 28-minute speech to the 100-member committee, Parker asked Goldwater how he could "consistently, conscientiously and in good faith" enforce the new civil rights law after voting against it on grounds two provisions were unconstitutional."

Asked whether he would seek its repeal, Goldwater said, "No."

"That's not in my opinion the duty of the president. The legislative branch has spoken for the people and I accept the majority view. The president's job is to administer the law."

Last night's announcement that the Buckeye delegates need not give a complimentary vote to Gov. James A. Rhodes handed Goldwater the key to the presidential nomination and crushed Gov. William Scranton's already dim hopes of halting the Senator.

Goldwater still shied away today from a flat prediction that he would be the presidential nominee at the end of the first ballot, and jokingly suggested to newsmen that they give him 2-to-1 odds if they wanted to bet.

But he already has said he is more confident than ever that the victory will come on the opening voting.

Goldwater got an ovation when he appeared before the Republican platform committee. There were standing, cheering demonstrations when he arrived and when he finished speaking. Applause, cheers and whistles interrupted his talk 42 times.

The news of Ohio's action was greeted with shocked silence at Scranton headquarters. But for-

Marin Girls Runners-Up In Fair's Beauty Event

A 17-year-old Sebastopol girl who received her high school diploma last month, received a crown last night in Petaluma.

Janice Jessen, a brown-eyed brunette, was named queen of the Sonoma-Marin County Fair. Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) placed the crown on Janice's head at the coronation party at the fairgrounds.

Marin County girls captured second and third place spots in the contest and will serve with Janice as princesses. Second place went to Carol Wells, 20, of 91 Oakmont Avenue, San Rafael, a pretty blonde. Lesly Simons, 18, of 23 Scenic Avenue, San Rafael, a pretty brownette, took third.

Janice will compete this fall for the title of Maid of California at the State Fair in Sacramento.

The fair, which continues through Sunday attracted 7,341 on opening day yesterday. The big crowd, slightly higher than the opening day last year, was attributed to many fine attractions and excellent weather.

Tonight's features include folk singing at 8 p.m. and Japanese folk dancing at 9 p.m. Tomorrow the junior horse show will begin at 1 p.m. and the rodeo at 8:30 p.m.

FBI Agent Testifies King Spoke Of Seeing Man Die

By ROSS DAVIS

"Did you ever see a man die? It's a horrible thing to see."

John Lee King, with tears in his eyes, made this comment shortly after his arrest in Hawaii on suspicion of murder, Harry L. Albrecht, Federal Bureau of Identification agent, testified in the Donald G. Corbett Jr. slaying trial in Marin Superior Court today.

Albrecht said King then wiped away the tears and told him he didn't wish "to discuss it further." The agent said, he three other FBI men, and two police officers on the island of Hawaii were expecting to find both King and Robert Lee Jones, co-defendant in the March 27 icepick slaying, in the Hawaii hotel room when they entered early on April 4.

He said some of the officers, after learning Jones was registered at another hotel about three blocks away, went there to make the second arrest and he remained with King.

He said King volunteered the whereabouts of a suitcase and cardboard box which he and Jones had left at International Hotel in Los Angeles.

Another FBI agent, Beryl Goodenow, testified that King was "cooperative" following his arrest. He said King was promptly informed he was charged in the U.S. Commissioner's office with unlawful fight to avoid prosecution on a murder complaint, and that he could refuse to make any statement.

He testified that King at first did not disclose the whereabouts of Jones, saying he (King) was "afraid for his life."

Defense attorneys objected to this question, and Judge Joseph G. Wilson said it could not be admitted as testimony.

King soon named the hotel at which Jones was staying, however, Goodenow added. He said King was asked about checking into the hotel under the name of "D. Corbett," and "he said he never met him (Corbett) when he was alive." Goodenow said King was then asked if he had seen

Airliner's Plunge Kills 39, Experts Comb Wreckage

NEWPORT, Tenn. (AP)—Searchers gathered grim evidence today of death and destruction which followed the crash and burning of a United Air Lines plane near this mountainous east Tennessee town late yesterday. All 39 persons aboard were killed.

Investigators said 70 bags of fragments, including 23 bodies, were removed by midmorning to a special morgue set up in Newport's Municipal Auditorium. National Guard units from nearby Morristown joined civilians in the task.

Federal authorities rushed into the area to seek clues which caused the big airliner to crash in good weather, apparently with little or no warning.

State Board Passes On Unification

The State Board of Education today approved a fourth try for unification of Novato Unified and San Jose Elementary School Districts.

The proposal will be placed on the Nov. 3 ballot in the two districts as result of the approval. It must receive a majority favorable vote in both districts for the merger to become effective.

This will be the fourth election on merger of the two districts, both of which are largely within the city of Novato.

In the first two elections, the proposal passed easily in Novato district but failed of passage in the San Jose district. In the third attempt, the reverse was true.

School District Plan Rejected

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The State Board of Education today rejected an Orange County plan to split the county's Newport Union High School District into two separate unified districts.

"This is a proposal that is so bad that it couldn't under any circumstances be approved by this board," said board member Dorman Commons.

The Orange County plan called for splitting the high school district into unified districts covering the communities of Costa Mesa and Newport Beach.

Brown Aide Quits For Duties At Convention

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Frederick G. Dutton has resigned as assistant secretary of state.

Dutton, 41, who directed Gov. Edmund G. Brown's first gubernatorial campaign in 1958, is leaving the state department to become director of the platform committee for the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City.

LBJ Reveals New FBI Office In Mississippi, Chides GOP

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson announced today that 50 FBI agents will be permanently assigned to a new office opened today in Jackson, Miss.

Johnson announced the figure at another of his impromptu news conferences, this one held in the Cabinet Room.

The White House said earlier that additional FBI agents were sent to Mississippi in the wake of the disappearance of three young civil rights workers, but it declined to say how many agents were in the state.

On other topics during the 30-minute session with two dozen reporters, Johnson:

1. Gave an optimistic mid-year business review when asked about statements by Sen. Barry Goldwater, his probable election opponent, that the administration has been fiscally irresponsible.

Johnson said he hopes to announce in about a week final figures on the fiscal year that ended 10 days ago and he expects they will hold "good news" for the country.

He said "the economic horizon will be bright not only in 1964, but I am informed by the council of economic advisers, as far as the trained eye can see into 1965."

2. Said he is "much more interested in deeds than" words from Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

3. Declined to say whether he agreed with the June 30 statement by Sen. Goldwater, his likely Republican opponent in November, that no GOP candidate could defeat Johnson as of now.

"I think," said Johnson, "the Republican Party has enough problems already without my adding to them in any way."

4. Asked whether support from big city Democratic bosses might give Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy a boost as a potential Demo-

Japan's Premier Gets Re-Elected

TOKYO (AP) — Premier Hayato Ikeda was assured another two years as head of the Japanese government today.

Ikeda's Liberal-Democratic party elected him to a third term as party president, but the vote revealed a widening rift in the ruling party. The Liberal-Democrats control the lower house by a big majority, and the party chairman is automatically premier.

Ikeda received 242 votes, a majority of only nine votes. He beat off challenges by two major rivals.

Europe Missiles Go Underground

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — The U.S. Air Force says its first steel-reinforced concrete missile sites are now operational at undisclosed sites in Central Europe.

The new hardened sites provide enhanced protection for the recently introduced Mace "B" missile, the Air Force's European headquarters said Thursday.

The surface-to-surface missile, which can be fired by a seven-man crew, has a range of 1,200 miles for either nuclear or conventional warheads.

Rancher Rescues Aide From Blaze

FRESNO (AP)—An elderly rancher saved a crippled ranch hand from a fiery death today after a ranch cabin caught fire north of here.

Firemen said 75-year-old Baram Singh was sleeping in the cabin when the fire began.

Kay Karzagavoorin dashed into the cabin and carried the crippled Singh to safety.

Soon after the rescue a gas tank exploded and the cabin and an adjoining shed were destroyed, firemen reported.

Sen. Kennedy Makes Trip Safely

BOSTON (AP)—Doctors say Sen. Edward M. Kennedy is in excellent condition following his 100-mile ambulance ride from Northampton during which he was tightly strapped to an orthopedic bed.

Extensive measures had been taken to protect the mending process of his broken back, suffered in a plane crash June 19.

The team of doctors that has taken over the case at New England Baptist Hospital, where the young Democratic senator moved Thursday, say it will be two weeks before they know whether surgery is needed.

Kennedy, 32, was placed in a fifth-floor suite after a three and one-half hour ambulance drive from Cooley Dickinson Hospital.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Tourists are leaving poignant messages near the scene of President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

They scrawl the messages on sheets of notebook paper, and pin them to wreaths which rest against an ornamental wall in a grassy park at Main and Houston.

An Ohio housewife wrote: "We came to see because we loved you as our president."

And an Oklahoma City family expressed its admiration for President Kennedy with these words: "Thank you for your life of service and unselfish love for all of us."

Top Brass Wants More Marines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The commandant of the Marine Corps indicated strongly today he will ask for a boost in the corps' present 190,000-man strength.

Gen. Wallace Greene Jr. said that new planes and weapons coming into the corps require more people to maintain and operate them.

Greene

It has been four fiscal years since the Marine Corps was granted more men. The Kennedy administration allowed it to go up by 15,000 men.

That increase was used to bring Marine ground and air units up to strength and to add some helicopter and aviation elements.

Green said there are three ways the increased manpower demands can be met: (1) adding to the corps' overall strength, (2) deactivating some units and shifting the men to other assignments or (3) reducing the manning levels of combat units.

Noted Educator Is Dead At 89

LOS ANGELES (AP)—University of Southern California Chancellor Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid is dead at 89, the victim of a heart ailment.

Dr. George C. Griffith, his physician, said death yesterday was caused by cardio--vascular disease.

von KleinSmid

Dr. von KleinSmid became chancellor of USC in 1946, after 25 years as university president.

Dr. von KleinSmid graduated from Northwestern University where he later received his masters degree and a doctorate. He later taught there.

He also taught at DePauw University for nine years before becoming president of the University of Arizona in 1914 — a post he held for seven years.

During his association with USC, enrollment grew from 5,000 to 19,000.

Revamping Ordinances Called For

Ross's subdivision, variance and other ordinances need considerable revamping, Town Councilman Roy Farrington Jones declared last night.

He submitted to fellow councilmen handwritten notes on more than a dozen proposals to improve existing ordinances, saying he had spent many hours evaluating the laws since he was delegated to the task some six weeks ago.

Among Jones' proposals:

Require a parking space ratio in the event of any future building in the town's commercial district; include square footage of all structures in calculating lot coverage percentages; increase variance fees from $15 to $25 ("postage has gone up, we haven't," he explained); ban swimming pools in front yards; establish a fee schedule per lot in formal subdivisions; adopt an underground utilities ordinance; demand submission of more complete plans and specifications for subdivision and variance matters.

Jones noted that Police Chief Joseph Regoni—who is also city building inspector—is due to retire next year, and that his successor could not be expected to have nearly so much background knowledge of the town's development.

"When we lose Joe, we're going to lose 35 years of history in this town," Jones commented.

Town Atty. Robert Elliott added the opinion that the "informal subdivision" ordinance needed to be changed to eliminate red tape in simple land exchanges between neighbors to straighten property lines. Such acts are not properly "subdivisions," he said, since they usually do not create new building lots.

"Land is getting so valuable and people can be so tricky," Councilman William C. Bricca demurred. He and Jones agreed that some sort of hearing should be required, so the town might have adequate record of such transactions.

The Ross Town Council also:

1. Held preliminary hearing on tentative map for nine-lot subdivision of Margaret Hamer's property on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, adjoining Kentfield. Council decision on the map and restrictions to impose must be made within 40 days.

2. Decided to await action by San Anselmo and Larkspur on community television antenna proposals, before giving hearing to two firms seeking franchises to serve the 850 homes in Ross. Clear View Cable Systems, Inc. spokesman Richard Webster discussed the proposal, asking for a later opportunity to have his firm's proposal detailed.

3. Approved series of resolutions submitted by Town Attorney Elliott, giving "three hats" to Town Treasurer Eleanor Moller by also designating her as finance officer and deputy to town clerk.

Ross Property Tax Hike Almost Certain

Property taxes almost certainly must go up in the Town of Ross, Town Councilman Roy Farrington Jones warned last night.

First draft of the tentative budget, which Jones read, calls for at least one cent more per $100 assessed valuation, to meet increased retirement fund costs. Any salary increases, additional police officers, or capital outlay projects will require raising the tax rate still more, he warned.

Audience members quickly showed they were not entirely happy with the town's proposed budget, which will be the subject of at least one more hearing before the council officially sets the tax rate.

Mrs. Helene Hjort and others demanded that the council "do something" about drainage problems. Fire Chief A. T. Henrich cited Independent-Journal reports that Larkspur and other cities are granting pay increases to employees.

"I think we're being overlooked," Chief Henrich declared. "I can show you where to save at least $5,000." He recalled that in submitting his departmental budget request to finance committeemen Jones and Councilman William P. McAndrew, he had requested a salary survey to bring Ross employees into line with nearby cities.

"I don't agree with the principle in general of increases across the board," Mayor Frederick S. Allen said. "Last year we set up the pension plan and gave a salary increase."

Police Chief Joseph Regoni, belittled suggestions that the town hire an additional police officer, despite the fire chief's reminder that "we need somebody to train for when Joe retires next year."

"What good will one more man do? How'll he cover another man? I can't see that we'll need another man through the next fiscal year," the police chief declared. "You can't afford one, much less two, and one won't do any good now."

Jones reported he and McAndrew — who was absent on vacation — had discussed the problem, and that McAndrew has said someone should "make a pitch" for the extra officer before the councilmen decide the issue.

Several councilmen expressed puzzlement over how they could adopt a logical budget before County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel submits final assessment roll figures next month. As a result, the body decided to set the date for a special budget hearing sometime after its next meeting, Aug. 13, but before Sept. 1.

Jones predicted that, on the basis of new construction which resulted in issuance of a million dollars worth of building permits during fiscal 1963-64, the town assessment roll would increase about $125,000 — to $6,900,000.

On this tax base, the city could take in $91,567 at the present rate of $1.27 per $100 assessed valuation. However, the need for more retirement funds will add a cent to the rate, making predicted needs $92,288.

The tentative budget is based on a rate of $1 for general fund purposes, 15 cents for parks, four cents for bond interest and redemption, and nine cents for retirement.

Receipts from state subventions, sales tax, franchises, fees and other income will give the city a predicted total revenue of $126,968, Jones forecast an increase of just over $4,700 above last year.

Practically the only capital outlay in the budget is in the fire department, which wants 500 feet of new hose at a cost of $1,250. Expansion of city water mains is suggested at $5,000, the same as last year.

Last year, the council earmarked $29,371 for the fire department; the tentative budget calls for $32,175.

Spending in each of the other departments—police, streets, general government and parks — is expected to go up less than $2,000 per department.

Bandit Suspect Can Chew Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — George Zavada, accused of robbing a bank, had a special request of Federal Judge George B. Harris during the arraignment Thursday.

The request was granted.

Judge Harris ordered federal marshals to give Zavada back his false teeth, which Zavada said were taken away from him after he was wounded in a gun battle with FBI agents last month.

At the time of his capture, Zavada was one of the FBI's most wanted fugitives.

Haste Brings Singed Eyebrows For Boy

Ten-year-old Sandy Diamond discovered the hard way yesterday that it doesn't pay to be impatient.

Sandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Diamond of 24 Drake's Cove, San Rafael, was trying to light a barbecue fire in the patio of his home with an electric heating element at about 7:15 p.m.

The process seemed to be going slowly, so Sandy decided to help it along by pouring a few drops of gasoline on the stubborn element.

Woosh! The flames shot up to the roof of the patio and along the side of the house, singeing Sandy's hair and eyebrows.

Unperturbed, Sandy attached a hose to a nearby spigot and started playing water on the blaze. His 21-year-old cousin, Milton Cross, tried to smother it with a blanket. Mrs. Diamond called the San Rafael Fire Department.

When firemen arrived, Sandy and Milton had the fire under control. Firemen estimated damage at $300.

JOHN B. BELLAMY III
Will lead pledge again

Marin Youth Has Historic Task To Meet

John Benton (Jerry) Bellamy III, 17, of Lucas Valley will lead the pledge of allegiance at the Republican National Convention next Thursday evening at the Cow Palace.

This will be a repeat performance for young Bellamy, great-grandson of the man who wrote the pledge in 1892.

Jerry, as he is known by his friends at Terra Linda High School, led the pledge as a 9-year-old Cub Scout during the 1956 Republican Convention, also at the Cow Palace.

He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Benton Bellamy Jr. of 820 Idylberry Road, Lucas Valley. A senior at Terra Linda High, he plans a career in engineering or architecture.

The youth's great grandfather, Francis Bellamy, wrote the original 23-word pledge for President Benjamin Harrison in August of 1892. Since then, eight words have been added to the pledge. They are "of the United States of America" after the word "flag," and "under God" after the word "nation."

Young Bellamy dug up his great grandfather's original handwritten draft of the pledge and presented it to the White House last August.

Several other Marin residents will be participating in the convention activities. Among them are Young Republican John W. Clow of Mill Valley, who is in charge of VIP transportation and floor security; several musicians including Hugo Rinaldi, director of music for San Rafael schools, and Marin members of the Stan Noonan Chorale and the International Choir.

Marin Dinner For Rep. Bob Taft Jr.

Robert A. Taft Jr., representative from Ohio, will speak at Sabella's Restaurant at Alto next Thursday evening at a reception held in his honor.

The public reception, sponsored by the Marin Division of the Republic Alliance, will be from 5 to 7 p.m., announced Herbert Briggin, secretary of the division.

Taft, who is a candidate for his father's old Senate seat, will give a behind-the-scenes report on the Republican National Convention and comment on prospects for the Republican cause in 1964.

After Taft's talk, guests will watch large screen television coverage of the convention, Griffin announced.

Chinese Reds Claim Bank Savings Record

TOKYO (UPI) — Bank savings in Communist China for the first six months of this year surpassed the total for all of 1963, the Communist New China News Agency said today in a Peking broadcast.

It gave no figures for China as a whole, but said deposits in Peking for the half-year period totaled 33 million yuan (about 15 million dollars.

Churches Held Failing On Rights

By ERWIN KNOLL
Advance News Service

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The churches have failed—and are continuing to fail — to meet their obligations in the racial crisis now confronting the United States.

This is the harsh comment of Rev. Will D. Campbell, an outspoken Southern Baptist minister who serves as director of the Committee of Southern Churchmen.

"The church has done nothing," Campbell said in an interview at his home near Nashville. "No suffering . . . no mission . . . no witness . . . not much of anything.

"We've let an era slide by, doing nothing."

Religious leaders, politicians, newsmen and scholars in the South recognize Campbell as a knowledgeable, if committed, authority on race relations.

A native of southern Mississippi, he chews tobacco and can, when the occasion demands it, preach an old-fashioned fire-and-brimstone fundamentalist sermon.

But his advanced views on integration led to his departure from the chaplaincy of the University of Mississippi long before Ole Miss ever heard of James Meredith.

For a number of years Campbell was a roving troubleshooter with the Department of Racial and Cultural Relations of the National Council of Churches. His current post with the committee of southern churchmen leaves him free to be a "preacher-at-large," lecturing, writing, counseling and consulting.

"My interest is not in race," he said.

"My interest is in the church being true to itself, its mission, its Lord."

Denouncing the "hypocrisy and pretense" of clergymen who have belatedly begun paying lip service to the cause of civil rights, Campbell spoke bitterly of what he called missed opportunities to resolve racial conflicts.

"I happen to be a Christian," he said. "The Christian faith can offer the opportunity of unity and reconciliation in Jesus Christ, because it so happens that most of the racists in this country are Christians. At least they go by the name."

The South, Campbell believes, is "a land of Bibles, revival meetings, Biblical literature." It understands the language of religion, and it might have responded to a firm religious message on race relations.

"What we must do," he said, "is confront the traditionally Christian South with the radical demands of the Christian faith."

Whether such efforts on the part of Southern churchmen would bring constructive results is "irrelevant," Campbell declared.

"We are not called to be successful or to get results, but to be faithful to the sovereign God," he said.

While scathing in his criticism of the Southern clergy, Campbell gave them credit for being "more honest than in the North."

"At least the Southerners realize their failure," he asserted. "The ministers of the North can always soothe their consciences by coming South to demonstrate. The ministers in the South have no place to go."

It has suddenly become fashionable for well-intenaioned Northerners to spend a few days in a Southern jail —after making sure that their bail money has been arranged in advance, Campbell commented acidly.

"It's like the early Christians saying they'd be willing to get thrown in with the lions if the lions would only have their fangs pulled first," he said.

Campbell tells Northern clergymen who come to demonstrate in the South: "It's fine to come to Birmingham, but would you consider starting your protest in Harlem?"

North and South, he believes it only "remotely possible" that peaceful accommodations to racial disputes will be found.

"I don't see how we can get through the summer without serious violence between Negroes and whites," Campbell said, and all the evangelical zeal was gone from his voice.

"The can't win with violence —but frustration is not a rational matter. What possible alternative is left? They have tried just about everything else."

As for the churches, Campbell said, they must recognize their past failures and act accordingly.

Where should they start?" By crying 'God have mercy on me —a sinner'," Campbell said.

Active TB Case Found In Tam District Tests

Active tuberculosis in a 16-year-old girl, discovered by the Tamalpais High School District tuberculin testing project last March, was disclosed today by the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

The girl, a Tamalpais High School student, was one of 63 positive reactors when the test was given 3,570 students in the district. Her case is the first of active TB reported as result of the testing, which was followed up with X-rays and examinations for all showing positive reactions.

It is the 22nd new case of tuberculosis reported in Marin County this year.

A chest X-ray, taken at request of the public health nurse who called on the girl's parents, showed minimun active infection of one lobe. The source of infection has not been identified.

Following diagnosis, the girl remained in a San Francisco hospital for additional tests. She will continue drug therapy for perhaps as long as five years. Upon being discharged from the hospital a week ago, she moved with her family to another state.

"If the person who infected this young girl had been tuberculin tested within the past year, she undoubtedly would have escaped a disease that will be with her the rest of her life," said Dr. Joseph J. Alderson, Marin TB Association president.

Jazz Musician Ibanez Is Divorced By Wife In Marin

San Francisco jazz musician Christian Ibanez was divorced today in Marin Superior Court on grounds he played around with women in addition to music.

Mrs. Kathleen Ibanez, a Mill Valley school teacher, testified he had been consorting with another woman and had a child by her. To back up her claim, Mrs. Ibanez produced a newspaper clipping of the birth announcement.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas granted her the divorce and approved a property settlement agreement. Ibanez is to pay $150 per month for the support of their two children, and $1 per month token alimony.

They were married in France in June of 1954 and have been separated for several years.

Ibanez, who heads the Christian Ibanez Trio, did not contest the action and was not present in court.

Jewelry Theft Is Not A Joke

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Thieves stole several cases of little gold elephants, silver elephants, pink elephants and assorted Republican Party costume jewelry in the night.

The shipment was consigned to William J. Sears, 25, a New York salesman who is operating a GOP jewelry concession here during the national convention.

He estimated his loss at $3,240.

The packing cases were taken from a loading dock at the rear of the hotel.

mer Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge insisted anew today that Scranton still has a chance—if the delegates respond to public opinion.

Interviewed on the NBC "Today" show, Lodge said voters worried about the dangers of nuclear war were sending pro-Scranton telegrams in increasing numbers to convention delegates.

"If this is a democratic assemblage, and not a sort of closed corporation, of course Governor Scranton is going to be the nominee," he said.

Backers of Governor Scranton had hoped Ohio and other favorite son delegations would hold firm on the first roll call and thus take the steam out of Goldwater's drive.

Goldwater now may get as many as 25 of the Ohio votes.

Asked about reports that the Ohio delegation wanted Scranton, his only major convention opponent, as the Republican vice presidential nominee, the Senator replied that he had not heard this.

Pressed to say whether the Scranton suggestion sounded like a good one, Goldwater replied with a smile that it was "too early in the morning" to make such judgments.

He suggested yesterday that Scranton probably would not want to run with him in view of the governor's comments that Goldwater was "ignorant . . . a coward . . . a shooter-from-the-hipper."

Meanwhile, Republican platform drafters deadlocked on the politically explosive civil rights plank of their 1964 campaign document. The platform committee's executive committee, which is writing the document, broke up at dawn after an all-night session behind closed doors.

Former Sen. William F. Knowland said today the Goldwater bandwagon is rolling toward victory, and he urged Republican delegates to climb aboard before it's too late.

Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived in Chicago today for a seven-hour layover on his trip to the Republican National Convention.

The former president rode in a private car at the end of the 21-car Broadway Limited of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Shortly after the train pulled into the Union Station a switch engine coupled up to the rear of the Eisenhower car to transfer it to the Dearborn Street Station. It will join a 22-car special Santa Fe Railway train scheduled to leave at 2 p.m. (PDT) for the West Coast.

Goldwater has switched his Republican National Convention personal quarters to the Mark Hopkins Hotel's five-room presidential suite, thanks to a Democrat.

Goldwater was scheduled until Thursday to occupy the hotel's three-room terrace suite on the 15th floor.

The hotel management said the presidential suite had been reserved for Bart Lytton, a prominent Los Angeles Democrat and savings and loan executive. Lytton agreed to give it up.

The presidential suite is on the 17th floor and includes a dining room, dressing room and study. The apartment is directly below the famed Top of the Mark lounge.

Bomb Hoax Call Interrupts Work On Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A fake bomb warning was telephoned today to the Cow Palace, site of next week's Republican national convention.

No bomb was found.

The phoner said "there is a bomb in the barn area," which is adjacent to the huge main convention hall where the GOP will open its proceedings Monday.

San Mateo County sheriff's deputies searched the place, then called off their alert.

The only people around the Cow Palace were technicians completing the installation of communications and other facilities for the convention.

Communist Landmine Kills, Wounds U.S. Men

SAIGON (UPI) — A U.S. Army enlisted man was killed and an officer wounded today when a landmine exploded beneath their armored personnel carrier.

The dead soldier and the officer were traveling in an M113 armored personnel carrier during an anti-communist operation in the Mekong Delta 18 miles west of Saigon when the landmine exploded. The officer was reported in "good" condition.

Dickson To Head Adult Authority

Fred R. Dickson, 63, of San Rafael, who served as warden of San Quentin Prison for seven years, was named chairman of the California Adult Authority today.

Dickson left the prison in March to accept an appointment to the adult authority by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Today the governor named Dickson to replace chairman Arthur L. Alarcon, who resigned to accept appointment to Los Angeles Superior Court.

Dickson named Dr. Harry Kamp of Laurel Gove Avenue, Kentfield, a dentist, as Adult Authority vice chairman.

Dickson, a native of Nevada, Mo., has served for 20 years in California's correctional system. In 1956, while warden at Chino, he was named "Warden of the Year" by the Wardens' Assn. of America. He has served for many years on the California Parole and Probation Assn.

His salary of $20,500 a year will be increased $500 with appointment as chairman.

Dickson was replaced at San Quentin by Warden Lawrence E. Wilson.

Corbett dead, but declined to answer.

Jones, he said, registered in the second hotel under the name of Charles Riggan. He said Jones also offered no resistance to arrest. Seven .380 caliber bullets were found in a hat on Jones's dresser. No gun was found, however, Albrecht added.

Jones, said Albrecht, was uncooperative.

In yesterday afternoon's testimony, Beryl Goodenow, FBI agent in Honolulu, Hawaii, said his office received a telephone call April 4 from police on the island of Hawaii and he flew there to arrest King.

He said information placed King at a resort hotel near Hilo. A check with the hotel's registration clerk showed King was using the name of Corbett, Goodenow said.

He, other FBI agents, and two police officers from Hilo entered room 52 by using a key obtained from the hotel manager, he related. They found King asleep on a low bed, a .380 caliber pistol on the floor within his reach. Goodenow said another agent went to the head of the bed, and he to the foot, and they grabbed the still-asleep King, warning him not to move.

The pistol, he said, was fully loaded, with a bullet in the chamber. A weapon earlier admitted as evidence and allegedly used by Jones and King in the March 25 holdup of Harbor Liquor Store in Alto was identified by Goodenow as the same weapon.

Donald E. Midyett, chief investigator for the Marin County district attorney's office, identified five pair of men's trousers as those found in suitcases allegedly used in flight from Marin County by Jones and King after the March 27 murder.

Apartments Win Again

MALDEN, Mass. (UPI) — A 258-year-old wooden structure, which once was known as the "Half Moon Tavern," is being razed to make room for a new apartment building.

Thomas Newhall built the tavern and operated it until his death in 1716. His son Daniel then took over and operated it until his death in 1760. During the American Revolution, soldiers wounded at the Battle of Bunker Hill in Charlestown, a few miles from here, were brought to the tavern for treatment.

cratic vice presidential candidate, Johnson said he would make recommendations for a running mate at the party's August convention.

5. Said he hasn't conducted any study or evaluated the impact on the presidential campaign of the entry in some states of elector slates for Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama. But he did call attention to a poll published today, which held that the Wallace candidacy would hurt the Republicans more than the Democrats.

6. Made statement on the completion of House action on this year's regular appropriations bills.

He said his fund requests were cut by 3 per cent, compared with an average slash last year of 7.4 per cent. He said this confirmed his belief that he had submitted a budget "hard to cut."

Rafferty Backs Off On Stand

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The State Board of Education and Dr. Max Rafferty yesterday agreed to support a public school program on the Bill of Rights that had earlier provoked disagreement between Rafferty and board president Thomas Braden.

In a series of rapid fire actions at yesterday's board meeting, Rafferty, the state superintendent of public instruction, agreed to accept a gift of $30,000 from the Constitutional Right Foundation of Los Angeles, a group whose Americanism he had challenged.

Braden then announced that Chief Justice Phil Gibson of the State Supreme Court had agreed to replace Rafferty as a judge for the foundation's high school teachers' essay contest. The board approved the entire panel of judges.

Rafferty had refused to serve as a judge last month. He later said he refused because three directors of the foundation had once been cited in reports from the State Senate Committee on Un-American Activities.

Braden accused Rafferty of demagoguery and said the committee reports had been discredited. He declared that the contest's purpose, to teach the Bill of Rights, was a good one.

In addition to conducting the contest, the foundation offered the state $30,000 for development of a high school course on the Bill of Rights.

Rafferty said yesterday "I will be happy to accept it in the board's name."

Fair Solves Problem Of Returning

NEW YORK (UPI)—Visitors to the New York World's Fair who want to take time out for a ball game at neighboring Shea Stadium, visit their yacht at the fair's marina or go home for a shower and a change of clothes, can return to the fair the same day without paying an additional admission charge.

The visitor tells the guard at any of the eight gates he intends to return later. The guard then stamps the visitor's palm, heel of the hand, back of the hand or one side of the wrist with an invisible dye—invisible, that is, except when held under an ultraviolet light when the visitor reenters. The dye is harmless to the skin and clothing and wears off in about 12 hours.

Billion Dollars In 4 Months' Sales

SAN FRANCISCO — New York Life Insurance Co. has passed the 30-billion-dollar mark for life insurance in force, according to western vice president G. Thomas McElwrath in San Francisco.

McElwrath said New York Life added its latest billion in a little over four months. It took the company 54 years—from 1845 to 1899—to reach its first billion in force.

At the start of 1964, the company's life insurance in force in California totaled $4,355,000,000.

More than half the world's three billion people live in perpetual hunger.

OBITUARIES

Frederick Gius, 27, Succumbs

Frederick William Gius, who grew up in Marin County and attended Sir Francis Drake High School and College of Marin, died in a Fort Bragg hospital yesterday of injuries suffered in a traffic accident Wednesday.

He was 27 years old.

A forestry researcher, Gius was assisted in a Ford Foundation research project at Fort Bragg. He received a bachelor of science and a master's degree in forestry at University of California, Berkeley.

He was born in San Francisco, but moved to Fairfax with his family at the age of three.

He was injured when his car collided head-on with another near Agate Beach in Mendocino County at 3 a.m. Wednesday. The driver and passenger in the other car were both injured.

Gius leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hector Gius of Fairfax, and three brothers, David Gius of Concord, Robert Gius of Millbrae, and Leonard Gius of Fairfax.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Immaculate Conception Church, 3255 Folsom Street, San Francisco. Rosary will be said at 9 o'clock tonight at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. Entombment will be at Italian Cemetery, Colma.

SUZANNE P. ALLEN

Suzanne Pasmore Allen, a pianist who formerly lived in Marin County, died at her home in San Francisco Monday after a brief illness.

A member of the Pasmore Trio, she lived in Marin about 15 years, her last home being in Kentfield. She was the widow of Judge E. O. Allen, who died about six years ago.

She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Mary Pasmore Shattuck, violinist with the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra; Mrs. Dorothy Pasmore Bell, cellist; Radiana Pasmore, a singer, and Dr. Edith Pasmore Sappington. She also leaves a brother, Dr. John L. Pasmore.

There was no funeral service. Mrs. Allen directed that her body be given to University of California Medical School.

ANNA STEIN

Anna Elizabeth Leege Stein of San Francisco, a former resident of Ross, died yesterday in San Francisco after an illness of three years. She was 72.

She was a native of Munich, Germany. She lived in Ross from 1923 to 1954, when she moved to San Francisco. She was active in Red Cross work and very interested in gardening.

She was the wife of Herman C. Stein, a retired interior decorator. She was a member of the German Benevolent Society of San Francisco.

In addition to her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Gwendolyn Markaret Walti of Zurich, Switzerland, and Mrs. Evelyn Von Ripper of Spain, and three grandchildren.

Funeral will be private. The family prefers tributes be donations to the American Cancer Society.

NAT ELLIOTT

Funeral for Nat A. Elliott, 48, who died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow in Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

He had made his home with his friend, Manuel Medeiros of 9 Ross Street, San Rafael.

He was born Nov. 4, 1915, in Pennsylvania. He was a veteran of World War II, having served as a staff sergeant in the 201st Infantry. He was a member of the Carpenters Union in San Rafael.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Orpha Elliott of Hagerstown, Md., and a brother, Army T Sgt. Jack Elliott, stationed in Michigan.

Private interment will be held in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

MRS. PAULSEN

Funeral was held today for Mrs. Charlotte J. Paulsen of Mill Valley, the wife of Victor Paulsen, groundsman for the Mill Valley Park Department.

Mrs. Paulsen died at her home at 544 Marin Avenue yesterday after a long illness. A native of San Jose, she had lived all her life in California, residing 40 years in Marin County.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Swetland of San Francisco; a brother, Joseph Quijada of Coronado, and two sisters, Mrs. Marie T. Higgins and Mrs. Amelia R. Spiller of San Francisco.

Funeral was at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley. Burial was private.

Burglar Invades Sausalito Cruiser

The 56-foot cabin cruiser, Estelita, owned by C. L. Cummins of 80 Cloud View Road, Sausalito, was broken into during the night and $400 in belongings stolen, Ralph Schooling, boat keeper, told police today.

Entry, believed to have been between 5 p.m. yesterday and 8 a.m. today, was made by breaking a glass in the boat door and unlocking the door while the boat was tied up at the Sausalito Yacht Harbor. Taken were a radio, a portable television set, a camera, small box of tools, and a box of cigars, police said.

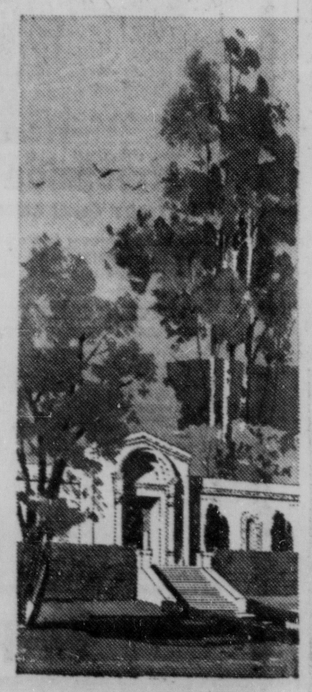
MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY in the Heart of our County



Marin pioneers chose a site in the heart of our county as a final resting place for their families. Today this location—at the west end of Fifth Avenue in San Rafael+is still convenient to all Marin points.

Marinites who choose Mount Tamalpais do so with the assurance that its beauty will grow with the years. The interest from a quarter-million dollar endowment fund—twice the legal requirement—is dedicated to the constant care and improvement of this 57-acre site.

Perhaps—like many Marin families—you wish to make your own final arrangements to spare others difficult decisions. If so, we invite your inquiry or a personal visit.

College Board Upholds Firing In Public Hearing

Dismissal of Richard Page of San Francisco, College of Marin custodian from November, 1963 to June 1 of this year, was upheld by the board of trustees last night.

Page was dismissed by college president Stephen E. Epler on recommendation of the custodian's supervisors, who reported several unauthorized absences and general inefficiency.

Public hearing on the dismissal, requested by Page, was held last night.

Several witnesses were called by Douglas J. Maloney, county counsel, on behalf of the college. Page cross examined Sam B. Serkie of San Rafael, college custodian-supervisor; William Raudio of Larkspur, superintendent of buildings and grounds, and Norman Bird, business manager, all of whom recommended his dismissal to Epler.

A brief executive session on the personnel matter was held by the board after the hearing before president Robert E. Oliver announced the board's decision to uphold the dismissal.

$700-Plus Stolen At Stinson Beach

Sheriff's deputies today were investigating the theft of a money bag containing $700 to $900 in cash from the safe at Elwood's Restaurant in Stinson Beach.

H. R. Shortleff, owner of the restaurant, reported the loss Wednesday to Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Burton. Shortleff said the money was placed in a bank bag and left in the safe under the bar on Tuesday.

When Mrs. Shortleff checked the safe about 9 or 10 a.m. Wednesday, the bag was there but the contents were missing. There was no evidence of a forced entry.

Fromm Unable To Speak At College

Author Eric Fromm will not be able to keep his appointment to speak during the College of Marin's concert and lecture series this fall.

The college board last week approved engagement of Fromm, author of "May Man prevail?" "The Sane Society," and "The Art of Loving," at a cost of $700.

Dr. Ellsworth R. Briggs reported last night that a telegram had been received yesterday saying Fromm would be unable to appear.

State Gives Raises To 24,000 Aides

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state personnel board has taken action to fatten the paychecks of about one-fourth of the state government's civil service workers, effective with checks for July.

About three million dollars was available for some 24,000 employees who will receive adjusted salaries under the board order.

The 1963 legislature made an appropriation of 38.6 million dollars for state pay raises for the 18-month period from Jan. 1, 1964, through June 30, 1965. Most of this was spent last January, when raises were given to about three-fourths of the state employees.

The three million dollars that was left over is provided under the board action for the 24,000 employees who were found to be due an additional adjustment. More than 14,000 of this number are in clerical classifications, including clerks, typists, bookkeeping machine operators and telephone operators. They will receive the additional 2.5 per cent raise.

Another group will receive 5 per cent raises. These include stenographers, key punch operators, information officers, hearing officers, office of administrative procedure, referees, unemployment insurance appeals board, building tradesmen, auto mechanics, building managers, clinical laboratory technologists and compensation insurance representatives.

Laboratory assistants received a 10 per cent raise.

The board's action, effective July 1, used 2.4 million dollars of the three million available for general fund salaries, as well as about 2.7 million dollars from special funds. Thus, some $600,000 from the general fund, and a corresponding amount from special fund remains available for further salary adjustments later in the fiscal year.

DEER TANGLES WITH TRAFFIC ON GATE SPAN

Deer do not cavort every day on the Golden Gate Bridge during the commuter rush hour.

A Hollywood resident may have gained that impression as he was driving north on the bridge, 300 feet south of the north end, at 4:50 p.m. yesterday.

Arthur Rowe, 57, slowed his car when he saw a deer running south on the sidewalk of the bridge. The deer veered quickly across the roadway and into the front end of his car, which had to be towed away.

Rowe may be wondering if Northern California highways are actually more dangerous than Los Angeles freeways.

Considering the wildlife, that is.

Hallinan Kin Convicted En Masse As Sit-Ins

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The wife and four sons of Vincent Hallinan, Belvedere lawyer, were convicted yesterday of trespassing, unlawful assembly and failure to disperse during racial demonstrations at a San Francisco automobile showroom last April.

Mrs. Vivian Hallinan and the sons—Con, Terrance, Mathew and Patrick—were among 19 persons convicted yesterday of violating the laws in the sit-in disturances.

The Hallinans made bail pending arguments on motion for a new trial. The motion will be heard July 28.

A jury in Municipal Court of Judge George E. Maloney convicted eight demonstrators, including Mrs. Hallinan, Con, Terrance and Mathew.

Patrick, who had been arrested with them but who had figured in the trial only as their defense lawyer, asked the judge that the evidence against the rest of the defendants apply to him, too. Judge Maloney obliged, finding him guilty.

The other defendants convicted were Corie Harer, Kenneth Hoah Jr., John Houghton and Genevieve Hughes.

In the Municipal Court of Judge James J. Walsh, 10 other Auto Row demonstrators were convicted on similar charges.

Military Pay Hikes Gaining

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 2.5-per cent pay increase for most of the 2.7 million uniformed members of the military forces won surprisingly quick and unanimous approval of the Senate Armed Services Committee yesterday.

The proposed pay boost for the armed services—which has President Lyndon B. Johnson's endorsement—would come on top of an increase voted last year that averaged about 17 per cent for officers and 12.7 per cent for enlisted personnel.

The new raises would range from $49 a month for top generals and admirals to $3 for recruits. But commissioned officers with less than two years service would get a special break—an 8.5 per cent jump which would range from $22 to $34 monthly.

The 2.5 per cent applies to the base pay for all other officers and to enlisted personnel—including noncommissioned officers—with more than two years service. Military personnel get quarters and subsistence special allowances in addition to base pay.

Costly Cat Returned Home— But Not Exactly Voluntarily

"Monty," the $1,500 feline, was found by three San Rafael children yesterday and taken home to the H.R.H. Cattery — although not exactly willingly.

Mrs. Charlotte R. Smiley reported the little Burmese cat, so valuable because it is one of only a dozen in the world that are "champagne mist" color, was stolen from its cage in the cattery outside her home at 1 Neame Avenue Wednesday.

About 2 p.m. yesterday, Richard Cameron, 7, and his brother Willie, 5, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cameron of 18 Santa Margarita Drive, and Loretta Farley, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Farley of 21 Santa Margarita Drive, saw the little cat hiding under some bushes, only about 75 feet from the Smiley property.

They told Mrs. Cameron. She called the Marin County Humane Society. To the scene went Humane Society officer Irving Sousa and San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa and Sgt. Louis E. Foster.

Mrs. Smiley had said "Monty" was gentle and playful, so the officers tried to coax him out. He wasn't cooperative.

Finally, Sousa got a hoop snare over the cat and pulled him, clawing and squawling, from under a bush. He deposited the angry feline gingerly in its cage at the cattery.

Monty's expensive coat was smeared with grease. Mrs. Smiley said he was "wild as a Commanche" when she got home, but calmed down after she fed him.

Planners Make Debut Tonight In Tiburon

Planning commissioners of Tiburon will elect officers and set a regular meeting date at their debut meeting tonight.

Commissioners recently appointed by the city council also have been entrusted by councilmen with drawing up a board philosophy of planning but probably will not have time to do so tonight, said Peter Macgowan, temporary chairman.

Also at the 8 p.m. meeting at Del Mar School will be County Planning Director B. D. Dobbs and City Atty. Peter Allen Smith.

Planning commissioners are Joseph C. Marshall, Stephen H. Nash, Mrs. William B. Newman, Erik Rettig, and Macgowan.

Sleepy Hollow Boy Kills Rattlesnake

James Chaille, 16, of 1421 Butterfield Road, Sleepy Hollow, shot and killed a 36-inch rattlesnake yesterday evening after the snake had struck out at the tire of a bicycle being ridden by two boys.

The snake had seven rattles and a button.

James' mother, Mrs. Marjorie Chaille, gave this account of wha thappened:

Two boys, Brian and Richard O'Neil, were riding their bicycles along a new road at the end of Butterfield Road. They rode by the snake, which struck out at the bicycle tires. They told James, who grabbed a .22 rifle and shot the rattler.

Bogs abound in sphagnum moss, cotton grass, black spruce and Labrador tea. The bogs of Cape Cod support cranberries, those of New Jersey, blueberries.

Nicasio 'Mayor' Heads Boosters For School Tax

Nick Kobseff, the "mayor" of Nicasio, was named by the Nicasio School District board last night to head a citizen committee for the Aug. 18 school tax increase election.

Assisting Kobseff will be Mrs. Jean Fahey and Mrs. Jean Van Pelt.

The election is on a proposed 80-cent increase in the district operating tax maximum, bringing the total maximum to $1.60 per $100 assessed valuation. The measure was defeated June 2.

School trustees have said it will not be necessary for some time to levy the $1.60 maximum, but some increase is needed to take care of rising costs and loss of assessment due to the Nicasio Reservoir.

Banks Condition Report Ordered By Government

WASHINGTON (UPI) Federal banking agencies today ordered all banks under their jurisdiction to report their financial condition as of the close of business June 30.

It was the second call this year. Banks can expect to have two more calls in 1964.

Rabies Clinic Attracts 193 Canine Pets

One hundred and ninety-three dogs lined up at the county fire station in Woodacre to receive their anti-rabies vaccination last night.

The Marin County Health Department, which sponsors the $2 clinics, reported that it was a very healthy showing. All dogs must have proof of recent anti-rabies shots before they can get new licenses.

The health department asked today that dogs which are "obviously" pregnant, sick or unmanagable not be taken to the clinics.

Next week's clinic schedule will be Tuesday at Marion School, 1705 Marion Avenue, Novato, and Thursday at Mill Valley Corporation Yard, Sycamore Avenue and Camino Alto. The clinics run from 6 to 8 p.m.

Streets Budget Reviewed For Corte Madera

The Corte Madera Town Councitl last night revived the street department's budget and set priorities for street construction projects.

The council also tentatively approved purchase of a new street sweeper and discussed on which side of the town street repair projects would be done during the present fiscal year.

The priorities are: (1.) A culvert over Paradise Drive at San Clemente Creek. (2.) A leveling course over Corte Madera Avenue to the Mill Valley city limits. (3.) Widening of Paradise Drive from the railroad tracks to El Camino Drive. (4.) Curbs on Meadowsweet Drive from Sausalito Street to the town limits. (5.) Construction of sidewalks from Walnut to Pixley Avenues.

Councilmen Albert E. Kogler and William W. Collier were absent.

Auto's Top Slashed

The top of a 1959 Ford convertible was slashed during the night in the closed but unlocked garage of Mrs. George Andrews at 160 Summit Avenue, Mill Valley, Mrs. Andrews told police today. She also reported that a kitchen window was broken about three weeks ago by someone throwing a pine cone against it.

Design For New Library Is Changed

Minor changes in design for the new Mill Valley Library, which the architect said would not add to the cost, were approved last night by library trustees.

Architect Donn Emmons told the trustees he will soon submit a schedule of when specifications for the building will be completed and when bids can be called.

Paul Rosenthal, who headed the citizens committee for the library bond campaign, reported there will be some surplus funds and that, when they are known exactly, a recommendation for their use will be given the board.

Mrs. John P. Farnham was re-elected board president, and Mrs. H. H. Fudenberg was elected secretary.

Five written protests were received to the board's "no smoking" rule in the library, but trustees deciding it is too soon to evaluate the rule, said Mrs. Farnham.

Hub City Chamber Drafts Letter On Downtown Zoning

A letter to San Anselmo City Council making recommendations on downtown business area zoning was discussed at length yesterday by San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce directors.

The letter is by member William J. Clyde of Clyde Building Associates. Its contents will not be disclosed until the chamber meeting next week, said Richard A. Kientz, group president.

Lacking a quorum at its noon meeting in Alexander Hall of San Francisco Theological Seminary, the board deferred action until the letter can be checked by attorneys, said Kientz.

The chamber reviewed presentations by its cleanup and beautification committee which has been checking city areas for litter to make cleanup recommendations.

Front Wheels Stolen Headlight Bashed In

Both front wheels are gone from a 1952 sedan parked on Marin Avenue in Mill Valley, the owner complained to the sheriff yesterday.

Edwin M. McInerny of 413 Marin Avenue said the left front headlight of his car was also smashed. He valued the loss at $40.

Novato Chief Warns After Garage Blast

Novato Fire Chief George Cavallero today issued a warning on the use and storage of inflammable liquids in garages.

A fire yesterday that destroyed the garage of Lloyd Perkins home at 1040 Greenwood Drive, Novato, resulted from an explosion in the garage. The Perkins's son, Bob, 18, went into the garage and lit a cigarette when "the whole thing exploded." Damage was estimated at $6,500.

"People are careless storing paint, paint thinner, gasoline and such liquids in their garages where they can explode or start fires from automatic water heaters, car exhausts sparks, or lighting a cigarette," warned Cavallero.

Valuable Hearing Aid Snatched From Truck

Fred C. Kuhn of 14 Kathy Court, Novato, lost a combination hearing and spectacles, worth $475, from his parked pickup truck in San Rafael Tuesday when he left it to enter a store, San Rafael police reported today.

Kuhn parked at noon in front of Wellen's Typewriter Co., 1113 Fourth Street, leaving the window open slightly. Someone forced the window and took the glasses, he reported.

Warning Too Late

Leroy Johnson of 2713 Heatherstone Drive, Marinwood, was somewhat curious last evening, noting his car's generator light remained on as he drove home from Albert's Arcade on Fourth Street at 11 p.m. Checking, he found the generator had been stolen while the car was parked.

Frightened Kitten Saved By Firemen

A hungry calico kitten was rescued from a large oak tree in Tamalpais Valley yesterday by firemen who ran out of ladder and had to climb the last 14 feet of the tree using spiked boots.

Capt. Richard Oswald, the rescuer, said the kitten, owned by Deborah Ulrich of 433 Marin Avenue, had been in the tree two days.

At 11:30 a.m. Civil Defense firemen Robert Irving and Charles Pickering, both high school student volunteers, stationed themselves at the bottom in case Oswald should fall. Then Oswald climbed the 16-foot extension ladder, and beyond that, used his spikes in the 30-foot climb to a tree crotch.

The child was full of appreciation, said Oswald, and he believed she was taking the kitten right home to give him something to eat.

"The firemen deserve a lot of credit," said a neighbor, Mrs. E. Montizambert of 431 Marin Avenue, who watched the rescue. "They take their lives in their hands."

Mugger Victim To Try Whistle

NEW YORK (AP) — Arlene Del Fava says she will use a police whistle to attract men.

She bought a whistle yesterday to summon help if a mugger attacks her, as one did last Sunday. She stabbed the man with a switchblade knife and was charged with violating antiweapons laws.

"Perhaps the boys won't be so eager to propose, now that I have a police record," the 27-year-old secretary said.

Police said she'd have been in the clear if she'd used an ordinary knife or a hat pin. Switchblades are outlawed.

Fairfax School Bond Backers Elect Chairman

Dr. George C. Stone of 801 Bolinas Road, Fairfax, was elected chairman last night of a citizens committee favoring passage of Fairfax School District's proposed bond issue at a Nov. 3 election.

Mrs. Gilbert P. Murphy was elected secretary and Wesley Roberts was elected treasurer.

Several committees were created to work for passage of the issue to finance expansion of the district's facilities, including purchase of additional school sites and financing classroom construction.

Second meeting of the committee will be held in about five weeks at Manor School, Stone said.

Sausalito Lions Club Officers

Francis T. Trojanowski, head of Trojan Properties in Sausalito, will take over as president of the Sausalito Lions Club at its Monday meeting. He succeeds Richard Urbais.

Other new officers are Myron Kaplan, first vice president; Thomas Hall, second vice president; Richard Blacow, third vice president; Irvine T. Low, secretary-treasurer; William McDonald, Lion tamer, and Urbais, tail twister.

Elected to the board of directors, to serve with the new officers, were Henry Meyer, Mathew J. Perry, Dr. Irving Igdaloff, Joseph De Martini, Ward Elliott, and Elmo Maggiora.

Light Car Stolen

Maile A. Snyder of 215 Main Street, Sausalito reported to police yesterday that his 1963 two-door Chevrolet Corvair was stolen from the parking stall at his apartment house between 1:30 p.m. Wednesday and 7:30 a.m. yesterday.

Dead Raccoon Leads To Injury Of Motorcyclist

Carlton Gearhart, 46, of Point Reyes Station was in fair condition in Marin General Hospital with a broken right leg after the motorcycle he was riding hit the rear end of a car stopped on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, one and one-half miles south of Inverness, today at 7:30 a.m.

Ronald Bendixen, 20, a student engineer at the Point Reyes National Seashore office on the Bear Valley Ranch, stopped his car in the roadway to examine a dead raccoon, according to California Highway Patrol Officer William Gregg.

Gearhart, an employee of American Telephone and Telegraph Co. at Point Reyes, plowed into the rear of the government car Bendixen was driving.

FIFTY YEARS OF HAPPINESS — Mr. and Mrs. Clayton F. Schwerin of San Anselmo relax in their well decorated backyard. They were married 50 years ago. They have lived in the house since 1921 and Schwerin has embellished the yard with colorful carpentry projects, ranging from an aviary to custom-made birdfeeders. (Independent-Journal photo)

Pay Raises Voted For Junior College

Salaries of College of Marin teachers, administrators and non-teaching personnel were increased by approximately 5 per cent last night by the college board of trustees.

College president Stephen E. Epler's salary was raised from $19,000 per year to $19,950. Paul M. Clymer, college vice president and dean of instruction, received a $747 increase of $16,317. Business manager Norman Bird's salary of $13,500 per year was hiked to $14,175. Irwin P. Diamond, dean of students, will receive $15,151, a $721 increase over last year. Herbert Blanchett, administrative assistant to Epler, received a $495 increase in his 1963-64 salary of $9,900.

Recommendations on salary increases were presented by Trustees Elizabeth M. Deedy and Robert E. Oliver, the world's salary committee, who had met with employee representatives several times during the last two months.

Graduate study by faculty members will be encouraged through the revised schedule by a $500 bonus for a teacher when he receives a master's degree and a $1,000 bonus for a faculty member who earns a doctorate.

Increase in total salaries was estimated at $69,629, or 5 per sent.

The revised schedule for full-time faculty members includes a $300 increase at the base of the schedule, creating a range of from $6,000 to $11,670 per year.

Board members reserved the right to modify salaries for individual positions during the school year. The administration was directed to propose a plan for study of salaries including a calendar for salary revision for 1964-65 which will provide an opportunity for employee groups to present recommendations to the board for consideration.

The Marin Junior College District board also:

1. Accepted the bid of $3,999 by North Bay Tractor Co. of Petaluma for an industrial tractor which will replace a similar vehicle which is 10 years old and no longer usable.
2. Learned that the college had received $401,930 as a result of passage of Proposition 1-A in November, 1962, which authorized the sale of 20 million dollars of bonds for junior college construction. An additional $97,000 is expected to be received by the college within the next two months through the bond issue.
3. Hired Carolyn DeVinny of San Francisco as secretary to Blanchett, assistant to the president, at $370 per month, effective next Monday.
4. Agreed to meet at 8 p.m. next Thursday in room 24 of Harlan Hall on the Kentfield campus.

One Span Leap Prevented, But Wife Missing

A Mill Valley school teacher was stopped in his attempt to jump off the Golden Gate Bridge yesterday, and an Oakland woman was feared to have been the fourth suicide off the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge.

Homer James Foote, 47, of San Francisco, a seventh-grade teacher at the Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley, drove up to a toll collector on the Golden Gate Bridge at 12:40 p.m. and said he was going to jump off the bridge.

The toll collector notified the California Highway Patrol and Foote was taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation. He was despondent over family matters, according to the highway patrol.

Listed as a possible suicide was Margaret Masako Takaesu, 49, whose purse and identification papers were found in a car abandoned one-third of the way up the incline on the Marin County side of the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Takaesu had spent Wednesday night at the home of her brother, Harold H. Itokaza, at 923 Del Ganado Road, Terra Linda, and borrowed her brother's car to drive back to Oakland.

Her husband, James, said Mrs. Takaesu had taken an overdose of pills three days ago. A search by the Coast Guard failed to turn up her body.

Previously, two women and one man have jumped to their death off the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge.

The Religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, was started in 1652 by the Englishman, George Fox.

After 50 Years They Debate Who Whistled

When Mr. and Mrs. Clayton F. Schwerin of San Anselmo celebrate their golden wedding tomorrow, Mrs. Schwerin may pucker up and whistle a bit—although she won't admit it.

That's the way it all began some 53 years ago when the couple first met in San Francisco.

"She whistled at me, because she wanted to go to a dance," smiles 72 year-old-Schwerin. His wife, Esther, isn't quite ready to concur.

"He was a happy-go-lucky kid, and I had known him before," she explains. "I was going to the bank for my boss, and he was whistling as he walked on the other side of the street.

"I whistled, too, and he came running across. He asked me dancing."

Which version is accurate hardly matters to the happy Schwerins, who have spent the last 43 years living in the same home at 58 Karl Avenue.

Schwerin, who is a commissioner of the Marin County Housing Authority, is probably one of the busiest men in Marin. He retired in 1957 after 48 years with the Firemen's Fund Insurance Co. in San Francisco.

Smack dab in the middle of the back yard sits a six-foot-high aviary, inhabited by some 40 canaries and 10 finches. He built it "in a week" in 1930, and has been raising birds ever since.

The yard is gay with colorful objects, ranging from bird feeders to ceramic and wood religious objects. He has "about 150" multicolored flowerpots arranged on a ledge near the driveway and garage.

"People ask me what I do with those things," he said. "I give them away, and then I have something to do again." I've got a lot of time."

With his time in the last 50 years, Schwerin has played semi-professional baseball, been exaulted ruler of San Rafael Elks lodge 1108, and a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, among other things.

His wife is "a busy housewife" but also belongs to several clubs.

She was born in Drytown, Amador County, "when it was really mining country." Schwerin was born in San Francisco.

Mrs Schwerin got the experience of a lifetime in San Francisco during the 1906 earthquake. Her family's home burned and she spent two years living in tents and temporary government structures, she recalls.

The Schwerins have one daughter, Mrs. Fred Mattei of Petaluma, and three grandchildren. They came to San Anselmo in 1921 when the few houses on Karl Avenue were surrounded by a prune orchard.

The anniversary celebration will be given by their daughter at Petaluma Women's Club, with a reception for friends and buffet dinner.

"We have had a lot of fun and a lot of happiness," was the couple's final judgement of their 50 years.

Marinwood Budget Has Sharp Rise

Directors of the Marinwood Community Services District approved a preliminary budget of $90,650 last night, up sharply from the $67,323 budget of the last fiscal year.

Although the budget was increased, the $1 tax rate for operations will be maintained. The bulk of the increase will come from operation of the new swimming pool, which is expected to be self-supporting.

There will be a sharp tax rate increase, however, as result of the $100,000 swimming pool bonds approved last year. Asst. County Auditor-Controller George Donaldson said the present 27-cent rate for bonds will probably go up to about 45 cents, because the district must pay for 18 months of bond redemption on the new bonds this year.

Directors appointed Graham V. Behn to fill a vacancy on the district's fire commission.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

12:20 p.m., San Anselmo—Grass fire on Dominican College property at end of Butterfield Road burned about one-half acre.

12:26 p.m., San Rafael — Overheated car engine caused by dry radiator at home of Dr. W. E. Bortfeld, 114 Bret Harte Road, San Rafael.

2:35 p.m., San Anselmo—False alarm at Ridge Road.

2:37 p.m., Marinwood — Illegal burning at home of Robert Gehrke, 113 Blackstone Drive.

3:02 p.m., County—Flooding carburetor caused car to burn in a southbound lane of California Park overpass, Highway 101 between San Rafael and Greenbrae.

3:45 p.m., Kentfield—Grass fire burned small area in empty lot opposite 144 Corte Anita; believed to have been caused by discarded cigarette.

5:25 p.m., Kentfield—Small fire in shingles of home of Neil Burton, 141 Cypress Avenue, caused by person burning paint off window sills.

7:27 p.m., San Rafael—Flash fire caused by ten-year-old Sandy Diamond, 24 Drake's Cove, trying to aid electric heating element light barbecue by pouring gasoline on it. Blaze singed his hair and eyebrows, caused approximately $300 damage.

8:47 p.m., San Rafael—Car fire on Lincoln Avenue between Third and Fourth Streets caused estimated $35 damage to auto driven by Arnold Schrick, 8 Tamalpais Drive, Mill Valley.

Nasser's Brother Weds

CAIRO, UAR (UPI) — Air Force Capt. Hussein Abdel Nasser, brother of United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser, was married yesterday to the daughter of Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer.

Boys Vent Ire On Principal By Windows Spree

Two young boys, who admitted breaking windows at West Marin School at Point Reyes Station, told investigators they did it because "I don't like the principal" and "I wanted to quit school."

Sheriff's Deputy William S. Christensen said he got these statements from a 9-year-old and a 6-year-old, who were caught in the act of window-smashing Wednesday night.

Christensen answered a telephone call about 6 p.m. Wednesday and raced to the school. He nabbed the boys throwing rocks at windows from the school's courtyard. Nine windows were shattered.

The boys are both from prominent Stinson Beach families. Parents have agreed to pay for all damages, said Deputy Christensen.

There are around 900,000 species of animals in the world.

Teen-Agers Held For Hub Burglaries

Two San Anselmo boys, aged 13 and 14, were arrested yesterday by San Anselmo police on suspicion of four burglaries since February.

The older was charged with two burglaries of First Presbyterian Church, 72 Kensington Road, San Anselmo in February and entry into a private home near his own residence May 3, said Juvenile Inspector Chester C. Orr.

Together the two were charged with taking $18 from O'Hagan's 76 Service, 830 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard on May 14.

The church was ransacked on one occasion and a portable transistor radio taken on the other, said Orr. A cigarette lighter and small change were taken from the home.

The teen-agers were cited to Marin County Probation Department. The 13 year old was on probabation for several previous offenses, said Orr.

Consumer Panel Is Warming Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government panel to help consumers with low incomes holds its first meeting next Tuesday.

Its mission is to "reach and teach consumers who have very little money to spend and who need to make every dollar count," said its chairman, Esther Peterson, special assistant to the President for consumer affairs.

Mrs. Peterson said the first meeting will be an executive session to organize work and review present programs and resources.

Young Demos Set Up Branch For Southern Marin

Peter Risley, a senior at Tamalpais High School, was elected president of the Southern Marin Branch of Young Democrats at an organizational meeting last night in the Mill Valley city hall.

Risley, 17, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Risley of 151 Stadium Avenue.

The organization, as yet unofficial, plans to discuss platform and membership again at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the city hall. At least 20 members are being sought, said Risley.

Allen Aleshire was elected vice president, and Robert Coffman, secretary. Both are Tamalpais High students and are of Mill Valley.

Workmen Racing Clock To Finish New Sky Lounge In San Rafael

Workmen at the new Redwood Club Sky Lounge and Restaurant have been laying carpet, installing fixtures and equipment, and fighting both the calendar and the hands of the clock—but executive chef Jerry Boccignone affirms by all his antipastos he'll be ready to open to the general public next Thursday.

Even before then there will be a few dry runs at this fifth floor spot in the Kaehler-Farrar Building, San Rafael. Monday (purveyor's night) will find some 250 purveyors, suppliers and their wives filling up the tables. Tuesday is press night, with newspaper, radio and TV people getting their preview. A pre-public invitational crowd of about 300 will pick up reservations on Wednesday night. By Thursday the machinery should be well oiled for a smooth operation, if Jerry and his staff haven't run out of gas.

And if the elevator signs aren't corrected by then, mentally deduct one flight from the floor you want before pressing the automatic starter. The way it is now, "G" stands for the first floor. Consequently the fifth floor will be labeled "4."

Menu lists 27 complete dinners starting at $2.95 for the filet of sole and running up to $6 for filet Mignon St. Germain, with plenty of intermediate selections —parmigiana, scallopini, sautees, oysters, frog legs, lobster, brochettes, sirloins, New Yorks, medallions, sweetbreads and others.

On the a la carte side, there are numerous salads, pastes, broiler items, seafoods, omelettes and sandwiches.

Sunday dinner specials at $2.95 include chicken and risotto, scallopini, roast sirloin, roast lamb and several others.

The luncheoner will be able to choose between sandwiches, a la carte and daily lunch specials at $1.65-$1.75.

THERE ARE a new room and new dishes down at El Borro, Tiburon's Mexican restaurant. Dorothy Boat and Sandy Keppel took over the small real estate office next door, knocked out a wall or two, made a new hallway and an additional party room—seats about 16. Good for overflows, too, on busy nights.

Keturah is now making "flan" — a Mexican custard dessert, served very cold with its own burnt sugar sauce. Also added to El Borro's wine list is a Spanish wine punch called "sangria," a combination of oranges, lemons, limes, mint, red wine and champagne. Good for what ails you.

Tiburon restaurants and bars are backing Kirby Atterbury of the Caprice again this year in a repeat of a Bastille Day fireworks program next Tuesday.

WE UNDERSTAND that Al Louie who handles the kitchen at Black Point Inn is in San Rafael General Hospital, so it's very likely the restaurant will be closed for a few days—at least over this weekend. Better check by phone before making a trip out there for dinner. Bar and lounge will be open.

THOSE INTIMATE little side tables for two at La Petite Auberge along the wall always seem to give the effect of forbidden meetings arranged surreptitiously. I must ask sometime how the maitre d' can tell — or do the couples look that way because they've fallen into the spirit of the evening and the location?

Nine times out of 10, when my wife and I visit La Petite, our "special" table is that little one by the wishing well. It's smack dab out in the open and seems to carry the admonishment: "Beware how you order here in front of everyone. Choose your viands as well as you select the wine. Linger over both graciously." So maybe we toss a couple of coins in the fountain to show composure, and after that hope if anyone is looking over our shoulders they will see the fare, the vintage and the Crafts all properly matched in good taste and sophistication.

Fact of the matter is, when you're on a spot like this, you'll seldom go wrong by tuning your ear to suggestions from the house —as we did this last time, and thereby came out far away and ahead with a most delectible combination: Filet of sole with lobster sauce, Caesar salad deftly mixed from anchovies to croutons by Paul Devaux, and brochettes of medallion of veal wrapped in smoky bacon and served with Bernaise sauce, tomato, wild rice and artichoke hearts.

So far as the wine snobs are concerned, we probably flubbed here — carrying straight through the meal on the white burgundy at the fish course, instead of adding red—but it's being done every day.

A card this week from vacationing Pierre Grigaut and his wife placed them in Paris, where apparently they're torn between enjoying themselves and a slight case of homesickness for Marin.

A CHANGE of musicians in Pat Kelly's Combo at Nero's Room, Ignacio has brought in Jack Barnes with his electric stereo accordion, adding a completely new effect in dance sound, and Al Strong on bass.

Pat and his boys are there Friday and Saturday nights for the dance crowd and they'll play your favorite numbers by request. (They're also available for private dance parties.)

OPENING of the Emporium bodes well for the Lin Fa Restaurant (changed in name from Lin Fa Gardens) in the Northgate Shopping Center. True, it's in Unit One, while the Emporium is in Unit Two—but the walk's only an appetite stimulator.

Added attraction here on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights is Larry Wickersham playing one of the new Hammond Organs. He is a staff instructor at Sherman Clay.

PARTIES FOR YOUNGSTERS can be pepped up with the antics of Ho Ho, "The clown who is a woman." She is Mrs. Roberta Carlson of 45 Meriam Drive, San Rafael and has been doing this sort of thing several years.

ROLAND BOUDREAULT at Pandora objects to being described as "a young, blue-eyed Peter Lorre type."

Okay, Roland, so we'll make that "a Peter Lorre version of Maurice Chevalier." Anything to please.

Ford Backs LBJ —And Romney Too

DETROIT (UPI) — Industrialist Henry Ford II, a supporter of President Lyndon B. Johnson, yesterday endorsed Gov. George Romney for a second term.

Romney said "Naturally, I'm pleased" by the announcement. The endorsement came at a news conference Ford called to announce plans for a new stamping plant for this area. Romney was present.

Ford announced earlier he would support President Johnson for re-election. But he said Michigan needed a Republican after "14 years of union rule domination in the governor's mansion."

Guerrillas Hit Village With Gun, Motar Fire

KUCHING, Sprawak State, Malaysia (UPI)—A military spokesman said today Indonesian guerrillas "poured machine gun and mortar fire into a defenseless village" in Malaysian Borneo last night.

The spokesman said a woman was critically injured and a man slightly wounded. The attack was "the fifth Indonesian incursion during the past two weeks, the spokesman said.

Japan To Send Medical Supplies To Vietnam

TOKYO (UPI) — The Foreign Office decided today to send medical equipment and clothing worth about half a million dollars to South Vietnam in response to an American request to offer assistance to that war-torn Asian nation.

The initial shipment is expected to be dispatched to Saigon next week, foreign office sources said.

Red Chinese Leaders Tour Nation Next Door

RANGOON, Burma (UPI) — Chinese Communist Premier Chou En Lai and Foreign Minister Chen Yi arrived in neighboring Burma today less than a week after the departure of Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan.

It was believed to be Chou's first trip abroad since his voyage to Africa and Albania late last year and early this year.

Indonesia Starts Work On World Trade Center

JAKARTA (UPI) — Indonesian President Sukarno yesterday broke ground for the construction of a 29-story trade and travel center.

Some of the money for the project comes from Japanese war reparations. The building will include banks, travel bureaus, and offices for airlines and customs.

Federal, Commercial Power Tie-In Is California Need

An enactment needed by the Far West is legislation to establish and finance an inter-tie system to transmit electric power from Bonneville Dam, on the Columbia River, to public-owned, corporate public utilities and private electric systems in 11 Western states. It would deliver power to areas of growth from a generating center where now, millions of dollars go over the dam in the form of potential electricity that cannot be marketed.

Particularly is this need true in California, where fantastic population and industrial growth unceasingly demands more power. The long-discussed partnership between federal, municipal and public utility interests moved closer to reality recently when Interior Secretary Udall, after extended study by his Department, advised the Senate Appropriations Committee that such a project not only is feasible by could save taxpayers many millions while the taxes paid by California's investor-owned public utilities add materially to California's revenue. The Udall statement was surprising to many—but it is common sense.

Briefly, surplus power generated within Bonneville's capacity would be made available to Western states through a series of inter-tie transmission lines. Under one such transmission, available Bonneville power would be transmitted into California by an Oregon public utility. Pacific Gas & Electric Co. would build further lines, making the additional power available over its system. There would be extension to the south, with construction by Los Angeles' city-owned power system, Southern California Edison and San Diego Gas & Electric Company. Other lines would enter Southern California and Arizona fields by diverse routes.

Construction costs would be borne by the federal government and other users benefitted—including a number of rural power co-operative districts. Federal partnership with non-federal interests has been a cause of opposition.

After the House passed an authorization measure without specifying an appropriation, the matter has been in the Senate Finance Committee. At early hearings, this committee requested the Interior Department to make a study. Result is Secretary Udall's report that such a system is feasible; that it guarantees a saving of over $2.6 billion yearly, with public-owned customers getting the greater share of the benefit.

Assuming the Senate Appropriations Committee approves the measure after Udall's report, the issue goes to the Senate for vote. If favorable, House concurrence in appropriation will be in order.

Inasmuch as power that can be generated by Bonneville—paid for by all U.S. taxpayers—would relieve necessity for more power generation plants in California, early action would benefit all power producers.

Buckeyes Bloom; Bees Beware

The California Buckeyes seem to be outdoing themselves with their magnificent white blooms. These native trees produce a kind of inedible horse chestnut later in the year.

Buckeye blossoms are attractive to bees, but deadly. The nectar of the buckeyes is a bit like thalidomide. It doesn't harm the adult bees, but carried back to the hives and fed to the developing embryos it causes grotesque deformities.

However, we know some beekeepers who have kept bees in the vicinity of buckeye trees for years and are still in business. Perhaps, after all, a few deformed bees don't make a hive.

Lone Delegate To GOP Convention Bombarded With Voters' Demands

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

WITH THE REPUBLICAN National Convention opening Monday, William O. Weissich is the man of the hour now, as far as Marin is concerned.

As the lone Goldwater delegate from Marin County, and one of only three delegates from the entire First Congressional District, Weissich will be moving into the St. Francis this weekend with his wife, Rosemary.

Goldwater delegates are apparently being bombarded by letters and telegrams from both supporters and critics of Barry Goldwater.

DELEGATE WEISSICH says the letters and telegrams fall into two categories—from Goldwater backers who demand that he stick by Barry all the way; and from critics of the Arizona senator who write that if Goldwater is nominated, they will vote for Lyndon B. Johnson in November.

Delegates are also being bombarded by other requests; namely, tickets to get inside the convention floor. But you might as well give up. Finding space on the convention floor is almost a physical impossibility.

First of all, there are 1,308 delegates and 1,308 alternates, who will be on the floor most of the time. More than 10,000 applications were turned in for press credentials alone. The speakers' platform, press section, enormous grandstand for TV and newsreel cameras, the band stand, etc., all take up space.

WELL, THEN, how about a page boy or water boy job? California is allowed nine pages on the floor, and a few honorary assistant sergeant - at - arms posts. These, of course, are gobbled up by party stalwarts who have contributed heavily to the Republican cause. And so there will be very few if any tickets for the "public at large."

But because of the extensive press and TV coverage, John Q. Public won't be missing much, except for the satisfaction of being on the convention floor in person.

In fact, you'll probably see more via TV than you could if you elbowed your way into the floor for a first-hand glimpse over seomeone else's shoulder.

HOW DID THE Cow Palace get its name? Edward Diran, secretary-manager of the Cow Palace, says that is the question most often asked by visitors. Construction began in 1935 during the depression. A San Francisco newspaper complained that while people were being evicted from homes, "a palace is being built for cows." The headline writer made it Cow Palace, and the name stuck.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

"The way I see it, he's got the South, and if he gets a couple of key Northern states, Goldwater could win in November. Uh, how about another round, men?"

More On Assessing And Marin Revenue

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Answering Tuesday's letter by Gladys Ertman of Kentfield regarding taxation etc., we would like to set some things straight regarding assessment practices in Marin County. Taxpayers should remember that the reappraisal program in 1955 to 1958 was county wide and was made under the supervision of the State Board of Equalization. At that time their recommendation was that all improvements were to be appraised at their replacement cost less normal depreciation—and this entire reappraisal was on that basis. Mr. Broemmel ran for election on the platform backing up this reappraisal program 100 per cent. The taxpayers of Marin County elected him by a very substantial majority.

Mr. Broemmel started reappraising the county again on the basis of only approximately one-quarter of the county each year, starting with Sausalito and Southern Marin. At this time, however, the State Board of Equalization had altered its opinion of what constituted "market value" and agreed that market value should be based on what a property would sell for in the open market and therefore actual sales were used as a yardstick in making his appraisals from that date on.

The State Board of Equalization is backing Mr. Broemmel up in his appraising methods 100 per cent and the State of California Circuit Court of Appeals has rendered a decision stating that he was completely within his rights in appraising only a quarter of the county at a time and placing those valuations on the immediate assessment roll following the reappraisal.

The Board of Supervisors have no control whatever on the methods of assessing by the duly elected county assessor—all they can do is, while sitting as a local Board of Equalization, they can reduce any assessment (or raise it) that has been protested, providing the taxpayer filing the protest can cite instances where exactly similar properties have been assessed at a different value. That is the only basis upon which they are supposed to reduce an assessment figure made by the assessor, unless, of course, there is a palpable error contained in the assessment.

It is apparent that the taxpaying public in general know very little about taxation: For instance, if two properties are assessed at $200 and $100 respectively and the budget requirements are $24, it is simple to figure that it takes an $8 per hundred valuation to raise this amount. Now say these assessed values are raised to $400 and $200 respectively, theoretically a rate of $4, per $100 valuation would produce the same amount of needed revenue — in other words if all property is assessed upon the same basic yardstick then all would be paying their proper proportion of taxes, regardless of what the tax rate might be. In other words if the total property tax base is three hundred million dollars in Marin County and the needed revenue to cover all budgets is around twenty-four million dollars, it will take an $8 per $100 valuation to raise this revenue but if this property tax base is cut to two hundred million dollars then to raise this same needed revenue would require a tax value of $12 per $100 valuation. So it is quite apparent that the method or yardstick of appraisal is not important so long as all properties are appraised on the same basis.

You quite evidently are not aware, Mrs. Ertman, that there is already a county-wide taxpayers group here in Marin County that has been fighting against all unnecessary or unjust taxation, for a number of years—this is the Marin County Taxpayers Association. They have actually saved the taxpayers of Marin County over eighteen million dollars in the past five years by the defeat of three particular bond issues.

There is one way and one way only whereby this taxation problem can be solved and that is by a general gross transaction tax system being installed in place of the present outlandish and discriminatory property tax system, and is the only system that would reduce the total taxes paid by a home-owner by 50 per cent. When the taxpaying public wakes up to this fact and backs it up with memberships in our association, the sooner this problem will be taken care of.

'Blue Jay' Means All Azure Jays

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In your article "Blue Jays—Meat Eaters" could you be referring to the Scrub Jay (Calif. Jay)? The habitat of the Blue Jay is east of the Rocky Mountains and not likely to be seen in Calif.

The Scrub Jay with its rasping shreek can only be described as a noisy nuisance. It also has the diabolical habit of pecking out the eyes of baby quail.

Obviously the writer of this article has not had a look at other less bold birds in the woods or he would not call this feathered delinquent Marin's most handsome bird.

NOW THAT those confounded experts are down to identifying people by numbers instead of names, Elliot Sharp tells about a convivial soul at the Hemisphere Club who introduced two men, explaining, "Number 435-11-9974, it's high time you met your fellow member, Number 632-7-091." The men shook hands warmly, and one said, "Mr. 632-7-091, where do you hail from originally?" "Dublin, Ireland," responded the other proudly. "Funny," mused the first man. "Your name doesn't sound Irish."

THE LATE Hesketh Pearson recalls an evening he spent with the George Bernard Shaws. While G.B.S. told one story after another, Mrs. Shaw sat silently doing needlepoint. "What are you working on so diligently?" whispered Pearson to Mrs. Shaw. "What difference does it make?" she whispered back. "It's just that I've heard these stories of his five hundred times, and if I didn't do something with my hands, I'D CHOKE HIM!"

GOP Civil Rights Plank Faces Task Of Spanning Serious Gap

SAN FRANCISCO — The GOP civil right plank is being fashioned here to bridge the gap between the Republican Party's strong support of the civil rights bill and Barry Goldwater's stern opposition. It is more gap than bridge.

It is easy to put words on paper which will appear as a tidy formula to conceal the deep differences between the Republican Party and its probable presidential nominee. But they won't stand up.

LET ME ILLUSTRATE:

The present intention of the platform-makers is to hail the passage of the civil rights law as an achievement for which the Republicans in Congress deserve prime credit. True, but it blandly skirts the fact that the probable nominee views the bill as a bad law, based on bad policy, which ought to have been defeated.

Another part of the proposed plank would wink slightly in the direction of Goldwater by remarking — just passingly — that "some doubts have been expressed about its constitutionality."

Whose view is going to prevail on this aspect of the plank—the Goldwater view that the law is unconstitutional or the dominant Republican view that it is constitutional?

TO HIS GREAT credit, Senator Goldwater has shown anxiety lest the presidential campaign stir up such racial tensions that they could get gravely out of hand. It is a fair fact that, despite his convictions that the new law is unwise and unconstitutional, Goldwater does not want the coming campaign to embroil the civil rights issue and make racial conciliation unattainable.

Goldwater is not a white supremacist at all. His work to reduce racial discrimination in Arizona has been constructive and courageous. But his position, that the protection of most civil rights must be left to the states to do as they wish, is profoundly encouraging to the white supremacists and to others who want to deny the vote and other rights to Negroes.

Consider how impossible these circumstances make it for the Republicans to write a straightforward civil rights plank and how difficult for Goldwater to make a persuasive case that he can be entrusted with implementing the new law.

THE PLATFORM can affirm and Goldwater can sincerely pledge that he will faithfully enforce it.

The problem is not to mount massive enforcement, but to promote the widest voluntary compliance. Here Goldwater has thrown away his credentials to appeal effectively for voluntary compliance, by saying that it is a bad law, unwise and unconstitutional.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Lodge's Vietnam Views Encouraging To Demos

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Republican campaign strategists, particularly Goldwater leaders, are studying intently a copy made available to them of the still-secret transcript of Henry Cabot Lodge's testimony at a closed meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

There is very good reason for this backstage GOP absorption and concern.

THE TRANSCRIPT explains why the former ambassador to South Vietnam has repeatedly expressed the belief that the Johnson administration's controversial policies there will not be a major campaign issue.

Throughout the lengthy session of blunt and pointed questioning by both Republican and Democratic committeemen, Lodge voiced unreserved approval of administration policies and support of them.

Similarly, he vigorously rejected the strongly advocated proposal to "carry the war to the north"—at this time.

In every respect Lodge's testimony directly and explicitly contradicts the views and arguments of leading Republicans assailing the administration's policies and record.

IT GOES WITHOUT saying the Democrats are jubilant.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (Ark.), chairman, questioned Lodge extensively on whether there had been any differences or disagreements between him and the administration. Fulbright's interrogation was manifestly carefully prepared to obtain a record for possible future use—such as the election campaign.

Fulbright: "In the months you spent in South Vietnam, did you at any time have any disagreements or disputes with authorities in Washington?"

Lodge: "No, I did not, at no time. I received full cooperation from the president and the State Department. There was never any strain or dissension between us."

Fulbright: "What about the Defense Department; did you have cooperation there?"

Lodge: "Yes, I did. I made certain recommendations and all were approved."

SEN. STROM Thurmond (D-S.C.), who has been sharply critical of some South Vietnam policies, questioned Lodge closely about extending the war to Communist North Vietnam.

The former ambassador voiced opposition to that, and supported the administration's course on this controversial issue. Seeking a more explicit answer, Senator Thurmond pressed Lodge for a categorical statement on "carrying the war to the north."

"I oppose that at this time," he replied. "The risks involved in escalating the war are far greater than in concentrating on building up the military and political strength of South Vietnam."

"DO YOU FEEL THAT something should be done about stopping the flow of Communist weapons and supplies into South Vietnam?"

"Measures should be taken to effectively close the Cambodian border," said Lodge. "That can be done in two ways; by setting up teams of United Nations observers and strengthening South Vietnam's border guards."

"What about the recent bombing of Communist gun positions and camps in Laos?"

"While that involved some risk," said Lodge, "I considered it necessary as a warning to the Pathet Lao and Red China that we mean business and will not tolerate continued provocation."

"The policies in effect in South Vietnam," Lodge declared, "are basically the same as those laid down by President Dwight D. Eisenhower and the late Secretary John Foster Dulles in 1954. There have been some adaptations to meet changing conditions and circumstances. But basically they are the same policies as those of Eisenhower and Dulles.

"It must by very clearly understood that this is not a situation where it is all win or all lose. This is a struggle to build up a weak and strife-torn country economically and politically in the midst of a desperate military struggle in that country. That is the great problem and test we are up against there."

The Country Parson

"Farming seemed like more fun when the crop you produced was going to be used for something other than filling a government bin."

10 YEARS AGO

The Tamalpais High School District board instructed Deputy Dist. Atty. Leland H. Jordan to file a complaint against a group of architects for a bill of $15,606, which the board considered excessive for plans for a boys locker and gymnasium at Tamalpais High School.

Use Urban Renewal Method For Richardson Bay, Scribe Urges

RICHARDSON BAY is getting to be a pretty tiresome subject, but let's throw one more idea into the pot, although this one might make the whole thing explode.

Why has not anybody mentioned solving the Richardson Bay problem by using an urban renewal development project?

The idea is so obvious and so attractive that there must be something basically wrong with it, since no one is now pushing for such a project.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors in August will consider floating a million dollar bond issue to solve the problem of cleaning up the upper part of the bay and preserving the aspects of open water. Such a bond issue will require a two-thirds vote of the residents of Marin.

SUPERVISOR Peter H. Behr said the bonds would go before the voters in November, which would be just dandy for persons who want to work on a bond campaign.

All they will have to do is find the time when they are not working on campaigns for or against presidential candidates, supervisorial candidates, the anti-Rumford initiative, school finance, lotteries, park bonds and school district unification.

An urban renewal project could be put into effect by three votes on the board of supervisors.

If a bond issue is floated, or if other local tax money is raised somehow including use of a special tax on the flood control zone the county could qualify for various matching funds for open space, recreation and the preservation of fish and wildlife from the state and federal governments.

IF THE RENEWAL route is chosen, the federal government, on approval of the plans, would kick in two-thirds of the entire cost.

And the local contribution can be in the form of public improvements, such as a park, a street or a sewer line, many of which may be paid for by local special districts.

A man generally considered one of the nation's top experts on redevelopment was contacted while this column was being prepared. He thinks that the Richardson Bay area is a natural.

It qualifies as a blighted area on several grounds, not the least of which is that much of the privately owned land is under water. Waldo Point may be picturesque, but by golly it's also blighted.

Marinship within Sausalito could also be included although the Sausalito City Council would have to cooperate, and has shied away from doing so in the past.

THERE ARE STILL more angles. The redevelopment expert commented that the land, once taken over, may be retained, (as a park for instance), may be sold or may be leased. The sale and leasing could produce a real money maker for the county, with light industry, yacht harbors, motels and a convention center as a few possibilities.

Also, senior citizen housing could be included, especially if a referendum for low cost housing is approved for the elderly.

ALSO, THE AREA is just across the highway from Marin City, which is now in a financial mess. Richardson Bay could pull Marin City out of the doldrums, with money from the bay land leases or sales used for the contribution toward rebuilding of Manzanita School, for instance.

There are problems. Renewal is a long drawn-out project and a master plan, which takes time, must be devised for the development. Property owners will object, as will developers who do not like government mixed up in the land development business.

But the idea still deserves much more thought than it has received.

Campaign Years Are Mighty Hard Times For Family Relationships

WASHINGTON — Election years are very tough on the American public, and great cause for bitterness. People you thought you could trust turn out to be bigoted, stupid, narrow-minded and uninformed. Friends turn against friends, fathers turn against sons, daughter turn against their mothers.

This particular election year should be one of the bitterest of all, if our own family is any example.

OUR UNCLE LEO isn't talking to Uncle Charlie since he found out Uncle Charlie was for Goldwater. Uncle Leo says that Uncle Charlie wants to get us into a war. Uncle Charlie has denied the charge and says he is for fiscal responsibility, and he suspects that Uncle Leo is a socialist. Uncle Leo says Uncle Charlie's probably a Bircher.

In the meantime, Cousin Sarah refuses to invite Uncle Leo over to her house because Uncle Leo is mad at Eisenhower for not speaking out against Goldwater. Cousin Sarah is not for Goldwater but she feels Uncle Leo should have more respect for Eisenhower. Sarah's husband, on the other hand, is mad at Uncle Charlie because he claims Uncle Charlie shoots from the hip and doesn't think things through.

Aunt Pauline happens to be for Rockefeller and got into a big fight with Aunt Ruth because Aunt Ruth said Rockefeller drove the Republicans into the Goldwater camp by getting a divorce. Aunt Pauline says that Aunt Ruth has a narrow mind about politics and should keep her big mouth shut.

UNCLE SIDNEY has been banned from Aunt Molly's house because, although Uncle Sidney is a registered Republican, he announced at the family Fourth of July picnic that he was going to vote for President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Aunt Molly called him a carpetbagger. Uncle Sidney told Aunt Molly she didn't even know what the word carpetbagger meant, so Aunt Molly said he couldn't come into her house.

In the meantime at the same Fourth of July party, Uncle Charlie announced that if Johnson won the election in November, he was moving to Canada. Uncle Leo said he'd give him a farewell party, which didn't go over very big with Uncle Charlie, who didn't think anyone would take him up on it.

TO MAKE matters worse, Aunt Augusta said she wasn't going to invite Uncle Lou and Aunt Stella to Cousin Alice's wedding because Uncle Lou wants Bobby Kennedy for vice president. Aunt Stella is furious because she invited Aunt Augusta to her daughter's wedding even though Aunt Augusta voted for Nixon.

There is a small pro-Scranton group in the family but they haven't picked up any supporters since Scranton announced he was going to run.

AND WE'RE ALL MAD at Cousin Marvin because he paid a hundred dollars to go to a fund-raising dinner for President Johnson, when he owes everone in the family money.

Cousin Marvin said if he hadn't gone to the dinner he would have lost his job with the government.

And so it goes. The next few months are going to be tough ones for our family, as they probably will for families all over the country. It is probably the only time in our lives when water is thicker than blood.

Skipper Faces Bleak Future At Canadian Park

TORONTO (AP)—Chuckie Joe, a battered old scow skippered by owner Ken Sinclair, is one of the last remnants of Toronto Island's once-thriving business life.

Chuckie Joe plows the water between the city and the island carrying essentials to the dwindling island population.

Sinclair's Island Freight Company is a haulage contractor, beer deliverer, house mover and sole source of oil delivery during winter.

Once a tool designer, Sinclair quit the drawing board in favor of the island's open air. Now he is philosophically awaiting the time when there will be no one left on the island to serve.

Metropolitan Toronto is gradually razing the homes of island residents in order to turn it into a park. In 1952, the first 638 leases were terminated and since then houses have been acquired in piecemeal fashion reducing the year-round population from 2,500 to 1,200.

Soon the island's three remaining businesses, a boat builder, a grocery and Island Freight, will have folded. The gruff owner of Island Freight will be the last to go. "After it's all gone," he says, "I'll still be here."

Postman Makes Final Delivery

HAWESVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The day before he retired, Arthur Webb, a rural mail carrier, sent the following postal card to all families on his route:

"Dear Patron: It has been a wonderful experience to serve such a fine and loyal group of people. I have rejoiced with many of you when you received letters from loved ones away from home. I have sorrowed when some received letters of bad news. I have anticipated with you that long awaited letter that never came. When I made mistakes your understanding carried me on. May the years ahead bring you and your families much joy and peace."

Wealthy Treasury Deepens U.S. Debt

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — With unexpected cash in hand the U.S. Treasury is indulging in one of its favorite gambits — extending the federal debt. It rarely has a good chance to do this as it has today.

The government will end up owing just as much, and probably more. But the date of payment on at least part of this debt will be pushed back. This is a long-time dream of the department chiefs who are plagued by the need to refund a continuously maturing debt. At times that can be pretty cramping.

The Treasury now has 2 billion dollars more cash in hand than it had expected — 10 billion all together—thanks to cuts in spending and increased tax receipts from a prospering economy.

It had thought it would have to raise 9 billion dollars more cash before the end of the year. Now it may need to borrow only 7 billion dollars to pay the bills before the tax receipts flow in greater volume in the early months of 1965.

The Treasury proposes for a while at least to get the needed cash $100 million at a time by increasing its weekly offering of short-term bills. Congress made room for all this by raising the legal limit on the federal debt to 324 billion dollars for one year. At present it's 312.6 billion.

It's the long-term bonds, not the bills, that cause the headache by maturing at times that may be less than convenient to the Treasury and perhaps upsetting to the rest of the money market. A big maturing issue can thwart plans to regulate interest rates and determine the ease or tightness of credit.

So now the Treasury is offering to refund in advance of maturity a record 41.7 billion dollars of such securities. Of the nine issues involved, 23.6 billion are held by private investors and the rest by Federal Reserve banks and other official holders.

How successful the offering will be is up to the holders. But the hope is that a substantial amount of these notes and bonds due anywhere from next month to February 1967, will be exchanged for three issues of bonds maturing from 1969 to 1992. Interest ranges from 4 per cent to 4¼ per cent.

That will give the Treasury more elbow room in managing the debt, even though the interest charges will be higher.

All-Time Record Earnings At RCA For Last Quarter

Earnings of the Radio Corp. of America during the second quarter of 1964 are reported to have increased 32 per cent over the same quarter last year, to establish an all-time record for the period.

Operating profits after taxes were $16,000,000, compared to $12,100,000 last year.

RCA's operating earnings for the first six months of 1964 also established a record for the period, rising 28 per cent above the first half of 1963. Operating earnings for the period were $37,600,000, as against last year's total of $29,400,000. Sales for the six-month period were up about 2 per cent over the total for the 1963 first half.

Operating earnings per common share for the first half of 1964 were 69 cents after taxes, compared to 53 cents last year. Per share earnings for the second quarter of 1964 were 29 cents, compared to last year's 21 cents.

Stock Market Closes Higher On Good Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher today on a good rally.

Trading was active near the final bell.

The strength of the advance diminished somewhat late in the afternoon as profit-taking developed.

Motors led the march and strength spread to other groups.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.6 million shares, compared with 5.07 million yesterday.

The motors' strength spread to other groups and the market appeared headed for another all-time high.

Brokers said the interest in motors stemmed from belief that the industry will have excellent earnings in the second and fourth quarters and that a strike may be avoided.

General Motors hit a record high of 92⅛ and then eased back a bit.

Chrysler equaled its 1964 high at 52.

Ford, announcing plans for a new 90-million-dollar plant in anticipation of higher sales, increased its gain to almost a point. American Motors and Studebaker gained fractionally.

Advances of about a point were made by Sears Roebuck, International Harvester, Zenith and IBM.

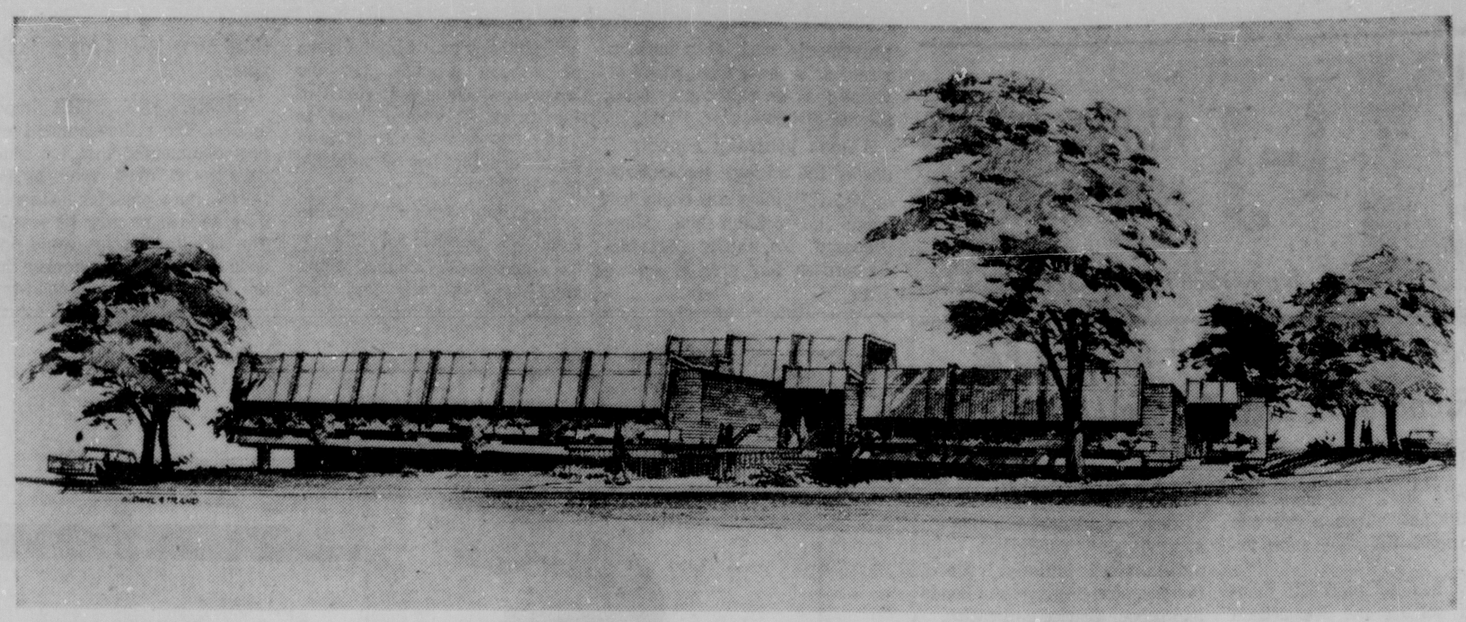
U.S. Smelting spurted more than three points and Phelps Dodge and Du Pont were up more than two.

Prices advanced in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and government bonds were mixed.

Bank Purchases Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO — A Bank of America underwriting syndicate has purchased the $1,470,000 public improvement bond issue of the County of Kauai, Hawaii.



DENTAL COMPLEX FOR NORTHGATE—This 10-suite Northgate Dental Building, designed by architects Neill Smith and Associates and to be constructed by D. M. Christensen Construction Co., is due for completion late this year. Elevated above the ground on piers to allow for parking, the building will present an unusual "floating" appearance. A second building to be erected later at the Northgate Shopping Center entrance will have a similar design.

Unified Building In Northgate Will Offer Space For 10 Dental Offices

A professional center to be known as the Northgate Dental Building, due for completion this year, will be constructed at Northgate Drive and Manuel T. Freitas Parkway.

Designed to accommodate 10 dental suites laid out to the specific needs of tenants, the center is one of two buildings which will be constructed by the D. M. Christensen Construction Co. at the entrance to the Northgate Shopping Center.

The structure will be of reinforced concrete and brick, with offices arranged around an inner court landscaped as a garden and patio area and providing entrances to the individual suites.

A private balcony will adjoin each suite. Offices will be sound-isolated and air conditioned, and fitted for the use of gas, oxygen and compressed air. A sub-surface garage will provide parking requirements of the building. On one side, a level entrance will allow access to the offices for wheel chair patients.

The building is expected to be ready for occupancy by late fall. Leasing, handled by Redwood Realtors, is 60-per cent completed.

Starting date of the second building has not yet been determined. It is planned to house a financal institution and title company on the first floor and professional offices above. Its design will correlate with the Northgate Dental Building.

Firm's Assets Rise

BERKELEY — Fidelity Savings and Loan Assn. total assets rose to $60,491,793 from $58,015,120 in the six months ended June 30, president A. C. Meyer Jr. has announced.

Champagne Tony Wins British Open

Independent Journal Sports
Friday, July 10, 1964 13

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Champagne Tony Lema beat off a great challenge from Jack Nicklaus and won the British Open Golf Championship with a near-record total of 279 today as the two Americans tore the hallowed St. Andrews Old Course apart.

Lema, refusing to crack as Nicklaus had the greatest day in St. Andrews history, responded with a four-under-par 68 and a 70 on the final pressure-packed day.

It gave the 30-year-old San Leandro, Calif., ace a five-stroke margin over the 24-year-old Ohio Golden Boy.

Nicklaus fired a course record—equaling 66 in the morning round and a 68 in the afternoon, for 284. Never before had St. Andrews been treated to such indignities.

Neither Lema nor Nicklaus had ever seen the St. Andrews course, the birthplace of golf, before Monday, and Lema had never played in Britain before.

This was the first major golf title for Lema, who won three U.S. tournaments last month with a putter borrowed from Arnold Palmer. Lema used the borrowed putter here, and also had Palmer's old caddy.

Lema was the 11th American to win the British Open, dating back to Jock Hutchinson in 1921.

The others were Walter Hagen, Jim Barnes, Bobby Jones, Tommy Armour, Gene Sarazen, Denny Shute, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan and Palmer, who won in 1961 and 1962.

Palmer did not enter this year. Nicklaus has never won this title, the only big one he has missed.

Champagne Tony, after rounds of 73 and 68, started the final day at 141, three under par and two strokes ahead of Harry Weetman, long-hitting Englishman.

Nicklaus was nine strokes behind, after a 76 and a 74 Wednesday and Thursday—days when the winds were so strong they almost blew the players down.

The winds started again today, but soon began to die down. A bright sun shone and there was almost perfect golfing weather.

Nicklaus banged out his 66, and at one stage had closed to within one stroke of Lema, who was playing behind.

"I heard Jack was five under par," Lema said, "and there I was, three over fours."

Lema promptly parred the sixth hole, and then shot five straight threes . . . three of them birdies ... on holes seven through eleven.

In the afternoon, with Nicklaus again playing beautifully ahead of him, Lema shot the seventh, eight and ninth 3-3-3.

That ended the struggle, although Nicklaus kept right on going. On the 18th, big Jack put his drive in the valley of sin, the huge depression in front of the 381-yard hole, putted it out to within six feet and ran in the putt for a birdie three.

Lema poked along behind, confident he had won. He parred hole after hole until the Road Hole, the 17th, when he lost a stroke to par. He still had a four-stroke lead, and needed only a seven on the last hole to win.

He drove short of the depression, and was surrounded by 10,000 golf fans. It took some time to quiet the crowd, and then Lema pulled out the trusty seven iron and ran the ball to within 18 inches of the cup.

He stroked the putt in for a birdie three and the title.

Robert De Vicenzo of Argentina put together a 67, including six threes, in the final round of 285—one back of Nicklaus.

CAL CREW SWEEPS INTO OLYMPIC TRIAL FINALS

NEW YORK (AP)—California, Yale, Philadelphia's Vesper Boat Club and Harvard gained the final of the Olympic eight-oared trials today. The United States crew to compete in the Tokyo Games will be determined tomorrow.

California and the Vesper team won their semi-final heats today, the unbeaten Golden Bears of the West Coast beating a stubborn Yale crew by a half-length in 6 minutes, 12.7 seconds.

The Vesper eight defeated the previously unbeaten Harvard crew handily, turning in a time of 6:6.6 for the Olympic distance of 2,000 meters—about 1¼ miles — on placid Orchard Beach Lagoon.

Semifinals, first two crews qualify for finals:

Heat 1-1, California 6:12.7. 2, Yale, 6:14.7. 3, Detroit B.C., 6:18.7. 4, Washington varsity, 6:20.5.

Heat 2-1, Vesper B.C., 6:06.2. 2, Harvard 6:14.1; 3, Laconia Rowing Association "A," 6:17.8; 4, Washington junior varsity, 6:21.8.

Sanford Out Indefinitely; Perry Is 'In'

CHICAGO (AP)—Rangy relief star Gaylord Perry suddenly was spotlighted today as a potential regular starter for the San Francisco Giants, who may have lost veteran Jack Sanford indefinitely.

Long-ailing Sanford's struggle to keep starter status received a sharp setback yesterday when his pitching arm went numb in the second inning of an eventual 9-4 Giant spanking of the Chicago Cubs.

Sanford flew to San Francisco last night for a thorough examination of his right arm which was reported afflicted by impaired circulation.

Perry, 6-foot-4 righthander, replaced Sanford and just missed finishing a notable rescue job for his seventh verdict against four defeats.

Perry struck out seven and had the Cubs well checked until the ninth when a single, a walk and Ron Santo's two-run double brought in Bob Shaw, who retired the final Cub batter.

Giant manager Al Dark, with only Juan Marichal, 11-4; ex-Brave Bob Hendley, 8-5, and rookie Ron Herbel, 7-4, as hurlers with more than 10 starts to date, was cautious about pinning a regular starter tag on 25-year-old Perry.

"All I can say is that Perry will start Tuesday night against the Braves in Milwaukee," said the Giant pilot. "I cannot comment beyond that."

Perry has had two previous starts—losing to Pittsburgh 9-2 on May 5 after posting a 2-0 relief record dand blanking the New York Mets 5-0 on June 30. Last year, he had a 1-6 mark in 31 appearances.

Sanford has been heavy-armed all season. He made his 17th start against the Cubs yesterday, but puts his ailing flipper under doctor's scrutiny today with a record of only three complete games and a 5-7 record.

This compares with Sanford's 16-13 mark last year and 24-7 in the Giants' 1962 pennant-winning season.

Dark shows no apparent concern for the pitching status of his power-packed Giants, commenting:

"I don't know exactly what's wrong with Sanford. He has come to me four or five times before saying his arm hurt, but he didn't know why.

"The way Herbel and Perry have come through, I feel we have enough pitching depth. I have no complaint about our pitching. Coach Larry Jansen has my pitching going great."

Giants Must Play Majority Of Remaining Games On The Road

CONNOLLY

You may not agree, but the word SCRAMBLE best describes the National League pennant race as the second half gets off to a blistering start.

Any one of the first five or six clubs that builds up a sizeable winning streak could move into contention and any one of the top teams that hits a losing streak could fizzle itself right out of the fight.

The daffy schedule seems to have played a dirty trick on the Giants. They have many, many more games away from home in the second half than you'd expect. Roughly seven out of every eleven games they play is on foreign soil. And that "ain't good." The team that plays its toughest games in its home park naturally rates an edge.

But because of weather conditions in the early part of the season, and airplane economy, the schedule had to be jockeyed to keep the best team in the west early in the race and make the western teams play east in the second half.

It is difficult to try and arrange a schedule to give teams a short plane jump and thus reduce expenses, so that is why so many of the teams seems to have repeat series, almost one after another. However the schedule makers were able so far to keep the best teams meeting each other under favorable weather conditions, so in that way they console themselves.

THE GIANTS' longest competition in the second half is with Houston. Eleven games remain with five in S.F. and the balance in Houston's sticky, murky weather.

Chicago, Milwaukee, and Philadelphia each have nine more games with S.F. The Cubs have four in S.F.; the Braves and Phils three apiece. L.A. has eight games, only two of which are in S.F. Pittsburgh and N.Y. have seven more raps at the Giants with Cincy Reds and St. Louis six games each.

Before we know it the home stretch could be here and it could happen hurriedly for the Giants if they don't hurry up and start playing heads up baseball.

SO FAR the Candlstick "dunces" are a striking example of a rambling wreck, looking bad one day and sharp the next. next. There is no explanation for it, according to Manager Al Dark. Maybe there isn't anything he can do about it but from this vantage point it seems like the tail is wagging the dog.

It may be a lopsided way of looking at it, but I'm of the firm conviction that pitcher Jack Sanford is either a basket case or he isn't.

And if they say he has circulatory trouble, why try and let him pitch? Sanford and the Giant management should make up their minds whether he pitches or plays tiddle-wink in a hospital. Nobody wants an ailing pitcher to pitch, but it seems like nobody is sure whether his ailment is severe enough to sideline him.

AND IN the case of Sanford the matter should be settled now, for once and all.

In addition to the ailment of Sanford, the biggest trouble with all Giant players might be called "FENCE-I-TIS." They all want to hit home runs—they're all trying to be generals instead of privates and no army can march to victory without a few non-coms in the regiment.

Tie In Women's Nat'l Open; American Eagle Wins Again

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- Three-time champion Mickey Wright, Marlene Bauer Hagge and newcomer Shirley Englehorn shot two-under par 71s for a three-way tie yesterday as par proved elusive in the first round of the Women's National Open Golf Championship.

Playing the 6,376-yard, par 36-37—73 San Diego Country Club course under sunny skies, home town favorite Miss Wright, who has played the layout innumerable times, made the trip in 35-36 in what she called her finest competitive round here.

Mrs. Hagge, who started as a youngster in golf in Long Beach, shot 34-37, and Miss Englehorn, 23, an attractive lass who teaches golf in the winter in Los Angeles, had 37-34.

Only five of the 53 starters broke par and among the major casualties was the defending champion, Mary Mill of Gulf Hills, Miss., who soared to 38-41—79.

American Eagle Wins

NEW PORT, R.I. (AP)—Undefeated American Eagle was on the sidelines today as the observation trials for America's Cup candidates continued with Constellation meeting Columbia and Easterner battling Nefertiti.

American Eagle kept her record unblemished yesterday, scoring her second straight victory in the observation trials and her ninth over-all by beating Easterner by 2 minutes, 27 seconds.

Constellation also won her second straight in the trials, whipping Nefertiti by 1 minute, 32 seconds over a 20.7-mile triangular course on Rhode Island Sound. It was Nefertiti's first start in the current series.

Columbia was idle.

Littler Leads Field

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—Gene Littler sank three birdie putts on rain-soaked greens and took a two-point lead over National Open Champion Ken Venturi in the opening rounds of the mathematical Wykagyl Round-Robin Golf Tournament yesterday.

The 1961 Open winner from San Diego shot a 36-34—70 over the par 37-35—72 Wykagyl course and picked up 12-plus points in this unique match play, man-to-man event.

Venturi flashing some of the same kind of golf he fired in last month's U.S. Open Championship at Washington, D.C., also had a 70 and finished with 10 plus points.

Behind the two leaders came Miller Barber with plus seven points, followed by Johnny Potts, plus six; Fred Hawkins, plus four, and Dave Marr, plus two.

Patterson Now No. 2

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson, the former heavyweight champion from New York, was named Fighter of the Month today by Ring Magazine for his 12-round decision over contender Eddie Machen of Los Angeles at Stockholm last Sunday.

In addition, Patterson was boosted from seventh contender to the No. 2 spot in the July ratings by Ring. Machen was dropped from fourth to seventh. Doug Jones of New York, who was second, was demoted to fourth because of inactivity. Sonny Liston, the former champion from Denver, is No. 1, and Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., is fourth.

Aussies Davis Cup Stars Reinstated

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — The Lawn Tennis Assn. of Australia lifted its ban on Wimbledon champion Roy Emerson and runner-up Fred Stolle brightening Australia's hope of regaining the Davis Cup.

Emerson will play for Australia in the Davis Cup match against Canada in Montreal later this month. Stolle, however, will not be included in the team for that match because his name was not submitted to the Canadian Assn. within the required 10-day limit for the naming of the Davis Cup team.

The LTAA meeting was held in committee but an official statement issued after it by President Norman W. Strange showed there was some opposition to removal of the ban. Two motions placing conditions on lifting the ban were defeated before the meeting finally carried this motion:

"Subject to each player giving an unqualified promise to remain in Australia from Oct. 1, 1964 to Feb. 28, 1965 the ban will be lifted in respect of such players."

Emerson and Stolle had been suspended because they participated in foreign tournaments before March 1 without permission.

Odd-Even Tourney At Meadow Club

It was "odd and even" day yesterday for the women golfers at the Meadow Club.

Tournament winners were:

Class A — Mrs. H. C. Billings, 42-9½—32½; Mrs. R. J. Fuite, 43-9½—33½; Mrs. L. H. Arfsten, 44-9½—34½.

Class B — Mrs. John F. Allen, 46-11—35; Mrs. J. S. Harrison, 46-10½—35½; Mrs. L. G. Garrett, 48-11½—36½.

Class C — Mrs. Ed Christie, 46-14—32; Mrs. John Gurge, 47-14—33; Mrs. Richard Boyd, 50-14½—35½.

KTIM TO AIR LI'L LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Mill Valley Little League championship game between the Realtors of the National League and the Eaglets of the American League will be broadcast on KTIM tomorrow live from Boyle Park.

Handling the play-by-play will be John Pagliaro and Joe Behm, with a pre-game show starting at 12:50 p.m. The game will start at 1 p.m.

Top 49er Rookies To Report Early

The San Francisco 49ers said today that their top draft choices would work out with the Prospectors' coaching staff next week.

Number one pick Dave Parks from Texas Tech, number two choice George Mira of Miami and possibly number three selection Dave Wilcox of Oregon will work out at the team's Redwood City training camp prior to heading east for the College All-Star battle with the Chicago Bears.

Mira, a 185-pound signal-caller, arrived yesterday with his wife after a leisurely cross-country sight-seeing tour.

Mira discussed the recent All-American game at Buffalo two weeks ago where he was named the outstanding performer.

"That was definitely the biggest team I've ever played against," he said. "Those linemen were huge. They had size and weight both."

"But I didn't have any trouble throwing over them," he said. Statistics bore him out. He hit 21 of 40 passes for 306 yards.

Mira continued, "I'm really looking forward to playing pro ball. It will be a real challenge. The pros are all fine athletes or they wouldn't be here."

Marin Sailor In America Cup Test

Warrick Thompkins, a member of the Sausalito Yacht Club, moved into the international yachting scene this week as a crewman aboard Nefertiti which made her start in the America's Cup trials yesterday at Newport, R.I.

Being in this yacht classic is not a new thing for Thompkins. In 1958 he was a member of the crew on Weatherly in the trials but she lost out to Columbia which went on to beat Sceptre, the English challenger, for the Cup.

Weatherly did make it for the challenge round in 1962 and went on to defeat Gretel, the Australian challenger. Thompkins was not aboard Weatherly that year, however.

As he did aboard Weatherly, Thompkins, 32, is in charge of the foredeck on Nefertiti, handling the spinnaker and jib. Nefertiti is one of five 12-meter yachts competing for the right to defend the cup against the English challenge. The other United States hopefuls are Constellation, Easterner, American Eagle and Columbia.

"COMMODORE"

Thompkins, nicknamed "Commodore," grew up in Boston and came from sea-loving parents so was aboard a boat of some kind much of his young life.

Six years ago he married Janet Mosure of Santa Rosa, a gal who had done a lot of sailing herself.

Last month Thompkins joined Nefertiti's crew at Long Island Sound where preliminary trials were held June 8 through 13. American Eagle won the prelims with five straight victories.

Mrs. Thompkins, meanwhile, has been working for the welfare department in Richmond. She was staying at the home of some friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walters of 70 Windsor Avenue in San Rafael, for a while, but now is staying with friends in San Francisco.

"When my husband comes back we hope to find a place in Marin," she said.

Thompkins will be one of a 12-man crew on Nefertiti. The racing committee is considering chopping the crew limit to 11, but 12 was the number used by Weatherly in the 1962 challenge race, with 4 additional sailors used as "spares."

Terrell 5-2 Pick In TV Bout Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Ernie Terrell, like every other heavyweight contender, would like to get the next shot at heavyweight champion Cassius Clay. But the gangling Chicago boxer said today he'd settle happily right now for a crack at ex-champion Floyd Patterson.

The No. 3 contender, meanwhile, will risk his chances for advancement tonight when he faces light heavyweight contender Bob Foster of Washington, D.C., in the 10-round television fight at Madison Square Garden. (ABC-TV, Channel 7, 10 o'clock, PDT).

Winner of 10 straight, the 206-pound, 25-year-old Terrell is rated a 5-2 favorite over the 181-pound Foster, who has won three straight by knockouts.

Terrell's winning streak includes conquests of contenders Cleveland Williams and Zora Folley. His record is 33-4, including 16 knockouts.

Foster has a 14-2 record, including 10 knockouts. He was knocked out in the eighth round 21 months ago by Doug Jones, now the No. 1 heavyweight contender.

Front-Running Phils Find Another Way To Beat You

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

When All-Star hero Johnny Callison said "It's gotta be a Phillies year" he didn't mean the National League leaders were ready to sit back and wait for the breaks.

His manager, Gene Mauch, emphasized the point when he added, "If we can't beat you one way, we'll beat you another."

Callison won the All-Star game Tuesday with a three-run ninth inning homer, but he kept the Phillies 1½ games ahead of the Giants last night with a pin-point throw from right field to home plate.

Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the sixth inning off Cincinnati's John Tsitouris to take a 4-2 edge going into the seventh when Callison provided the turning point. Phillies starter Ray Culp issued a walk and rookie third baseman Richie Allen committed a two-base error on Frank Robinson's grounder, putting Reds on second and third with two out.

Deron Johnson rifled a single to right scoring one run, but Callison charged the ball and threw a strike on the run to the plate to nail Robinson, who was carrying the tying run.

Reliever Jack Baldschun shut out the Reds on one hit over the final two innings to give the Phillies a 4-3 decision. Clay Dalrymple accounted for two of the Philadelphia runs, one on his third homer of the season. John Edwards connected for the Reds.

Willie Mays and Willie McCovey helped the Giants keep pace by slamming home runs in San Francisco's 9-4 verdict over the Cubs and the world champion Dodgers sank 11 games behind by blowing a 5-2 lead with two out in the ninth inning to the Houston Colts, losing 6-5.

In other National League games the Braves downed the Pirates 11-6 and the Mets upset the Cardinals 4-3.

A year ago the pennant-bound Dodgers only needed to call on reliever Ron Perranoski and their worries were over. But this is another year.

Perranoski came in to face the weak-hitting Colts with one out and the bases loaded in the ninth. After getting a force play at the plate, he yielded a walk to John Bateman, an infield single to Al Spangler and Nellie Fox's two-run single which plated the tying and winning run. The loss was the fourth for Perranoski—one more than he had all last year when he had a 16-3 mark.

Ancient Warren Spahn (6-8) finding the victories tougher and tougher to get, won his first game in a month but failed to go the distance for the 11th straight time. He was chased by the Pirates after giving up six runs in six innings, including homers by Bill Mazeroski and Gene Alley. The Braves had staked Spahn to eight runs in the first two innings. Lee Maye drove in four Milwaukee runs with three hits and Eddie Mathews added a homer.

Frank Thomas, making his first appearance in 28 games, hit a two-run pinch hit homer off Curt Simmons with two out in the ninth inning to provide the Mets victory. Thomas had been sidelined with a gland infectiin since May 31 and had not taken batting practice until last night.

TWIN CITIES

In the western Canadian Arctic the temperature sometimes falls to 50 degrees below zero.

An Unexpected Bonus For Cal Dove Hunters

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California dove hunters received an unexpected bonus today in the form of a probable increase in limits for the 1964 season.

The U.S. Interior Department's announcement from Washington of basic seasons for several bird species included the raising of mourning dove limits from 10 bagged and 20 in possession to 12 and 24 respectively. The 10 and 20 limits have been in effect for years.

The increased limits still must be approved by the California Fish and Game Commission. It must set the regulations within 10 days.

POPULATION BOOM

The increased limits were made possible due to a boom in the dove population. The State Fish and Game Department said dove numbers were up 21 per cent on the West Coast.

Ben Glading, the department's game management chief, added that past California dove hunting "has barely scratched the surface of the population."

Glading speculated the commission probably would set the Northern California dove opener on Sept. 1 and the Southern California opener of Sept. 5. The seasons would run around 30 days.

Marin Softballers Lose Double Bill

The Sohner Tree Service softball team dropped a doubleheader to Parkside Misracks of San Francisco, an entry in the state tournament next month, 1-0 and 5-3 in S.F. yesterday.

An unearned run in the bottom of the seventh was good for the 1-0 victory in the first game. Winning pitcher Don Snyder and loser Earl Lowe of Sohners each hurled three-hitters.

Lou Perazzo suffered the loss in the nightcap for the Treemen, and Dave Hughes sparked the Sohner attack with a pair of singles.

Corte Madera Driver Hopes To Repeat

Jules WeBeaubien of Corte Madera will be hoping to repeat his victory of last week tomorrow night at the Vaca Valley Drag Strip. Time trials get started at 4 p.m., and eliminations begin at 9 p.m.

DeBeaubien won a trophy and prize money last Saturday night with a speed of 98.06 miles per hour and an elapsed time of 14.04 seconds.

Hart Shows Heart; A Great Comeback

CHICAGO (AP) — Jimmy Hart—pronounced heart—may wind up with the comeback-of-the-year award as well as rookie-of-the-year honors in the National League.

The young third baseman was almost knocked out of baseball last year when he was hit twice by pitches in his first seven major league games. A number of observers predicted he'd never be the same.

But Hart is currently vindicating the faith shown in him by the San Francisco Giants by batting at a lusty clip at a time when the power-laded Giants lineup is hitting below par.

In San Francisco's last 16 games, Hart averaged .409 with 25 safeties in 65 at bats. His hit total for the span includes four homers, a triple and three doubles. He's scored 11 runs and batted across eight.

Hart's hot bat was very much in evidence yesterday when the Giants rocked the Chicago Cubs 9-4 to remain within 1½ games of the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies.

The victory was the Giants' second straight over the Cubs after Chicago won the opener of their five-game series.

FOUR FOR FIVE

Hart contributed four singles in five at bats to San Francisco's 16-hit attack against five Cub pitchers. The rookie also scored two runs and drove in one.

It marked the third time in the last 16 games Hart has had four hits in a game. Yesterday's output raised his average to .282.

Veteran right-hander Larry Jackson, an old Giants nemesis, was no match for San Francisco as the Giants clipped him for nine hits and six earned runs in 4⅓ innings.

Willie Mays led the onslaught by hitting his 25th homer of the season in the first inning with none aboard. The Giants added two in the second on singles by Hart, Tom Haller and pitcher Jack Sanford's single sandwiched around throwing errors by catcher Dick Bartell and Billy Cowan.

The Giants splurged for three runs in both the fifth and sixth innings to put the game out of reach. Big blow during the sixth inning uprising was Willie McCovey's two-run homer, his 12th.

Marin MAGAZINE
Bright reading for the whole week

Featured this Saturday:

Marin County numbers among its residents the young president of the Bay Area's first complete film production company. Kentfield's Bruce Campbell heads Independent Producers Associated Inc., a young but growing firm with numerous projects under way and ambitious plans for the future. The story of Bruce Campbell and IPA is featured in tomorrow's I-J Marin Magazine.

A number of young Marinites are enjoying ranch life this summer. They're the lucky visitors to the El Adobe Jr. Guest Ranch, operated by Novato couple Reno and Babe Pronzini in Sonoma County just across the Petaluma River from Marin. I-J reporter-photographer Theron Newell gives you a full report on this interesting vacation spot in tomorrow's weekend supplement.

Two of Marin's most colorful cultural events of the summer are on hand again. Tomorrow, folk dancing enthusiasts will gather from throughout Northern California for the annual Marin Folk Dance Festival. And next Wednesday night, the 1964 Marin Shakespeare Festival gets under way. These two festivals provide the impetus for separate feature stories in the Marin Magazine tomorrow.

Marin's own magazine . . . picturing and reporting life in Marin today . . . personalities, recreation, coming events, book reviews, gardening, music, home improvement, weekly TV log. A week of good reading. Look for it, Saturdays.

Recipes For Salmon And Abalone; Pickled Trimmings Mighty Tasty

STEVENS

In case you have a surplus of fresh salmon in your refrigerator or freezer, and you'd like some tips on canning some for future use, or would like a list of 30 ways to prepare for the table, I still have on hand such lists. Send a self-addressed and stamped envelope to me. I'll return the list.

I know that a good many of my readers have, or will have, an over-supply of abalone, what with the minus tides this week, and I'm wondering how many of you realize that the parts of abalones that you trim off before pounding can make a mighty tasty dish of pickled trimmings. Want to try it? Just wash off the black substance, boil for 90 minutes. While boiling, prepare a pint of liquid consisting of one-third oil, two-thirds vinegar. Salt and pepper to taste. Add small chopped onion, two kernels garlic, chopped fine, and two or three bay leaves. (This amount of liquid will handle four abalone trimmings.) After trimmings have been boiled, remove from fire, drain and allow to cool. When cool, place in liquid for one-half hour. Then they are ready to eat. The above recipe was given me by "Frenchy" Levigne, and it's a good one.

GUESS I might as well add another recipe that is a humdinger. Abalone Soup. Here's how: Clean one large abalone and pound to a very soft pulp. Place in kettle; add two cups COLD water. Bring to boil over slow fire, stirring often. Now add two cups undiluted condensed milk or two cups fresh milk. Bring again to a boil. Make a thickening of one heaping teaspoon of flour and water to make a thin, smooth paste. Add to soup while stirring constantly. Add a lump of butter size of walnut. Remove from fire and salt and pepper to taste, but DO NOT ADD SALT until kettle has been removed from heat, or it may curdle. This very fine recipe furnished by Mrs. Spiro E. Milisich of Oakland.

THE PRESENT minus tides don't make for good fishing in the upper San Pablo where only late evening trolling is paying off, but should activate bass trolling, drift fishing or live bait angling in the entire S.F. and Lower Bay areas. As this is being written limit catches of sizable stripers are being landed in the above areas.

Mrs. Babson Wins Marin Golf Honor

Mrs. Aubrey Babson shot low gross of 86 and Mrs. A. E. Wilson won low net honors with a 96-27—69 yesterday during medal play at the Marin Golf Club.

Winners were:

Class A— Mrs. William Heyman, 91-18—73; Mrs. Roger Williams, 91-17—74; Mrs. Gene LaRose, 87-12—75.

Class B — Mrs. Gordon Wardlaw, 94-20—74; Mrs. Leon Balshone, 95-21—74; Mrs. William Sichel, 96-22—74.

Class C —Mrs. John Keddy, 94-23—71; Mrs. Jack Megarity, 97-25—72; Mrs. T. Marshall, 99-24—75.

Hole-in-one—Mrs. Norm Wilson, 5 inches.

Tam JV Cage Scores

Led by Bob Muth with 16 points, Terra Linda defeated Drake 48-40 Wednesday in the Tamalpais Junior Varsity Basketball League. Behind the 20 points of Roy Dolinsek, Novato defeated Marin Catholic 38-32. Redwood won over San Rafael by forfeit.

DEFENDS TITLE—Prudence Baxter (above) of Sausalito, 1963 points champion in Class H modified in her Lotus 11 will be up against this year's point leader, Chick Gast from Los Angeles this weekend when the two meet at Cotati Raceway.

Seven Marin Drivers Will Race At Cotati

Seven Marin drivers will be among the approximately 250 entries in the divisional championship sports car road races this weekend at Cotati Raceways.

It will be the first divisional event in 1964 for sports car road racing in northern California. The races, seven on Saturday and seven on Sunday, will be over a 2.4 mile course with 7 turns. The track is seven miles south of Santa Rosa.

George F. D. Pridmore of Tiburon will be driving a Formcar owned by John Gugel of San Rafael in a special Formula Vee race on both days.

Prudence Baxter of Sausalito will be driving her Lotus 11 in Class H modified; Walt Benson of Sausalito will be driving a Porsche in class E production; James J. Fitzgerald of Corte Madera will be driving a Morgan in Class G production.

Duane Rice of Novato will be driving a Fiat Abarth owned by Gordon Blumenfeld of San Rafael in Class H production; Nick Reynolds of Sausalito will be driving a Lotus 22 in Class 1 Formula Junior (Nade Bourgeault of Mill Valley is an alternate driver); and Bob O'Brien of Tiburon will be at the wheel of a Cooper in the Formula Libre class.

The races, being conducted by the San Francisco Region, Sports Car Club of America, is under the sanction of the SCCA. Admission for the show will be $2 for adults on Saturday and $3 on Sunday. Children under 16 will be admitted free on both days.

First race Saturday will start at 12:45 p.m., and the first event Sunday will start at 11:30 a.m. Radio Station KTIM will broadcast a portion of Sunday's action from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Jerry Smith will be at the mike.

Prudence Baxter, the Sausalito driver, is one of the few women sports car drivers around, and she's a good one, being 1963 points champ in her class. Another In the list of Marin Drivers, Nick Reynolds, is the same Reynolds of Kingston Trio fame. Not only a good singer, he's quite a driver.

MARIN ANGLERS HIT SALMON JACKPOT

Salmon fishing near the Farallon Islands paid off for four Marin County fishermen who won awards in the Schenley Sportsmen's Club program during the week ending last Sunday, it was announced today by Schenley officials.

One other Marin angler was included in the list of 30 winners, with his salmon being caught near the Lightship area.

Catching prize-winning salmon near the Farallones were Al Geraldi of 85 Spring Lane, Tiburon, a 45-pound, 12-ounce beauty on July 4; Warren A. Levan of 756 Del Grande Road, San Rafael, a 37-pounder also on the Fourth of July; Robert G. Kock of 373 Shoreline Highway, Mill Valley, 35 pounds, 4 ounces, on July 3, and Bill Lemons of 228 Union Street, San Rafael, 35-2, on July 3.

Catching his winner near the Lightship sector was Karl J. Reavell of 4 Holstein Road, San Anselmo, a 38-pounder on June 30.

Junior Golf Clinic Set At Peacock Gap

A junior golf clinic for members of Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club and residents of Peacock Gap in San Rafael will be held on three Tuesdays, July 14, 21 and 28, each day's clinic starting at 10 a.m.

The clinic will be open to boys and girls 18 and under.

Patterson, Folley May Fight In S.F.

Bennie Ford, San Francisco boxing matchmaker and a resident of Ross, yesterday said he has offered former world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson $50,000 or 40 per cent of the gate to box former high ranked contender Zora Folley at the San Francisco Cow Palace on Sept. 28.

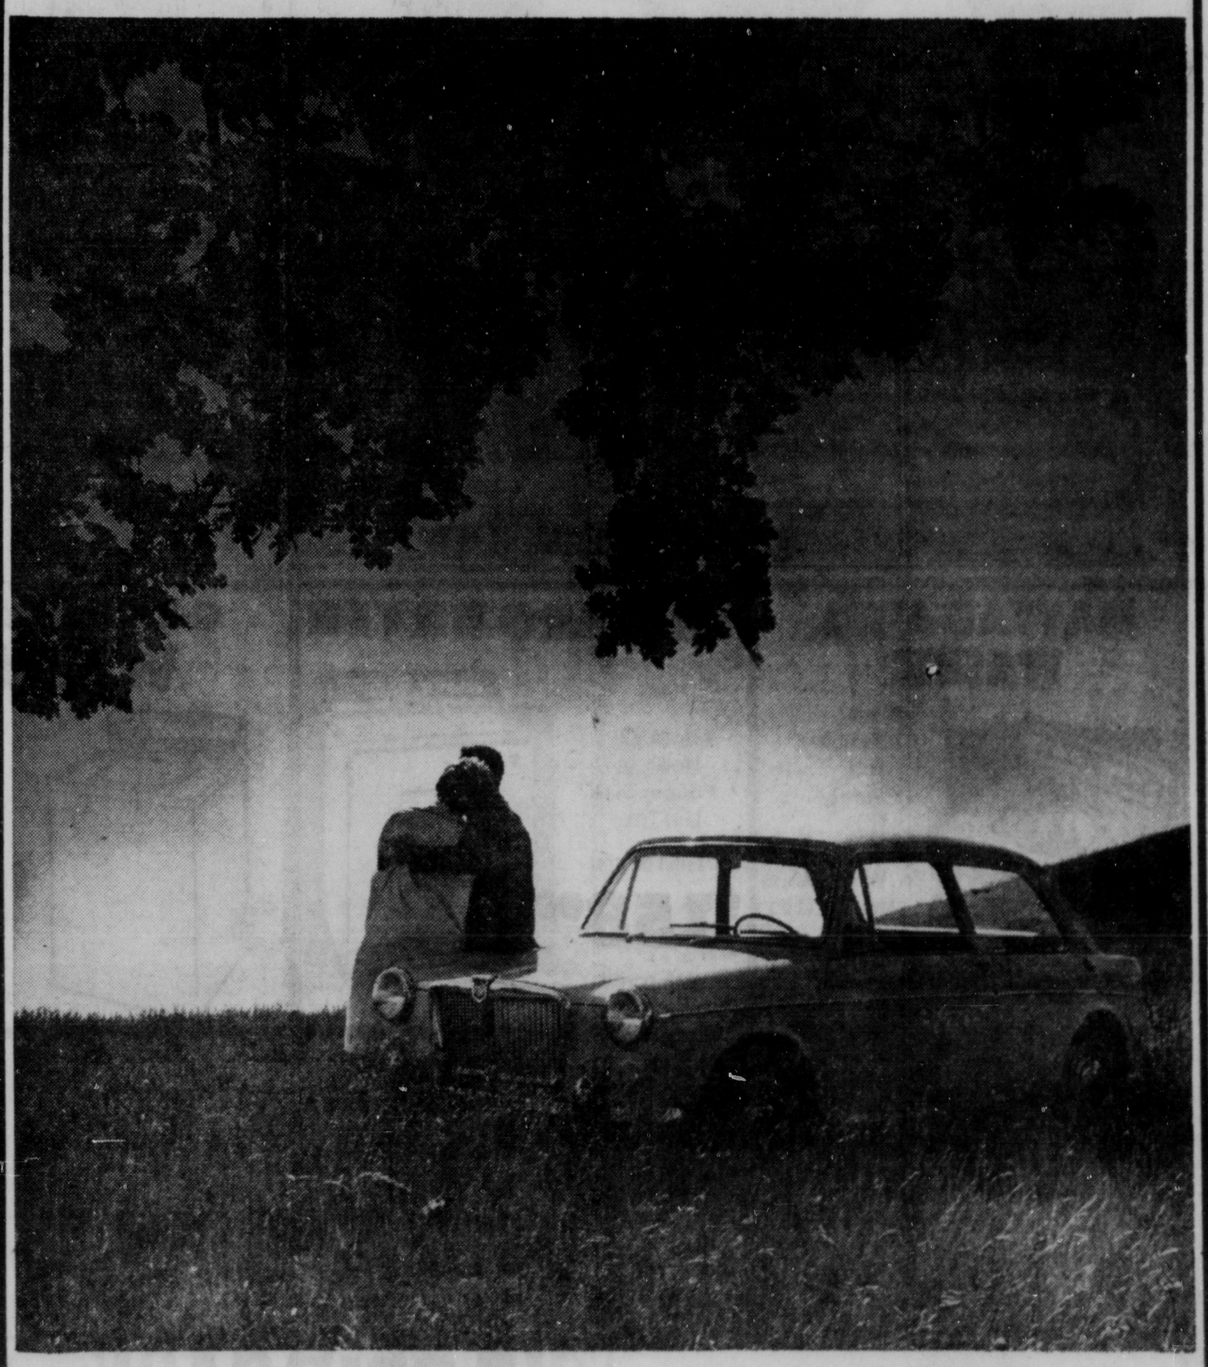
"Just Molly and Me And MG Makes Three!"



Part of that refrain sound familiar? We admit that it's a play on words, but it seems appropriate. The great MG Sports Sedan (2 or 4-door model) provides a smoother, more effortless ride than any other car sold anywhere. You ride on liquid permanently sealed in rubber springs. The result is exceptional smoothness, less tire wear, better handling and braking. MG has only four lubrication points . . . every 3,000 miles. Only one grade of motor oil is required for engine, transmission and final drive. $1898.00 P.O.E.

Tear Gas, Hoses Used On Whites

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police used tear gas and fire hoses last night to quell a disturbance in Tuscaloosa, Ala., when an angry crowd of white persons thought movie star Jack Palance was joining in an integration attempt.

Officers, who estimated the crowd at between 600 and 1,000, arrested one man as bricks and other missiles were thrown at a theater where Palance, his wife and four children had entered. The theater was integrated this past week for the first time in compliance with the new Civil Rights Act.

Richard E. Young, manager of the theater, said there were no Negroes present at the time. He also quoted Palance as saying he was there only to see the picture and not to take part in any civil rights movement.

Young said the theater's marquee, cashier's booth and other facilities were heavily damaged by the crowd before officers used tear gas and the fire hose to bring it under control.

It was reported in Washington that J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of investigation, is seriously considering a trip to Philadelphia, Miss., where FBI agents are taking part in the search for three missing civil rights workers.

Hoover has made no final decision on the trip, but has been keeping in close touch from Washington with the search for Andrew Goodman, 20; James Chaney, 21, and Michael Schwerner, 24.

Elsewhere, Negroes continued to assault segregation barriers under the new Civil Rights Act.

A restaurant owner at Princess Anne, Md., wielding a tack hammer, chased a Negro and a white newsman during an integration attempt. Three white men and three Negroes entered the restaurant owned by Herman Muir.

After Muir had chased the Negro and white newsman, his daughter ordered the others out of the restaurant.

In Atlanta, Ga., three Negroes went to court in the first suit to test compliance under the week-old rights law. Lester Maddox, who twice had turned Negroes away from his restaurant, was ordered to show cause at a July 17 hearing why an injunction against him should not be issued.

The suit was filed by the three Negroes chased from the restaurant last Friday by Maddox, waving a pistol, and a crowd of white persons brandishing ax handles.

North Coast Water Supply Called Safe

EUREKA (UPI) — State Director of Water Resources William E. Warne told residents of the north coast today they have enough water to supply themselves and the rest of the state for "the foreseeable future."

He said the north coast will "benefit" in many ways from proposed water developments in the area so extensive that they dwarf the state's present undertakings.

Warne and some of his top aides outlined state plans to tap the river-laced region in the future for 10-million acre-feet of water a year — two and one-half times the yield of the 175-billion-dollar state water project that is currently under construction.

Of the new water yield, Warne said two million acre-feet would meet the requirements of the north coastal area to the year 2020.

The remaining eight million acre-feet would be exported to other parts of the state.

Warne spoke at a statewide water conference sponsored jointly by the State Chamber of Commerce and the Eel River Assn. The meeting was called to discuss future water developments in the north coast area—the last region to which the state is turning in its quest for water.

Preliminary plans for a system of dams and reservoirs to conserve north coast water now spilling to the sea were released recently after a seven-year study.

Residents of the region — extending from the Oregon border to the Russian River basin and from the coastal mountain ranges to the Pacific Ocean — have expressed concern that export of their presently "surplus" water will leave their growing region with future shortages.

Warne said the 10-million acre-feet that can be conserved is "enough fully to satisfy the needs of this region."

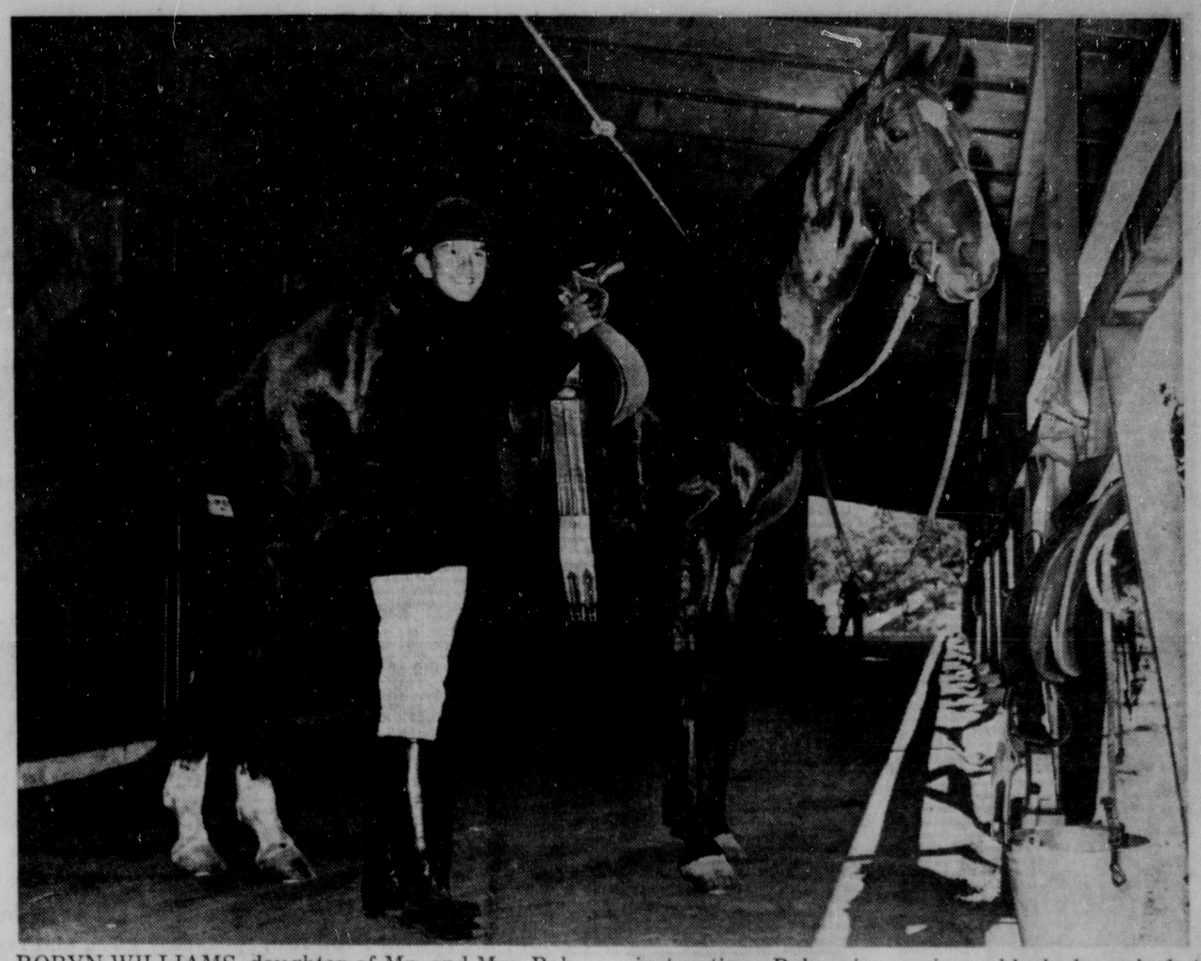
MRS. E. J. DOHERTY of San Rafael, social chairman in charge of the hunt club show Sunday featuring both English and Western riders, checks over the registration of Robyn Williams on Susie, Suzy Boyd on Roayalad, Alba Doherty on Johnny-Be-Good and Melissa Crowell, young members entering the show Sunday. More than 50 entries have been made by Marin youngsters for the show.

EQUESTRIAN instructor, Douglas Robb, manager-trainer at the Meadow Brook Hunt Club teaches Robyn Williams and Melissa Crowell in regulating the timing of their mounts. Robyn and Melissa are both riding English style. Robb, born in Dundee, Scotland has been a trainer instructor most of his life, "And wouldn't know anything else."



ROBYN WILLIAMS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williams of Novato, removes the hunt seat from her horse, Susie, following a day of riding and instruction. Robyn is wearing a black dress jacket and hunt helmet, that all youngsters under 18 years of age must wear.

Girls Just Wild Over —Horses

By DOROTHY NEWELL

Horses, horses, horses, crazy over horses—

Horses seem to be foremost in the minds of four young girls, who rush through their work at home so they can spend time at their favorite sport—riding.

The girls, Suzy Boyd, Melissa Crowell, Alba Doherty and Robyn Williams, are among the many youngsters in Marin who own their own mounts or rent them from stables, and will appear at the Meadow Brook Hunt Club Junior Horse Show in Novato beginning at 9 a.m. Sunday.

ROBYN, age 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williams of Marin Country Club Estates, rides her horse, Susie, every day. The horse, a registered quarter-horse, is boarded at Franklyn Stables on Indian Valley Road and for her riding instructions at Meadow Brook she rides across country and a short distance down the center of Highway 101 to reach the club. Robyn also has a thoroughbred mare that just had a filly this past week. She has been riding since she was seven years old. Her mother was social chairman of the club last year.

ALBA, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Doherty of San Rafael, has won five trophies in horse shows during her two years in the riding club. This 14-year-old owns Johnny-Be-Good, a thoroughbred. There is much competition among the Doherty children as Alba's brothers and sisters, Eddie, Katy and Timothy, also have their own mounts. Only her brother, Pat, is disinterested in horses. She also has a special interest in the hunt club, as her mother is social chairman for the club and her father is president of the hunt club corporation.

Among the special social programs this year is the Junior Horse Show and a trip to the Junior Grand National in San Francisco under the chairmanship of Mrs. Doherty. Alba helps around the home and in lieu of an allowance receives her entry fees for horse shows which she attends every weekend.

SUZY, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyd of Kentfield, enjoys riding her mount, an Arabian horse, Ibn Sabihs, almost every day. She also has projects she must do at home before going to the hunt club, she said. Her brother, Bobbie, has an Arabian horse, Roayalad, which Suzy was riding on Wednesday. She was dressed in a saddle seat suit and wore a derby.

Clothes also play an important part in the various styles of riding.

MELISSA, nine years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel

SUIT-ABLE FOR THEATER — This brown and white flecked wool sheath has plunging neckline and white silk brocade lapels on accompanying cutaway jacket for eye appeal. EAR FLAPS

Headgear To Tie At The Neck

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Chin straps have gone glamorous. Now they hold hats on instead of sagging faces up.

Previews of fall and winter millinery produced a quantity of wrapup headgear to tie at the neck as you will. Emme, one pace-setting New York designer, attached both ear flaps and chin tie to one of her roller brimmed chapeaux in deep red velour. John Frederics made head-hugging helmets with chin ties. Another designer, Adolfo, copied the wide stiff brim of the Boy Scout hat with narrow chin strap tie.

THIS WAS ONE of the trends at the top which the Millinery Institute of America included in its semi-annual fashion show for visiting reporters here for a detailed look at the new ready-to-wear. Shows are sponsored by the New York Couture Group of designers and manufacturers and the group's auxiliaries, such as the institute.

Many of the new hats envelop the hair completely. Adolfo's snood hats, for instance. These came in a combination of felts paired with satins.

The hat had rounded, uncrushed crowns and straight brims much like a man's derby. Worn tilted forward on the brow, they were finished at the back with gathered satin snoods.

SALLY VICTOR DID some of the snoods too, with wide, rolled brim velours. Bands and the head-hugging backs were in tricolor knits.

Any number of the new hats pitch to the front of the brow, some so low the eyes are just barely visible. Some tilt to the side, but the tilt to the back of the head, barring the entire forehead, also proved popular.

The classic beret returned for fall but what a difference from berets of the past. Some covered the hair completely, others were worn at the back of the head, pillbox fashion, or perched to the side for a profile effect. Many were big, crushable numbers — of black satin with jet beading or of white mink for dressy occasions, and simulated alligator for suits or to go with matching rainwear.

WATCH FOR head-hugging caps come fall. These are sleek and curved to the contour of the head with the sides usually narrowed down in semi-circle fashion over the ears. Designers used suede, mohair, velour, satin and fur for these.

Turbans go on from season to season, this year with large bows, jeweled or feathered pom poms dangling from many crowns. Brimmed hats ranged from the small, tailored fedoras to oversize bretons and rollers.

A lot of fuss about feathers: ostrich especially. A black velvet pillbox came with a head-tall plume of white ostrich attached to its right profile. Newest feather comes from the vulture, showing as the white border on a wide-brimmed black velvet.

Three ready-to-wear clothing manufacturers showed their collections yesterday. Some highlights:

—LARRY ALDRICH. The president of the Couture Group, named three silhouettes ahead. One is shaped and lean with a well-fitted bodice, concave front and the look of a slightly fitted shift. One is shaped and flared with a swing skirt. And the third has skirt fullness via accordion pleats, folds or panels. Aldrich showed a lot of side fastenings on coats and suit jackets. He advocated white for day or evening and said that the "revealing neckline and flounce hem are the fall look for late day. Black velvet is in."

—MAURICE RENTNER. Designer Bill Blass at this firm showed tailored slacks sleek as trousers men wear. Some were topped with fur jackets — for instance, a leopard jacket over camel's hair pants. Formal pants showed too, done in some instances in white satin worn with a white mink jacket. For late day and evening, Blass showed a lot of black in sleeveless sheer wools with turtleneck collars. He took the turtleneck into formal evenings with floor length sleeveless black satins.

—SAMUEL WINSTON. Designer Roxane liked the look of paisleys in muted shades for daytime wools. Skirts swirled from pleats or flared cuts. Pussycat bows decorated fronts of both daytime and cocktail dresses. Three quarter length coats, with doublebreasted closings, topped long evening formals.

Vestiges Of Harlow

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Vestiges of Jimmy Walker, Jean Harlow, the Lemon Drop Kid, speakeasy girls, and racetrack touts during the late '20s and early '30s will be worn by American women next season.

One by one, reminders of that era appeared on the runway as Teal Traina previewed his collection.

Elliot Ness' trench coat was there in gleaming white silk twill with white exaggerated lapels and with a fur lining.

Those gamey, long-gammed speakeasy girls, puffing on long cigarette holders, flounced onto the scene in tiers of black net with cock feather borders, or audaciously short black French lace tunics.

Some were hip swivelers in long torsoed, bias-cut costumes with a bias-cut tunic skirt fluttering over a straight short one. The swiveler, as Traina has named this swinging silhouette, showed up regularly, sometimes with the bodice cut to the wishbone, again covered to the wrist and chin.

Flat-chested brunettes, not at all Harlow or Carole Lombard types, nevertheless undulated in the kind of black bias gowns in which these celluloid queens did as well, with decolletage as low in front as in back.

One managed to keep warm Jimmy Walker's cutaway jacket with racy high peaked lapels, much more elegant in shimmering silk gabardine and sparkling diamond buttons than anything the New York mayor's tailor ever made.

Charceline Sheets To Wed In August

CHARCELINE SHEETS

The Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Sheets, pastors of the San Rafael Assembly of God Church, announce the engagement of their daughter, Charceline LaRae, to the Rev. Randall Lee Wood, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Wood, pastors of the San Andreas Assembly of God Church.

For the past year, Charceline has been employed as a teacher at the Westminster Christian School in Westminster. Formerly, she traveled widely in the states assisting her parents with the musical aspects of their evangelistic tours. Both Charceline and Randall have been students at Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz.

The Rev. Randall Wood has ministered as an evangelist and youth speaker throughout Western Canada, and is currently pastor of the Assembly of God Church in Dawson City, Yukon Territory.

The wedding has been set for late August.

Marin Women

Rotate Curtains And Draperies

To prolong the life of curtains and draperies, here are a few tips from the American Institute of Laundering.

If practical, rotate the curtains and draperies occasionally from sunny windows to unexposed windows to equalize the effects of the sun on the fabric. Constant exposure to direct sunlight weakens most fibers.

Frequently cleaned draperies and curtains will wear longer and look better because soil that can cause permanent discoloration does not become imbedded in the fabric. When having your curtains and draperies cleaned professionally, tell the cleaner if they contain glass yarns or synthetic fibers requiring special care.

(UPI)

Sponge Grass Stains

Grass stains, the gardener's bane, should be treated by rubbing detergent into the stain and laundering with a bleach that is safe for the fabric. On wool, sponge the stain with rubbing alcohol.

Third Garden Workshop Set

"Soil Conditioning," the key secret to successful gardening, will be explained Wednesday at 10 a.m. when Gordon Baker Lloyd of Studio House in Sierra Madre, gives his third garden workshop at the San Rafael Improvement Club.

Widely known through Northern California as well (through his KCBS Sunday programs, his columns in Flower and Garden Magazine, classes at Leisure Town and various nurseries) Lloyd also offers workshop notesheets for use in classes.

Mrs. C. J. Fitzharris, chairman of the garden section of the Improvement Club, invites all members to bring their friends to this gardening series.

On the same evening at 8 o'clock at the West End Nursery, he will discuss "summer care of lawns," with emphasis on watering, mulching, weed control, pest control and feeding.

For both programs, he invites members and guests to bring actual samples of soil, weeds or lawn problems, and other garden puzzlers.

On Sunday, he is sponsoring a special tour of Napa Valley, with a one-day tour of Muir Woods scheduled for July 19.

Simonetti-Massie Wedding Date Set

The engagement of Marylyn Ann Massie to Giam Paolo Simonetti of San Francisco is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Massie of San Rafael.

An Aug. 16 wedding at the First Baptist Church in San Anselmo with a reception to follow at Peacock Gap Country Club has been planned.

The bride-elect is the sister of Pamela Gail, Limda Louise and Stanley Allen Massie Jr., all of San Rafael. She attended Encina High School in Sacramento and the College of Marin and is employed with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pellegrino Simonetti of San Francisco. He is the brother of Carlo Simonetti of Burlingame, Livio and Oriano Simonetti of San Francisco and sisters and brothers in Italy, where he attended schools. He is employed with Royal Bakery.

After the wedding the couple plans to live in San Rafael.

Romaine Mountbatten Bride Of St. Louis Brewing Heir

NEW YORK (UPI) — Romaine Pierce Mountbatten, the second American woman to marry into the British royal family, was married for a third time today to St. Louis brewing heir James Busch Orthwein.

Mrs. Orthwein was the bride of the year in 1950 when she married the Marquess of Milford Haven, cousin of both Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip and best man at their wedding, at the National Presbyterian Church in Washington.

SHE TERMINATED the marriage by divorce in Mexico in 1954 and British courts granted the Marquess a divorce in 1960. He since has married Janet Bryce, daughter of a Bermuda shopkeeper.

Today's ceremony was a quiet one at the bride's Park Avenue apartment attended by only a few relatives and friends. State Supreme Court Justice Irving Saypol performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception.

THE BRIDE, 40, a fashion model wore an off-white street length lace gown and a matching picture hat. She was given away by her cousin, K. LeMoyne Billings and attended by Mrs. Joseph Moran. The bridegroom had Andrew Shinkle of St. Louis as his best man.

Mrs. Orthwein is the daughter of Mrs. Clark McIlwaine of Washington and the late Vinton Dahlgren Pierce. She has been married three times. Her first marriage to William Simpson, son of the head of Marshall Field's store in Chicago, ended in divorce in 1948 after two years.

THE BRIDEGROOM, 40, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Percy James Orthwein of St. Louis. His mother was the former Clara Busch, daughter of brewing magnate August A. Busch Sr. He is a vice president of D'Arcy Advertising in St. Louis and a director of the Anheuser-Busch Co. Orthwein was married previously to Katherine Gatch. They were divorced last May.

IN SANTA VENETIA

Janet Carol Poppin A Bride

Blessed Sacrament Church in Santa Venetia was the setting on June 27 for the wedding of Janet Carol Poppin of Corte Madera and Russell Arthur Kern Jr. of San Rafael.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Poppin of Corte Madera.

Officiating for the 11:30 a.m. ceremony was the Rev. Charles Simpson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie appliqued with lace.

Preceding the bride to the altar in gowns of ice blue organza over blue taffeta were the bridegroom's sister, Sue Kern as maid of honor, and bridesmaids, Carla Jo Zazzetti of Sacramento and Lynda Joy Crespi of San Francisco.

Kimberly Poppin of Millbrae was flower girl and serving as ringbearer was Peter Kern of Pacifica.

Michael R. Kern of San Rafael was best man for his brother and ushers were Richard Kern, the bridegroom's brother and Thomas J. Poppin, the bride's brother.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

The bride was graduated from Redwood High School and is employed with the Cal-Marin Title Co. in San Rafael. Mrs. Rose Shapiro of San Rafael and Mrs. Hazel Poppin of San Francisco are her grandmothers.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Arthur Kern of San Rafael, was graduated from Redwood High School and is employed with the William H. McDevitt Co.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple will reside in San Rafael.

ONE WAY OF USING HEAD

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y. (AP)—Pianist Van Cliburn is thankful that women are never without hairbows these days. The fad helped him out of an embarrassing situation.

Shortly before he was to perform here, Cliburn discovered he had lost his white tie, a necessary formal accoutrement for a concert appearance.

But in the audience was Miss Diane DeSousa with a white bow in her hair. She gave it up willingly, and with two safety pins from an anonymous donor, Cliburn was able to anchor it firmly at his collar. And the show went on.

Stretch Fabrics Can Be Revived

There's a trick to caring for popular stretch fabrics. Although the new easy-care stretch fashions can now be machine washed and dried, they often look limp and lifeless after several washings. The secret to keeping them new-looking is a whisk of spray-on starch and a touch of the iron. Just spray the dry, freshly-washed garment as you iron. Dark colors and hard-to-finish weaves such as gabardine stretch fabrics should be sprayed-on starched and ironed on the wrong side to avoid iron shine. Spray-on starch replaces the "body" that makes stretch fabrics look new, without affecting the pliable texture.

Carole Bennett To Be Bride In September

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everill Bennett of Mill Valley announce the engagement of their daughter, Carole Ann Bennett, to Gary Billinghurst of San Francisco.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor B. Billinghurst of San Rafael.

Both of the young people are graduates of Tamalpais High School. Carole attended San Francisco State College for one year. She is the sister of Mrs. Ralph Brabo of Mill Valley and Richard Bennett of Mill Valley and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett of San Anselmo.

Gary is the manager of the U.S. Garage in San Francisco. He is the brother of Donna Billinghurst of San Rafael.

A wedding is planned in September.

Australia Bound On Mariposa

SAILING SUNDAY aboard the Mariposa for Australia will be Richard Iribarne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Iribarne of San Rafael, who will meet his grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Burrell, in Sydney. Mrs. Iribarne, who lives in Australia, is now in San Rafael on her first visit to attend her granddaughter's recent wedding and see another grandson off to Poland, where he will be an exchange student. She will fly to Sydney in time to meet the Mariposa and Richard will visit with relatives in Australia until he returns to enter San Francisco City College in September.

THE ELMER WEDENS of Fairfax have returned home following a month vacation to the East Coast where they previously lived. Mr. Weden attended a conference at the Manchester Memorial Hospital in Manchester, Conn. He was formerly president of the hospital and is now an honorary trustee. The Wedens visited friends and relatives in Massachussetts, Connecticut, Maine and Vermont during their travels.

SIBYL ANN WIPER, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Wiper of Sausalito, and her fiance, Richard Ott will be honored at a cocktail gathering by Louis Hermes in San Francisco on Aug. 15. The couple, whose engagement was announced last week, plans to wed Sept. 26 at Christ Church in Sausalito.

THE SEADRIFT colony at Stinson Beach will be the scene of summer party activity—tomorrow the newlywed Larry Dunhams will be feted by James Follis, Gordon Johnson Jr. and Mrs. Ann Hart. The new Mrs. Dunham is the former Millicent Maas Woodson . . . and on July 26 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bullock will be hosts at a luncheon.

Crowell of Loch Lomond, has been riding for one year, and on Wednesday was at the Hunt Club dressed in an informal hacking jacket of tweed, used only for jumping, not for show. Her outfit also included a hunt helmet, the colors of the stable, which was a green scarf worn around the throat, a rat-catcher shirt, canary yellow jodhpurs and short boots. Melissa's brother and sister, Sam, 15, and Debra, 13, are not interested in riding, but Melissa, who does not have her own mount, hopes to have one some day.

Today is Friday, July 10, the 192nd day of 1964 with 174 to follok.

The moon is approaching its first quarter; the morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn, Venus and Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1890, Wyoming was admitted to the Union as the 44th state.

In 1908, William Jennings Bryan was nominated by the Democrats as their presidential candidate, for the third time.

In 1960, Russia shot down a U.S. plane in the Soviet Arctic.

In 1962, the Telstar satellite relayed television pictures from the U.S. to Europe, and America received clear pictures back from Britain and France.

A thought for the day: President Apraham Lincoln said: "Towering genius disdains a beaten path. It seeks regions hitherto unexplored."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Question Of Bridge Etiquette Stumps Player Without Weakness

"Forgive me for asking about so fine a point," asks a reader, "but it is the only weakness in my bridge game. It's a question of etiquette or rhetoric, I'm not sure which.

"What should you say when an opponent makes a horrible mistake that gives you an undeserved contract?"

Opening lead — ♠ 5

"The opening lead was the five of spades," my correspondent continues, "and I carefully played the eight from dummy. East agonized over his play, and I gave him my best bored look.

10 OF SPADES

"Finally East played the 10 of spades. All I said was: 'What took you so long?' And I showed my hand and claimed the first 10 tricks.

"My opponents had a brief squabble over losing the five spade tricks they could have taken, but then they both turned on me. I didn't have to be so sarcastic, they said.

"Naturally, I offered them my own handkerchief to dry their tears. You have no idea what a kind soul I am. But they said they had a headache and went home. And then my wife gave me a lecture on politeness.

DOING FINE

"So tell me, Professor, what is the right thing to say?"

Don't ask me what to say; you're doing fine. When you run out of friends, you can always move to another city and start on a fresh batch.

Incidentally, East's problem looks more difficult than it really is. It's true that the ten of spades would be the correct play if South had the ace of spades instead of the jack, but East should know that South does not hold the ace.

It's easy if you put yourself in South's place with A-x or A-x-x of spades and Q-x in dummy. You'd play dummy's queen, of course. If you don't play dummy's queen, you cannot have the ace.

SAY NOTHING

If you're wondering what to say in such situations, it's always safe to say nothing at all.

It's not your problem; let the opponents solve it by themselves.

But if you'd like to smooth things over, remark casually

"The last time I made that mistake my partner was a perfect gentleman and never said a word."

QUESTION

Partner opens with one spade, and the next player passes.

♦ 10 2
♣ 7 5

What do you bid?

Answer: Bid two spades.

Despite the magnificent trump support, your hand is woefully weak. You cannot afford a jump to four spades.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

With Changing World Comes Need To Learn Lesson Of Leisure Time

VAN DELLEN

Our world is accelerating so rapidly, it seems to have no place for the subject of leisure. But we might as well face the fact that the work day is shrinking, and more older people are maintaining their creative ability because of better health. What will they do when their productive days are over?

DR. ALEXANDER REID Martin believes we should concentrate less on the underprivileged, exploited, overworked, and the poverty stricken and turn our attention to the leisure stricken. This means preparation for leisure. He subscribes to the philosophy that "only those fit for work and leisure survive as creative individuals. The others will exist as sterile robots, alienated from life and from themselves, living vicariously, and so deadened that they compulsively seek overstimulation from the extreme, the lurid, the bizarre, and the macabre."

The man of the future may be forced to put his capacity for leisure on the same level as his capacity for work. This is difficult to accept because most of us have grown up with the concept that leisure is earned through hard work—a reward for a job well done.

IN ADDITION we consider time for leisure and leisure as the same thing. They are as different as merely existing and really living. On the other hand, work should complement leisure and those who have the capacity for both are fortunate.

A hobby should not be a substitute for work; it keeps the individual and his mind busy because he cannot stand to be alone or does not know how to enjoy his free time.

THE PERSON WHO retains his capacity for leisure usually possesses excellent emotional traits acquired through good mental health. It is difficult to enjoy leisure when plagued with compulsions that have a must or an imperative quality. "I must work" or "I must get ready for tomorrow's task" only serves to interfere with relaxation, reflection, marveling, and the other expressions of leisure necessary for creative growth.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if a stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CHRONIC HEPATITIS

L. G. S. writes: Why do some cases of hepatitis become chronic?

REPLY

This is the nature of the disease. We can assume some people have less resistance to the causative virus or that the liver is not healthy when the disease is acquired. Lack of treatment or disregard for the symptoms may play a role.

ULCERATIVE COLITIS

W. E. writes: Is ulcerative colitis caused by infection?

REPLY

The cause of the disease is unknown. It has all the earmarks of a severe bacterial infection of the bowel, but no causative microorganisms have been found. Hypersensitivity, emotional factors, and nutritional inadequacies are possible causes.

FLUIDS AND PILLS

Mrs. A. M. writes: Would it be advisable to take diuretic pills to get rid of the water accumulated by the use of contraceptive pills?

REPLY

This can be done but seldom is necessary unless large amounts of fluid accumulate.

SULFUR DIOXIDE

C. H. writes: I like stewed dried apricots but the label says "prepared with sulfur dioxide." Is it safe to eat these products?

REPLY

Yes. This substance is added for its bleaching and preservative qualities.

Today's Health Hint—Trampolines can cause serious injuries.

Fuel Cells Gradually Finding Applications

By GENE BYLINSKY
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Fuel cells, which convert chemical energy directly into electricity, a few years ago were hailed as a promising means of powering automobiles, tractors, and even supplying the energy needs of homes.

As with many other gadgets, however, press agentry far outdistanced reality. One company went so far as to equip a tractor, a golf cart and two fork lift trucks with fuel cells. But it stopped there.

Technical problems and the high cost of manufacture made such commercial applications impractical it is now obvious that it will take years to make them competitive with gasoline power plants.

But fuel cells nevertheless are gradually finding applications in specialized vehicles. Outer space and the ocean in particular seem to be promising areas.

A few days ago, a fuel cell powered the experimental dive of a small one-man submarine off Groton, Conn. The research sub Star I belongs to General Dynamics Electric Boat Division. It's shaped like a teardrop, is nine feet long and weighs about 2,500 pounds.

The sub is the first in a series of small submersibles which will be used to evaluate components and systems needed in all future underwater vehicles. It can dive to 200 feet.

The compact fuel cell system including fuel tank is only 22 inches long, 22 inches high and 13 inches wide. It delivers enough power to propel the submarine's two electric drive motors and to operate its communications, navigation, life support and lighting equipment.

The fuel cell offers obvious advantages to the submarine. It more than doubles, to 12 hours, the endurance time. Fuel cells, unlike batteries, require no recharging, which in the case of Star I would have taken about eight hours. A fresh supply of hydrazine and oxygen, on which the sub's fuel cell runs, can be pumped into the fuel tank in five minutes.

The submarine's fuel cell was manufactured by Allis-Chalmers Co. of Milwaukee, Wis.

The theory of the fuel cell has been known for at least 150 years but research on a large scale didn't start until the 1950s. A fuel cell is simple in construction and is far more efficient than a battery. It usually contains two electrodes and an electrolyte solution. Fuel is fed to the electrodes and the electrolyte solution acts as a vehicle through which the current carrying electrons moves freely to and from the electrodes.

The electrochemical reaction that takes place at the electrodes produces electrical energy.

One of the obstacles to fuel cells' wider use has been the high cost of fuels to power the cells.

This isn't too large obstacle for space applications, however, where it still costs about $5,000 to place one pound in orbit.

For this, and other reasons, the two-man Gemini spacecraft will be eventually equipped with fuel cells instead of batteries. The first flyable fuel cell system for the Gemini spacecraft has been delivered by General Electric Co., to McDonnell Aircraft Corp., Gemini prime contractor.

The Gemini cell employs liquid oxygen and liquid hydrogen fuel. It will produce about two kilowatts of electricity and also provide potable water for astronauts. The fuel cell unit is scheduled to fly aboard the next Gemini test flight in September. The three-man Apollo lunar spacecraft also will employ fuel cells.

A smaller fuel cell, one producing 45 watts of power, will be tested for 100 hours under zero gravity conditions aboard an Air Force satellite this summer.

Student Leaders Busy Attending Conferences

Terra Linda High School student body president Bonnie Brown and secretary Barbara Parcher left today for a three-day conference of the California Assn. of Student Councils at Asilomar.

The school's nine yell leaders and song leaders attended a yell and pompom summer camp at Olympic Village in Squaw Valley.

First Novato Employee Is Retiring

Fred Westfall, the first employee of the City of Novato, was honored at a retirement dinner at Nero's Restaurant last night by the city employees.

Westfall, head of the building inspection department, went to work as the city's first building inspector on May 23, 1960. He had served on the Novato Planning Commission when it was organized immediately after incorporation in January, 1960.

His resignation was effective today, but he was asked by the city council to continue on a part-time basis until a replacement is hired.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget, representing the city council, presented Westfall with a plaque with his key to the city hall on it.

Merl D. Mauroni, inspector, gave him a transistor radio from the employees. There were 35 employees and guests present.

Junior College Trustee Ired By Grad Absentees

Absenteeism of College of Marin graduates at commencement exercises was brought to the attention of the college board last night by Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy, who doesn't like it.

"Even some of the students who were to have received special awards at last month's exercises were not present," she said.

She asked the administration to look into the possibility of making attendance at graduation compulsory.

Trustee Joseph D. Garguilo, former College of Marin student, agreed with Mrs. Deedy, saying graduation from junior college was a high point in his life and he felt the same feeling should be shared by other graduates.

The rough, pointed tips of bamboo shoots are powerful enough to force their way through a paved road.

Gallinas District Increases Budget But Cuts Taxes

Directors of the Gallinas Village Community Services District last night approved a preliminary budget with increased funds for recreation but with a tax cut of 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation. Last year's tax rate for the district was $1.

The board agreed to ask the county board of supervisors to find funds for a walkway for children from the entrance of the Gallinas Village subdivision to Meadow Drive, because children use the route along North San Pedro Road to go to school.

The total budget approved was $68,010. Sewer charges will yield $12,410 and $36,700 is being carried foreward from the last fiscal year. Some $6,000 for recreation facilities unspent last year will be combined with $10,000 in new money to start some park development.

The board agreed to contract with a nursery for increased landscape services, especially near the tract entrance.

Teen-Agers Win Convention Duty

All nine members of the newly organized Novato Teen-age Republicans will be working at the Republican National Convention in San Francisco, their adviser reported today.

Mrs. Kent R. Bulfinch of 3 Carmel Drive said the youngsters, aged 14 to 18, will serve as tour guides and messengers. Her son, Scott Bulfinch, 15, was installed as president of the group Wednesday night at an installation meeting at the Bulfinch home.

Other new officers are James Gribbin, vice president; Myra Scott, secretary, and Pat Collins, treasurer. Committee chairmen include Bill Convis, transportation; Dennis Gribbin, membership, and Miss Scott, publicity.

AUDITED PAID CIRCULATION ABC

One in a series of messages to advertisers

What is an ABC figure?

Chatting with a merchant the other day, we mentioned our "ABC figure."

"What," he asked, "is an ABC figure?"

Perhaps what we told him will also interest you.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, an independent, nonprofit association of well over 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies, and publishers. Its purpose is to provide accurate and factual reports on the circulation of member publishers. In the advertising and publishing industry, the ABC insigne is often referred to as the "hallmark of circulation values."

At regular intervals, an ABC traveling auditor visits our office to check our records. The findings of this physical audit are embodied in an Audit Report, published by ABC—the report literally tells us what our circulation figure is.

Virtually everything an advertiser should know about our circulation is found in this report, facts and figures without opinion.

Few retailers bother to ask to see a copy of our report, yet we want you to know one is available anytime you are interested in checking the quality and quantity of our circulation audience—the audience for your advertising messages.

What is an ABC figure?

It is our way of making sure that you get full measure for your advertising in this newspaper.

Marin Demos Slate Kentfield Potluck

Marin Democrats will hold a potluck supper at 5:30 p.m. Sunday at the Roger Kent estate, 200 Woodland Road, Kentfield.

Ruth Lederman of Kentfield and Sue Bradley of Ross, co-chairmen for the event, said it is the first major get-together for Democrats after the June primaries.

Alcohol License Denied For Tiburon Night Spot

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state department of alcoholic beverage control has denied an application from Robert G. Clayton for an on-sale beer and wine license for Piper's Cave, 1704 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon.

The department said the premises were not equipped to operate as a bona fide public eating place and the applicants did not intend to so equip it.

Sanitary District Votes Tax Slash

The board of the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District last night approved a preliminary budget which calls for wiping out completely any property tax support for district operation.

The effect will be to lower the tax rate in the area from 25 cents to 15 cents wer $100 assessed valuation. All the tax money will be used to pay off bonds.

Operations budget was set at $85,800 with $38,200 of that going for salaries. Some $14,309 was carried forward from the last fiscal year, and this money, plus the amount to be collected in sewer fees, will cover operation costs.

Last year, 13 cents of the tax rate went for bonds and 12 cents for operations.

Agency Appoints New Caseworker

Karl H. Livengood of 714 Cabin Drive, Mill Valley, has been appointed to the staff of the Catholic Social Service Agency of Marin.

The former assistant director of the Mission Community Center in San Francisco, he holds a master's degree from Western Reserve University in community organization and group work.

Livengood's appointment increased the number of the agency's caseworkers to five. Working with Rev. John J. O'Connor, executive director, and Margaret Frings, casework director, are Livengood, Mrs. Raymond J. Hebel and Sister Marcia Godar of San Rafael.

Actors Guild Reaches Truce With Producers

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Directors of the Screen Actors Guild voted unanimously yesterday to ratify a new three-year contract with the Assn. of Motion Picture and Television Producers covering filmed television shows.

The agreement, hammered out in 10 and one-half hour negotiating sessions Tuesday and Wednesday nights, could be extended for a fourth year by mutual agreement. Ratification by Guild members still was necessary, but little opposition was expected.

Bias Suit Against Fair Exhibitor Thrown Out

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two law suits which sought to close the Jordan Pavilion at the New York World's Fair because of an allegedly anti-Jewish mural were thrown out yesterday by a State Supreme Court Justice.

Justice George Postel said he was "sympathetic" to the suits brought by the B'nai B'rith's Anti-Defamation League and insurance man Robert D. Blaikie but was powerless to act.

Violinist Will Be Next Music Chest Performer

Jacob Krachmalnick of Kentfield, renowned violinist who has been appointed concertmaster of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, will give a recital at Forest Meadows, San Rafael, at 3 p.m. Sunday under auspices of the Marin Music Chest.

Krachmalnick has been concertmaster with the Cleveland Orchestra, the Concertgebouw of Amsterdam, the Philadelphia Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. He will play pieces by Vivaldi, Grieg, Smetana, Prokofiev and Wieniawski.

Joan Crawford Mends

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Joan Crawford, 56, continued to show improvement today in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, where she has been confined with a recurring respiratory virus infection. A spokesman for Miss Crawford said she was "doing fine."

Comedy Likely One Of Year's Best

By LES DARD

Marin movie theaters offer a particularly interesting variety of film fare these days. Let's have a look at what is current and what is coming:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

What a movie is "What a Way to Go," which opens next Wednesday. It is the wackiest, and loaded with some of Hollywood's top names: Shirley MacLaine, Paul Newman, Robert Mitchum, Dean Martin, Gene Kelly, Robert Cummings, Dick Van Dyke.

Shirley MacLaine is center of attention who has a Midas touch and a kiss of death. Every man she takes up with is rewarded with fabulous wealth—then drops dead before he can fully enjoy it—or Shirley.

Hence the title.

And with each of four passing mates, Shirley becomes richer.

The story is told in flashbacks, with Shirley trying to give away $200 million because she feels guilty. When the government refuses her money, she goes to a psychiatrist to rid herself of anxieties about herself and her fatalism and her fortune.

At the end, Shirley is reunited with the one man she said she would never marry, Dean Martin.

This lavish comedy is sure to be one of the year's big hits.

LARK THEATER

Also due Wednesday is "My Life to Live," the arresting, almost documentary look at the decline and fall of a beautiful girl.

It is a curious, offbeat French film in which its director, Jean Luc Godard, experiments with numerous cinematic devices. Not all of them work, but the result is interesting.

Godard's pretty, Danish-born wife, Anna Karina, plays Nana, who begins the film as an unsatisfied housewife who seeks expression of her individuality.

Nana's tragedy is told in 12 episodes, each preceded by a brief chapter heading and each intended to demonstrate certain points in the woman's search for identity and final destruction.

Godard does not paint a pretty picture. Instead he portrays a life of sordid desperation and terrible aloneness. Adults only.

RAFAEL THEATER

Walt Disney's new "The Moon-Spinners" also arrives Wednesday, a mystery suspense story with an exotic background and young romance woven in.

Its star is Hayley Mills, as bumptious as ever. There is added attraction in the appearance of one-time film great Pola Negri, her first in more than 20 years.

The picture was filmed largely in Crete.

Hayley plays the niece of Joan Greenwood, a collector of folk songs. They come to one of the Crete islands to record songs, including one about the moon-spinners.

The title name refers to three legendary ladies of the skies who, according to ancient fable, spin the full moon.

Hayley and company are plunged into the intrigue of an international jewel theft when she becomes friendly with young Peter McEnery, a London bank clerk falsely accused of complicity in the theft of fabulous emeralds in his care.

Eli Wallach is properly menacing as leader of the gang holding the stolen gems.

Limpid Mediterranean sunshine provides tantalizing backgrounds.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Coming Sunday, an absorbing study of mixed-up emotions based on a Broadway success, "The Chalk Garden." It also stars Hayley Mills, but in a much different environment and co-starred with Deborah Kerr.

The gripping suspense story takes place in a lovely old house in the south of England on the chalk cliffs of Dover.

Miss Kerr is engaged as governess-companion to Hayley, an incorrigible 16-year-old who lives there with her doughty grandmother, Edith Evans.

There is mystery in the house and mystery about Miss Kerr. Hints are given from time to time, but the truth when it comes is a shocker.

John Mills, actor father of Hayley, plays the butler and household major domo. There is the subtle suggestion of romance between he and Miss Kerr which adds to the intrigue.

101 DRIVE-IN

Peter Sellers comes forth Sunday in "The World of Henry Orient," which is made the more engaging by the pixyish presence of two teen-age girls, Tippy Walker and Merrie Spaeth.

The irresistible adolescents, exploring Manhattan's Central Park come upon concert pianist Henry Orient — Sellers, that is — and Paula Prentiss.

From that point on, one girl has a crush on Henry.

Sellers is wildly comical, and Tom Bosley and Angela Lansbury amusing as the parents of one girl. But what steals the show is the delightfully fresh talent of Tippy and Merrie

MOTOR MOVIES

The tremendous "West Side Story" goes on screen Sunday, a must-see movie for any who missed it the first time around.

The Leonard Bernstein musical offers a tragic "Romeo and Juliet" love story, told with music that is truly overpowering, dancing that is breathtaking and photography that is superlative.

Natalie Wood stars as a gay, innocent Puerto Rican girl who falls in love with a neighborhood boy from a rival gang, Richard Beymer. Their love becomes a focal point of West Side Manhattan's bitter racial hatred and the means by which the picture delivers a powerful sociological message.

Dazzling entertainment, not to be missed.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

The shocking story of a middle-aged man helplessly obsessed by a young girl, "Lolita," is now showing.

James Mason is outstanding as Professor Humbert, Sue Lyons surprisingly convincing as the nubile adolescent. Shelley Winters as her mother and Peter Sellers as the depraved playwright who steals Lolita's love enrich this adult film.

NOVATO THEATER

Ian Fleming's "From Russia With Love," a spoof of the whodunit, opens Sunday.

It's the second filming of a Fleming novel, and of course is dominated by Secret Agent 007—James Bond—played again by Sean Connery.

An international crime syndicate sets a trap for Bond in Istanbul, and baits it with lovely Daniela Bianchi.

From the moment Bond enters the spy-ridden city, one hair-raising incident follows another.

Istanbul, Venice and the Orient Express give the perfect flavor to the Technicolor intrigue.

On the same bill is "The Best Man," an interesting political drama starring Henry Fonda and Cliff Robertson.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"How the West Was Won," a film with tremendous scope, spectacular photography and big stars like Debbie Reynolds, James Stewart, Gregory Peck, Karl Malden, Henry Fonda, Carolyn Jones, Lee J. Cobb, Carroll Baker, George Peppard and Robert Preston is held over.

The film is divided into halves, the first dealing with families moving through what was then the "West," via the Erie Canal and the Ohio River. The second part shows the nation torn asunder by the Civil War, the post-war push to the West Coast, building of a transcontinental railroad and final consolidation of the empire.

Photographically outstanding are a ride down the rapids, a buffalo stampede and—most spectacular of all—the theater-shaking train ride that winds up in the train's piece-by-piece disintegration.

Spectacular entertainment for the whole family.

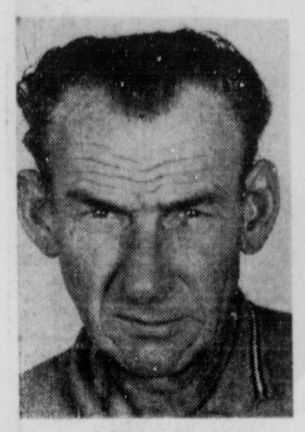
Belvedere Stakeout Traps Suspected 'Funeral Burglar'

San Francisco Ex-Convict Invades Bereaved Household

How Belvedere police, equipped with walkie-talkie radios, nabbed a suspect in Marin's series of funeral burglaries was disclosed today by Police Chief William S. Woodington.

Behind bars in the Marin County Jail, charged with two counts of burglary plus parole violation, was John Theodore Synko, 45, a 6-foot, 4-inch San Franciscan of no fixed occupation or address.



JOHN SYNKO
Rang bell, walked in

He was arrested yesterday inside the Thomas P. Phelan home at 152 Bella Vista Avenue, Belvedere, while the Phelans were attending Requiem Mass for their daughter, Sharon, 17, at St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon.

"It was a hunch," said Woodington, that led him to "stake out" the Phelans' five-bedroom, two-story home.

The "funeral burglary" series started March 25, when a burglar made off with $870 worth of household goods and camera equipment from the home of Mrs. Bernice Hicks at 1206 Cambridge Street, Novato, while Mrs. Hicks was attending the funeral of her husband.

ENTERED HOME

On June 3, someone entered the home of Mrs. Helen Hamilton at 23 Glenn Drive, Mill Valley, and stole $830 in cash while she was at the funeral of her husband.

On June 16, burglar entered the home of Robert S. Sitkin at 270 Beach Road, Belvedere, while family members were attending the funeral of Mrs. Sitkin's father, Ward Cox, in San Francisco. The burglar made a $1,450 haul, including a diamond and sapphire ring, a silver fox stole, and two cameras.

"We were figuring what might happen on a prominent funeral," said Chief Woodington.

He arranged with Phelan, president of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, to have Sgt. Robert L. Coppock concealed in the house when the Phelans left for the Mass.

PATROLMEN HIDDEN

"Patrolmen William Fraass, William McKillop and I were hidden out in the general neighborhood," related Woodington.

"About 9:50 a.m., the telephone began ringing, according to Coppock. The Phelans had left for the funeral at about 9:10 a.m.

"It continued to ring. Finally the door bell rang and there were knocks on the door. Then at 10:11 a.m. Synko, dressed in a polo shirt and light khaki pants, opened the unlocked front door and came in.

"He went like a flash down the stairs into the lower bedroom, where he ran smack into Mrs. Will Holloway, the housekeeper. He saw Mrs. Holloway and turned and ran up the stairs. Coppock, at the head of the stairs, pulled his gun and told Synko to stop.

"Synko came to a sudden halt just outside the front door. Then the rest of us moved in."

Woodington, Fraass and McKillop had kept in touch with Coppock during the action via walkie-talkie radios.

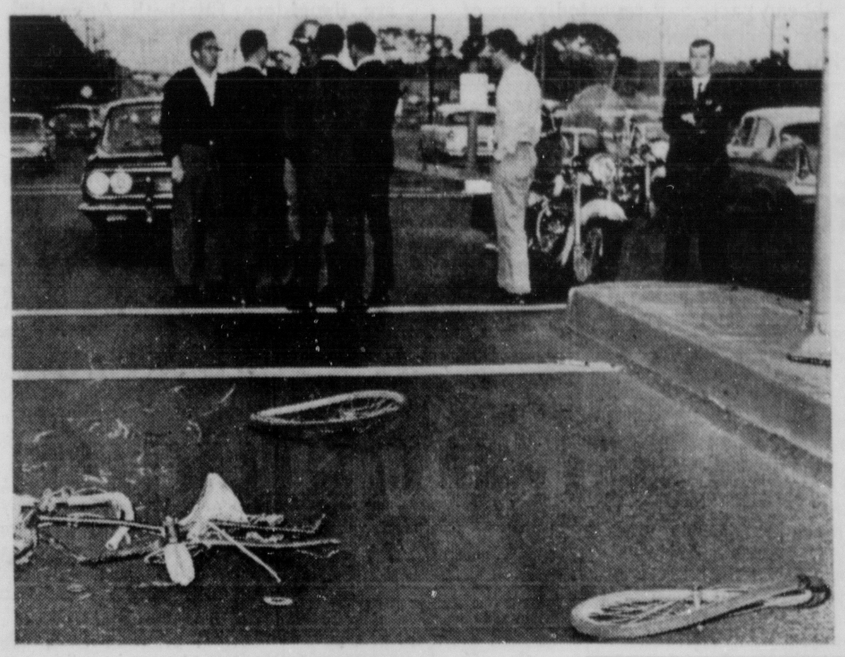
Synko, who first told officers his name was Jack Burke, denied any connection with the Marin "funeral burglaries" or with similar burglaries recently in the East Bay.

Woodington reported Synko is on parole from a Folsom Prison work camp. He was serving a sentence for an August, 1958, burglary in Orange County. His police record dates back to 1935 and is made up mainly of burglaries, the Belvedere chief said.

MUTE EVIDENCE

Robert C. Miller's bicycle lies in twisted pieces on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near La Cuesta Drive intersection in Greenbrae after being hit by a car which continued west, turned back and was forced a stop by an eyewitness who gave chase. Robert, 12 years old, was in poor condition today in Marin General Hospital. The suspected driver is free on bail, charged with hit-run and felony drunken driving, after allegedly running a red light to cause the grim mishap. (California Highway Patrol photo)

Boy Cyclist Run Down, Hit-Run Auto Stopped



Witness Cuts Off Driver

A 32-year-old Greenbrae man blocked the escape last night of a motorist who struck a 12-year-old bicyclist and left him lying critically injured on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near La Cuesta Drive.

Robert C. Miller of 30 Corte Loyola, Greenbrae, was in "poor" condition today at Marin General Hospital with fractures of pelvis and left leg, head injuries, and multiple cuts and bruises.

SUSPECT HELD

John P. Lee, 34, of 501 Oak Avenue, San Anselmo, was jailed after Robert McCullough of 70 Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, forced Lee's car to stop near the accident scene.

Lee posted $2,200 bail today to appear in court Monday on felony drunk driving and hit-run charges. He was also cited for running through a red light and for having no valid operator's license in his possession.

Lee is a management consultant with Joseph Froggatt and Co., accountants and auditors on Montgomery Street in San Francisco.

RAN RED LIGHT

The boy, riding a bicycle, proceeded through the intersection from La Cuesta Drive when the light turned green at 8:15 p.m.

The car driven by Lee, west bound on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, ran the red light, hit Robert and threw him into the air. The boy landed on the rear end of the car and fell to the pavement 129 feet from where he was struck, according to California Highway Patrol Officer Angelo J. Corvino.

McCullough was waiting for the traffic light to turn green. He said he saw that the black 1962 Chevrolet was not going to stop at the red light. He drove part way out onto the intersection and blew his horn.

"I could see what was going to happen and it did," McCullough said.

Lee's car kept going through the intersection. McCullough swung his car around to follow Lee.

Lee made a U-turn one-fourth of a mile away and drove back on the opposite side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. McCullough said Lee passed by the accident scene at a slow speed, watching the persons who had run to aid the boy.

McCullough pulled over to force Lee to stop. Lee's car hit the left rear fender of McCullough's auto as both drew to a stop.

GOP ROUNDUP

Barry Backs Rights As Scranton Fades

COMBINED AP & UPI

Sen. Barry Goldwater promised today he would enforce the new civil rights law, not seek its repeal, and go beyond it in trying to end discrimination if he becomes president.

Goldwater also said this morning that the decision to release Ohio's 58-member delegation from its favorite son commitment could give him a first-ballot victory at the GOP convention next week.

Later the Senator engaged in a heated civil rights exchange with a GOP platform committee member which culminated in an emotional appeal by the Arizonan for all americans to abolish discrimination.

Goldwater said he would enforce the law, just as former President Harry S. Truman used the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act even though it was passed over his veto.

Goldwater's clash with delegate George A. Parker of the District of Columbia, lone Negro member of the platform group occurred after the front-running contender for the Republican nomination had urged the committee to end "petty feuding of party factions."

In a question period which followed Goldwater's 28-minute speech to the 100-member committee, Parker asked Goldwater how he could "consistently, conscientiously and in good faith" enforce the new civil rights law after voting against it on grounds two provisions were unconstitutional."

Asked whether he would seek its repeal, Goldwater said, "No."

"That's not in my opinion the duty of the president. The legislative branch has spoken for the people and I accept the majority view. The president's job is to administer the law."

Last night's announcement that the Buckeye delegates need not give a complimentary vote to Gov. James A. Rhodes handed Goldwater the key to the presidential nomination and crushed Gov. William Scranton's already dim hopes of halting the Senator.

Goldwater still shied away today from a flat prediction that he would be the presidential nominee at the end of the first ballot, and jokingly suggested to newsmen that they give him 2-to-1 odds if they wanted to bet.

But he already has said he is more confident than ever that the victory will come on the opening voting.

Goldwater got an ovation when he appeared before the Republican platform committee. There were standing, cheering demonstrations when he arrived and when he finished speaking. Applause, cheers and whistles interrupted his talk 42 times.

The news of Ohio's action was greeted with shocked silence at Scranton headquarters. But for-

Boys Stone Skunk, It Is Rabid

Another rabid skunk, Marin County's 14th this year, bit the dust Tuesday, the county health department announced today.

The skunk was killed by two 13-year-old San Rafael boys who saw it duck into a culvert at Deer Park and Summit avenues. Ed Coyne Jr. of 360 Summit Avenue and Ron Brannigan of 1330 Grand Avenue killed the skunk with rocks.

The location was near the 200 block of Locust Avenue where a rabid skunk was killed less than two weeks ago. That was the first rabid skunk killed in San Rafael, and this was the second.

The boys saw the skunk fall down before it went into the culvert, so they killed it and called the health department. Laboratory tests were completed this morning.

This has been the worst year for rabid animals on record in Marin. Worst previous year was in 1955 when 11 rabies cases were found.

Bay Employment Sets Record High

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Employment in six Bay Area counties is 2.3 per cent higher than a year ago, increasing by 9,200 jobs since May, according to the state Division of Labor Statistics and Research.

However, the agency reported yesterday that unemployment also is greater than last year and a month ago, with 75,300 Bay Area workers out of jobs. It said the unemployment increase was seasonal.

Total civilian employment now is 1,239,800 jobs, an all time high. During the past year every industry posted gains except manufacturing, but that industry accounted for much of the increase since May.

Marin Girls Runners-Up In Fair's Beauty Event

A 17-year-old Sebastopol girl who received her high school diploma last month, received a crown last night in Petaluma.

Janice Jessen, a brown-eyed brunette, was named queen of the Sonoma-Marin County Fair. Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) placed the crown on Janice's head at the coronation party at the fairgrounds.

Marin County girls captured second and third place spots in the contest and will serve with Janice as princesses. Second place went to Carol Wells, 20, of 91 Oakmont Avenue, San Rafael, a pretty blonde. Lesly Simons, 18, of 23 Scenic Avenue, San Rafael, a pretty brownette, took third.

Janice will compete this fall for the title of Maid of California at the State Fair in Sacramento.

The fair, which continues through Sunday attracted 7,341 on opening day yesterday. The big crowd, slightly higher than the opening day last year, was attributed to many fine attractions and excellent weather.

Tonight's features include folk singing at 8 p.m. and Japanese folk dancing at 9 p.m. Tomorrow the junior horse show will begin at 1 p.m. and the rodeo at 8:30 p.m.

FBI Agent Testifies King Spoke Of Seeing Man Die

By ROSS DAVIS

"Did you ever see a man die? It's a horrible thing to see."

John Lee King, with tears in his eyes, made this comment shortly after his arrest in Hawaii on suspicion of murder, Harry L. Albrecht, Federal Bureau of Identification agent, testified in the Donald G. Corbett Jr. slaying trial in Marin Superior Court today.

Albrecht said King then wiped away the tears and told him he didn't wish "to discuss it further." The agent said, he three other FBI men, and two police officers on the island of Hawaii were expecting to find both King and Robert Lee Jones, co-defendant in the March 27 icepick slaying, in the Hawaii hotel room when they entered early on April 4.

He said some of the officers, after learning Jones was registered at another hotel about three blocks away, went there to make the second arrest and he remained with King.

He said King volunteered the whereabouts of a suitcase and cardboard box which he and Jones had left at International Hotel in Los Angeles.

Another FBI agent, Beryl Goodenow, testified that King was "cooperative" following his arrest. He said King was promptly informed he was charged in the U.S. Commissioner's office with unlawful fight to avoid prosecution on a murder complaint, and that he could refuse to make any statement.

He testified that King at first did not disclose the whereabouts of Jones, saying he (King) was "afraid for his life."

Defense attorneys objected to this question, and Judge Joseph G. Wilson said it could not be admitted as testimony.

King soon named the hotel at which Jones was staying, however, Goodenow added. He said King was asked about checking into the hotel under the name of "D. Corbett," and "he said he never met him (Corbett) when he was alive." Goodenow said King was then asked if he had seen

NEWPORT, Tenn. (AP)—Searchers gathered grim evidence today of death and destruction which followed the crash and burning of a United Air Lines plane near this mountainous east Tennessee town late yesterday. All 39 persons aboard were killed.

Investigators said 70 bags of fragments, including 23 bodies, were removed by midmorning to a special morgue set up in Newport's Municipal Auditorium. National Guard units from nearby Morristown joined civilians in the task.

Federal authorities rushed into the area to seek clues which caused the big airliner to crash in good weather, apparently with little or no warning.

CAL'S CREW, CHAMPAGNE TONY WIN

University of California's eight-oared crew swept into the finals of the United States Olympic Rowing Trials with a victory in today's semi-finals at Orchard Beach lagoon, New York.

In another major sports story today, San Leandro's Tony Lema won the British Open golf championship and Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio was second.

State Board Passes On Unification

The State Board of Education today approved a fourth try for unification of Novato Unified and San Jose Elementary School Districts.

The proposal will be placed on the Nov. 3 ballot in the two districts as result of the approval. It must receive a majority favorable vote in both districts for the merger to become effective.

This will be the fourth election on merger of the two districts, both of which are largely within the city of Novato.

In the first two elections, the proposal passed easily in Novato district but failed of passage in the San Jose district. In the third attempt, the reverse was true.

School District Plan Rejected

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The State Board of Education today rejected an Orange County plan to split the county's Newport Union High School District into two separate unified districts.

"This is a proposal that is so bad that it couldn't under any circumstances be approved by this board," said board member Dorman Commons.

The Orange County plan called for splitting the high school district into unified districts covering the communities of Costa Mesa and Newport Beach.

Brown Aide Quits For Duties At Convention

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Frederick G. Dutton has resigned as assistant secretary of state.

Dutton, 41, who directed Gov. Edmund G. Brown's first gubernatorial campaign in 1958, is leaving the state department to become director of the platform committee for the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City.

LBJ Reveals New FBI Office In Mississippi, Chides GOP

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson announced today that 50 FBI agents will be permanently assigned to a new office opened today in Jackson, Miss.

Johnson announced the figure at another of his impromptu news conferences, this one held in the Cabinet Room.

The White House said earlier that additional FBI agents were sent to Mississippi in the wake of the disappearance of three young civil rights workers, but it declined to say how many agents were in the state.

On other topics during the 30-minute session with two dozen reporters, Johnson:

1. Gave an optimistic mid-year business review when asked about statements by Sen. Barry Goldwater, his probable election opponent, that the administration has been fiscally irresponsible.

Johnson said he hopes to announce in about a week final figures on the fiscal year that ended 10 days ago and he expects they will hold "good news" for the country.

He said "the economic horizon will be bright not only in 1964, but I am informed by the council of economic advisers, as far as the trained eye can see into 1965."

2. Said he is "much more interested in deeds than" words from Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

3. Declined to say whether he agreed with the June 30 statement by Sen. Goldwater, his likely Republican opponent in November, that no GOP candidate could defeat Johnson as of now.

"I think," said Johnson, "the Republican Party has enough problems already without my adding to them in any way."

4. Asked whether support from big city Democratic bosses might give Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy a boost as a potential Demo-

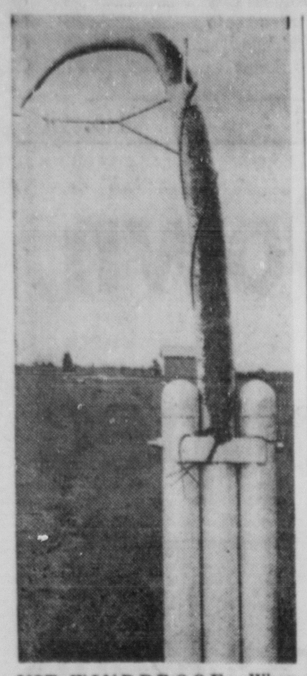
WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF



NOT WINDPROOF—When thunderstorm-spawned gusts, estimated at 80 miles an hour, lashed Tulsa, Okla. suburb of Skiatook, this flagpole was bent almost by right angles. Some residents said they saw a tornado-type funnel swoop from the clouds almost to the ground. (AP Wirephoto)

Japan's Premier Gets Re-Elected

TOKYO (AP) — Premier Hayato Ikeda was assured another two years as head of the Japanese government today.

Ikeda's Liberal-Democratic party elected him to a third term as party president, but the vote revealed a widening rift in the ruling party. The Liberal-Democrats control the lower house by a big majority, and the party chairman is automatically premier.

Ikeda received 242 votes, a majority of only nine votes. He beat off challenges by two major rivals.

Europe Missiles Go Underground

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — The U.S. Air Force says its first steel-reinforced concrete missile sites are now operational at undisclosed sites in Central Europe.

The new hardened sites provide enhanced protection for the recently introduced Mace "B" missile, the Air Force's European headquarters said Thursday.

The surface-to-surface missile, which can be fired by a seven-man crew, has a range of 1,200 miles for either nuclear or conventional warheads.

Rancher Rescues Aide From Blaze

FRESNO (AP)—An elderly rancher saved a crippled ranch hand from a fiery death today after a ranch cabin caught fire north of here.

Firemen said 75-year-old Baram Singh was sleeping in the cabin when the fire began.

Kay Karzagavoorin dashed into the cabin and carried the crippled Singh to safety.

Soon after the rescue a gas tank exploded and the cabin and an adjoining shed were destroyed, firemen reported.

Tunis Church Closure

TUNIS (UPI)—All but five of the 100 Roman Catholic churches and chapels in Tunisia will be closed church sources said here. An agreement for the five has been signed by the Vatican and the Tunisian government. It calls for Tunisian takeover of all the properties of the Archbishop of Tunisia.

Sen. Kennedy Makes Trip Safely

BOSTON (AP)—Doctors say Sen. Edward M. Kennedy is in excellent condition following his 100-mile ambulance ride from Northampton during which he was tightly strapped to an orthopedic bed.

Extensive measures had been taken to protect the mending process of his broken back, suffered in a plane crash June 19.

The team of doctors that has taken over the case at New England Baptist Hospital, where the young Democratic senator moved Thursday, say it will be two weeks before they know whether surgery is needed.

Kennedy, 32, was placed in a fifth-floor suite after a three and one-half hour ambulance drive from Cooley Dickinson Hospital.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Tourists are leaving poignant messages near the scene of President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

They scrawl the messages on sheets of notebook paper, and pin them to wreaths which rest against an ornamental wall in a grassy park at Main and Houston.

An Ohio housewife wrote: "We came to see because we loved you as our president."

And an Oklahoma City family expressed its admiration for President Kennedy with these words: "Thank you for your life of service and unselfish love for all of us."

Top Brass Wants More Marines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The commandant of the Marine Corps indicated strongly today he will ask for a boost in the corps' present 190,000-man strength.

Gen. Wallace Greene Jr. said that new planes and weapons coming into the corps require more people to maintain and operate them.

Greene

It has been four fiscal years since the Marine Corps was granted more men. The Kennedy administration allowed it to go up by 15,000 men.

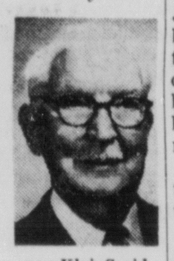
That increase was used to bring Marine ground and air units up to strength and to add some helicopter and aviation elements.

Green said there are three ways the increased manpower demands can be met: (1) adding to the corps' overall strength, (2) deactivating some units and shifting the men to other assignments or (3) reducing the manning levels of combat units.

Noted Educator Is Dead At 89

LOS ANGELES (AP)—University of Southern California Chancellor Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid is dead at 89, the victim of a heart ailment.

Dr. George C. Griffith, his physician, said death yesterday was caused by cardio--vascular disease.



von KleinSmid

Dr. von KleinSmid became chancellor of USC in 1946, after 25 years as university president.

Dr. von KleinSmid graduated from Northwestern University where he later received his masters degree and a doctorate. He later taught there.

He also taught at DePauw University for nine years before becoming president of the University of Arizona in 1914 — a post he held for seven years.

During his association with USC, enrollment grew from 5,000 to 19,000.

Eleventh Or More?

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP)—The father of the Fischer quintuplets has confirmed that his wife is expecting a baby—their 11th—but says reports it may be another multiple birth are unfounded. "Only God knows," said Andrew Fischer, 39, yesterday in Aberdeen. "No X-rays have been taken."

Circus Woman Killed

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A veteran circus aerialist plunged 50 feet to her death last night while her husband and several hundred spectators watched helplessly. Betty Bergen, 34, had just completed her aerial performance, taken off her safety belt and was starting to climb down when she slipped and plummeted to the asphalt surface of a shopping center parking lot. Her husband, Fred, 50, was on the platform as his wife fell.

Hero Remembered

DALLAS (AP)—A bronze bust of police hero J. D. Tippit will be presented to the police department in memory of the officer believed slain by accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald. The bust is the creation of Louis Lee, who said yesterday he wanted to do something to perpetuate the memory of the slain Tippit.

Peninsula Club Plans Expansion

The board of governors of the Tiburon Peninsula Club last night authorized landscape architects to draw up plans for the expansion of club facilities.

Plans will include additional tennis courts and for the far-future, addition of a second swimming pool, reported J. Donald McCune, club president.

The San Francisco firm of Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck was authorized to proceed with the plans, following a report on soil conditions.

Vanity, Vanity

WASLLINGTON, England (UPI)—Richard Lancaster was fined $5.60 yesterday for not having proper control of his car. A policeman testified he saw him take both hands off the wheel to comb his hair at 40 miles per hours.

Los Angeles Grows

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The city planning department estimates that the population of Los Angeles reached 2,678,800 as of April 1. The figure, announced yesterday represents a gain of 197,205 in the past four years.

Battling For Life

STOKE MANDEVILLE, England (AP)—Dr. Roberto Arias, critically ill Panamanian politician, was reported by his wife, Dame Margot Fonteyn, to be a "bit stronger" today. Arias, 46, is under treatment for bullet wounds in his chest. He was shot by a political opponent in Panama June 8.

Mum On Favorite

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham, asked if he favors any candidate for president, said yesterday: "I haven't even told the Lord my thoughts yet." Graham, in Columbus for a 10-day crusade, said he has never given any encouragement to those urging him to enter politics, because he feels that his role is in evangelism.

Revamping Ordinances Called For

Ross's subdivision, variance and other ordinances need considerable revamping, Town Councilman Roy Farrington Jones declared last night.

He submitted to fellow councilmen handwritten notes on more than a dozen proposals to improve existing ordinances, saying he had spent many hours evaluating the laws since he was delegated to the task some six weeks ago.

Among Jones' proposals:

Require a parking space ratio in the event of any future building in the town's commercial district; include square footage of all structures in calculating lot coverage percentages; increase variance fees from $15 to $25 ("postage has gone up, we haven't," he explained); ban swimming pools in front yards; establish a fee schedule per lot in formal subdivisions; adopt an underground utilities ordinance; demand submission of more complete plans and specifications for subdivision and variance matters.

Jones noted that Police Chief Joseph Regoni—who is also city building inspector—is due to retire next year, and that his successor could not be expected to have nearly so much background knowledge of the town's development.

"When we lose Joe, we're going to lose 35 years of history in this town," Jones commented.

Town Atty. Robert Elliott added the opinion that the "informal subdivision" ordinance needed to be changed to eliminate red tape in simple land exchanges between neighbors to straighten property lines. Such acts are not properly "subdivisions," he said, since they usually do not create new building lots.

"Land is getting so valuable and people can be so tricky," Councilman William C. Bricca demurred. He and Jones agreed that some sort of hearing should be required, so the town might have adequate record of such transactions.

The Ross Town Council also:

1. Held preliminary hearing on tentative map for nine-lot subdivision of Margaret Hamer's property on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, adjoining Kentfield. Council decision on the map and restrictions to impose must be made within 40 days.

2. Decided to await action by San Anselmo and Larkspur on community television antenna proposals, before giving hearing to two firms seeking franchises to serve the 850 homes in Ross. Clear View Cable Systems, Inc. spokesman Richard Webster discussed the proposal, asking for a later opportunity to have his firm's proposal detailed.

3. Approved series of resolutions submitted by Town Attorney Elliott, giving "three hats" to Town Treasurer Eleanor Moller by also designating her as finance officer and deputy to town clerk.

Ross Property Tax Hike Almost Certain

Property taxes almost certainly must go up in the Town of Ross, Town Councilman Roy Farrington Jones warned last night.

First draft of the tentative budget, which Jones read, calls for at least one cent more per $100 assessed valuation, to meet increased retirement fund costs. Any salary increases, additional police officers, or capital outlay projects will require raising the tax rate still more, he warned.

Audience members quickly showed they were not entirely happy with the town's proposed budget, which will be the subject of at least one more hearing before the council officially sets the tax rate.

Mrs. Helene Hjort and others demanded that the council "do something" about drainage problems. Fire Chief A. T. Henrich cited Independent-Journal reports that Larkspur and other cities are granting pay increases to employees.

"I think we're being overlooked," Chief Henrich declared. "I can show you where to save at least $5,000." He recalled that in submitting his departmental budget request to finance committeemen Jones and Councilman William P. McAndrew, he had requested a salary survey to bring Ross employees into line with nearby cities.

"I don't agree with the principle in general of increases across the board," Mayor Frederick S. Allen said. "Last year we set up the pension plan and gave a salary increase."

Police Chief Joseph Regoni, belittled suggestions that the town hire an additional police officer, despite the fire chief's reminder that "we need somebody to train for when Joe retires next year."

"What good will one more man do? How'll he cover another man? I can't see that we'll need another man through the next fiscal year," the police chief declared. "You can't afford one, much less two, and one won't do any good now."

Jones reported he and McAndrew — who was absent on vacation — had discussed the problem, and that McAndrew has said someone should "make a pitch" for the extra officer before the councilmen decide the issue.

Several councilmen expressed puzzlement over how they could adopt a logical budget before County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel submits final assessment roll figures next month. As a result, the body decided to set the date for a special budget hearing sometime after its next meeting, Aug. 13, but before Sept. 1.

Jones predicted that, on the basis of new construction which resulted in issuance of a million dollars worth of building permits during fiscal 1963-64, the town assessment roll would increase about $125,000 — to $6,900,000.

On this tax base, the city could take in $91,567 at the present rate of $1.27 per $100 assessed valuation. However, the need for more retirement funds will add a cent to the rate, making predicted needs $92,288.

The tentative budget is based on a rate of $1 for general fund purposes, 15 cents for parks, four cents for bond interest and redemption, and nine cents for retirement.

Receipts from state subventions, sales tax, franchises, fees and other income will give the city a predicted total revenue of $126,968, Jones forecast an increase of just over $4,700 above last year.

Practically the only capital outlay in the budget is in the fire department, which wants 500 feet of new hose at a cost of $1,250. Expansion of city water mains is suggested at $5,000, the same as last year.

Last year, the council earmarked $29,371 for the fire department; the tentative budget calls for $32,175.

Spending in each of the other departments—police, streets, general government and parks — is expected to go up less than $2,000 per department.

Bandit Suspect Can Chew Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — George Zavada, accused of robbing a bank, had a special request of Federal Judge George B. Harris during the arraignment Thursday.

The request was granted.

Judge Harris ordered federal marshals to give Zavada back his false teeth, which Zavada said were taken away from him after he was wounded in a gun battle with FBI agents last month.

At the time of his capture, Zavada was one of the FBI's most wanted fugitives.

Haste Brings Singed Eyebrows For Boy

Ten-year-old Sandy Diamond discovered the hard way yesterday that it doesn't pay to be impatient.

Sandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Diamond of 24 Drake's Cove, San Rafael, was trying to light a barbecue fire in the patio of his home with an electric heating element at about 7:15 p.m.

The process seemed to be going slowly, so Sandy decided to help it along by pouring a few drops of gasoline on the stubborn element.

Woosh! The flames shot up to the roof of the patio and along the side of the house, singeing Sandy's hair and eyebrows.

Unperturbed, Sandy attached a hose to a nearby spigot and started playing water on the blaze. His 21-year-old cousin, Milton Cross, tried to smother it with a blanket. Mrs. Diamond called the San Rafael Fire Department.

When firemen arrived, Sandy and Milton had the fire under control. Firemen estimated damage at $300.

JOHN B. BELLAMY III
Will lead pledge again

Marin Youth Has Historic Task To Meet

John Benton (Jerry) Bellamy III, 17, of Lucas Valley will lead the pledge of allegiance at the Republican National Convention next Thursday evening at the Cow Palace.

This will be a repeat performance for young Bellamy, great-grandson of the man who wrote the pledge in 1892.

Jerry, as he is known by his friends at Terra Linda High School, led the pledge as a 9-year-old Cub Scout during the 1956 Republican Convention, also at the Cow Palace.

He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Benton Bellamy Jr. of 820 Idylberry Road, Lucas Valley. A senior at Terra Linda High, he plans a career in engineering or architecture.

The youth's great grandfather, Francis Bellamy, wrote the original 23-word pledge for President Benjamin Harrison in August of 1892. Since then, eight words have been added to the pledge. They are "of the United States of America" after the word "flag," and "under God" after the word "nation."

Young Bellamy dug up his great grandfather's original handwritten draft of the pledge and presented it to the White House last August.

Several other Marin residents will be participating in the convention activities. Among them are Young Republican John W. Clow of Mill Valley, who is in charge of VIP transportation and floor security; several musicians including Hugo Rinaldi, director of music for San Rafael schools, and Marin members of the Stan Noonan Chorale and the International Choir.

Marin Dinner For Rep. Bob Taft Jr.

Robert A. Taft Jr., representative from Ohio, will speak at Sabella's Restaurant at Alto next Thursday evening at a reception held in his honor.

The public reception, sponsored by the Marin Division of the Republic Alliance, will be from 5 to 7 p.m., announced Herbert Briggin, secretary of the division.

Taft, who is a candidate for his father's old Senate seat, will give a behind-the-scenes report on the Republican National Convention and comment on prospects for the Republican cause in 1964.

After Taft's talk, guests will watch large screen television coverage of the convention, Griffin announced.

Chinese Reds Claim Bank Savings Record

TOKYO (UPI) — Bank savings in Communist China for the first six months of this year surpassed the total for all of 1963, the Communist New China News Agency said today in a Peking broadcast.

It gave no figures for China as a whole, but said deposits in Peking for the half-year period totaled 33 million yuan (about 15 million dollars.

Churches Held Failing On Rights

By ERWIN KNOLL
Advance News Service

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The churches have failed—and are continuing to fail — to meet their obligations in the racial crisis now confronting the United States.

This is the harsh comment of Rev. Will D. Campbell, an outspoken Southern Baptist minister who serves as director of the Committee of Southern Churchmen.

"The church has done nothing," Campbell said in an interview at his home near Nashville. "No suffering . . . no mission . . . no witness . . . not much of anything.

"We've let an era slide by, doing nothing."

Religious leaders, politicians, newsmen and scholars in the South recognize Campbell as a knowledgeable, if committed, authority on race relations.

A native of southern Mississippi, he chews tobacco and can, when the occasion demands it, preach an old-fashioned fire-and-brimstone fundamentalist sermon.

But his advanced views on integration led to his departure from the chaplaincy of the University of Mississippi long before Ole Miss ever heard of James Meredith.

For a number of years Campbell was a roving troubleshooter with the Department of Racial and Cultural Relations of the National Council of Churches. His current post with the committee of southern churchmen leaves him free to be a "preacher-at-large," lecturing, writing, counseling and consulting.

"My interest is not in race," he said.

"My interest is in the church being true to itself, its mission, its Lord."

Denouncing the "hypocrisy and pretense" of clergymen who have belatedly begun paying lip service to the cause of civil rights, Campbell spoke bitterly of what he called missed opportunities to resolve racial conflicts.

"I happen to be a Christian," he said. "The Christian faith can offer the opportunity of unity and reconciliation in Jesus Christ, because it so happens that most of the racists in this country are Christians. At least they go by the name."

The South, Campbell believes, is "a land of Bibles, revival meetings, Biblical literature." It understands the language of religion, and it might have responded to a firm religious message on race relations.

"What we must do," he said, "is confront the traditionally Christian South with the radical demands of the Christian faith."

Whether such efforts on the part of Southern churchmen would bring constructive results is "irrelevant," Campbell declared.

"We are not called to be successful or to get results, but to be faithful to the sovereign God," he said.

While scathing in his criticism of the Southern clergy, Campbell gave them credit for being "more honest than in the North."

"At least the Southerners realize their failure," he asserted. "The ministers of the North can always soothe their consciences by coming South to demonstrate. The ministers in the South have no place to go."

It has suddenly become fashionable for well-intenaioned Northerners to spend a few days in a Southern jail —after making sure that their bail money has been arranged in advance, Campbell commented acidly.

"It's like the early Christians saying they'd be willing to get thrown in with the lions if the lions would only have their fangs pulled first," he said.

Campbell tells Northern clergymen who come to demonstrate in the South: "It's fine to come to Birmingham, but would you consider starting your protest in Harlem?"

North and South, he believes it only "remotely possible" that peaceful accommodations to racial disputes will be found.

"I don't see how we can get through the summer without serious violence between Negroes and whites," Campbell said, and all the evangelical zeal was gone from his voice.

"The can't win with violence —but frustration is not a rational matter. What possible alternative is left? They have tried just about everything else."

As for the churches, Campbell said, they must recognize their past failures and act accordingly.

Where should they start?" By crying 'God have mercy on me —a sinner'," Campbell said.

Active TB Case Found In Tam District Tests

Active tuberculosis in a 16-year-old girl, discovered by the Tamalpais High School District tuberculin testing project last March, was disclosed today by the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

The girl, a Tamalpais High School student, was one of 63 positive reactors when the test was given 3,570 students in the district. Her case is the first of active TB reported as result of the testing, which was followed up with X-rays and examinations for all showing positive reactions.

It is the 22nd new case of tuberculosis reported in Marin County this year.

A chest X-ray, taken at request of the public health nurse who called on the girl's parents, showed minimun active infection of one lobe. The source of infection has not been identified.

Following diagnosis, the girl remained in a San Francisco hospital for additional tests. She will continue drug therapy for perhaps as long as five years. Upon being discharged from the hospital a week ago, she moved with her family to another state.

"If the person who infected this young girl had been tuberculin tested within the past year, she undoubtedly would have escaped a disease that will be with her the rest of her life," said Dr. Joseph J. Alderson, Marin TB Association president.

Jazz Musician Ibanez Is Divorced By Wife In Marin

San Francisco jazz musician Christian Ibanez was divorced today in Marin Superior Court on grounds he played around with women in addition to music.

Mrs. Kathleen Ibanez, a Mill Valley school teacher, testified he had been consorting with another woman and had a child by her. To back up her claim, Mrs. Ibanez produced a newspaper clipping of the birth announcement.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas granted her the divorce and approved a property settlement agreement. Ibanez is to pay $150 per month for the support of their two children, and $1 per month token alimony.

They were married in France in June of 1954 and have been separated for several years.

Ibanez, who heads the Christian Ibanez Trio, did not contest the action and was not present in court.

Jewelry Theft Is Not A Joke

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Thieves stole several cases of little gold elephants, silver elephants, pink elephants and assorted Republican Party costume jewelry in the night.

The shipment was consigned to William J. Sears, 25, a New York salesman who is operating a GOP jewelry concession here during the national convention.

He estimated his loss at $3,240.

The packing cases were taken from a loading dock at the rear of the hotel.

Man Buried Alive

RICHMOND (UPI) — Panto Danilovich, 55, of Oakland, was buried alive yesterday when the sewer ditch he was digging collapsed on top of him.

Asked To March

SAN FRANCISCO — Gov. William W. Scranton has been invited to take part Sunday in a planned parade here of between 20,000 and 50,000 civil rights demonstrators.

GOP

mer Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge insisted anew today that Scranton still has a chance—if the delegates respond to public opinion.

Interviewed on the NBC "Today" show, Lodge said voters worried about the dangers of nuclear war were sending pro-Scranton telegrams in increasing numbers to convention delegates.

"If this is a democratic assemblage, and not a sort of closed corporation, of course Governor Scranton is going to be the nominee," he said.

Backers of Governor Scranton had hoped Ohio and other favorite son delegations would hold firm on the first roll call and thus take the steam out of Goldwater's drive.

Goldwater now may get as many as 25 of the Ohio votes.

Asked about reports that the Ohio delegation wanted Scranton, his only major convention opponent, as the Republican vice presidential nominee, the Senator replied that he had not heard this.

Pressed to say whether the Scranton suggestion sounded like a good one, Goldwater replied with a smile that it was "too early in the morning" to make such judgments.

He suggested yesterday that Scranton probably would not want to run with him in view of the governor's comments that Goldwater was "ignorant . . . a coward . . . a shooter-from-the-hipper."

Meanwhile, Republican platform drafters deadlocked on the politically explosive civil rights plank of their 1964 campaign document. The platform committee's executive committee, which is writing the document, broke up at dawn after an all-night session behind closed doors.

Former Sen. William F. Knowland said today the Goldwater bandwagon is rolling toward victory, and he urged Republican delegates to climb aboard before it's too late.

Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived in Chicago today for a seven-hour layover on his trip to the Republican National Convention.

The former president rode in a private car at the end of the 21-car Broadway Limited of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Shortly after the train pulled into the Union Station a switch engine coupled up to the rear of the Eisenhower car to transfer it to the Dearborn Street Station. It will join a 22-car special Santa Fe Railway train scheduled to leave at 2 p.m. (PDT) for the West Coast.

Goldwater has switched his Republican National Convention personal quarters to the Mark Hopkins Hotel's five-room presidential suite, thanks to a Democrat.

Goldwater was scheduled until Thursday to occupy the hotel's three-room terrace suite on the 15th floor.

The hotel management said the presidential suite had been reserved for Bart Lytton, a prominent Los Angeles Democrat and savings and loan executive. Lytton agreed to give it up.

The presidential suite is on the 17th floor and includes a dining room, dressing room and study. The apartment is directly below the famed Top of the Mark lounge.

Bomb Hoax Call Interrupts Work On Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A fake bomb warning was telephoned today to the Cow Palace, site of next week's Republican national convention.

No bomb was found.

The phoner said "there is a bomb in the barn area," which is adjacent to the huge main convention hall where the GOP will open its proceedings Monday.

San Mateo County sheriff's deputies searched the place, then called off their alert.

The only people around the Cow Palace were technicians completing the installation of communications and other facilities for the convention.

Communist Landmine Kills, Wounds U.S. Men

SAIGON (UPI) — A U.S. Army enlisted man was killed and an officer wounded today when a landmine exploded beneath their armored personnel carrier.

The dead soldier and the officer were traveling in an M113 armored personnel carrier during an anti-communist operation in the Mekong Delta 18 miles west of Saigon when the landmine exploded. The officer was reported in "good" condition.

Big Scrub is the name given to the 441,924-acre Ocala National Forest east of Silver Springs, Fla. The forest contains the largest known tract of sand pine, often called scrub pine.

FRED DICKSON
Former San Quentin warden

Dickson To Head Adult Authority

Fred R. Dickson, 63, of San Rafael, who served as warden of San Quentin Prison for seven years, was named chairman of the California Adult Authority today.

Dickson left the prison in March to accept an appointment to the adult authority by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Today the governor named Dickson to replace chairman Arthur L. Alarcon, who resigned to accept appointment to Los Angeles Superior Court.

Dickson named Dr. Harry Kamp of Laurel Gove Avenue, Kentfield, a dentist, as Adult Authority vice chairman.

Dickson, a native of Nevada, Mo., has served for 20 years in California's correctional system. In 1956, while warden at Chino, he was named "Warden of the Year" by the Wardens' Assn. of America. He has served for many years on the California Parole and Probation Assn.

His salary of $20,500 a year will be increased $500 with appointment as chairman.

Dickson was replaced at San Quentin by Warden Lawrence E. Wilson.

TRIAL

Corbett dead, but declined to answer.

Jones, he said, registered in the second hotel under the name of Charles Riggan. He said Jones also offered no resistance to arrest. Seven .380 caliber bullets were found in a hat on Jones's dresser. No gun was found, however, Albrecht added.

Jones, said Albrecht, was uncooperative.

In yesterday afternoon's testimony, Beryl Goodenow, FBI agent in Honolulu, Hawaii, said his office received a telephone call April 4 from police on the island of Hawaii and he flew there to arrest King.

He said information placed King at a resort hotel near Hilo. A check with the hotel's registration clerk showed King was using the name of Corbett, Goodenow said.

He, other FBI agents, and two police officers from Hilo entered room 52 by using a key obtained from the hotel manager, he related. They found King asleep on a low bed, a .380 caliber pistol on the floor within his reach. Goodenow said another agent went to the head of the bed, and he to the foot, and they grabbed the still-asleep King, warning him not to move.

The pistol, he said, was fully loaded, with a bullet in the chamber. A weapon earlier admitted as evidence and allegedly used by Jones and King in the March 25 holdup of Harbor Liquor Store in Alto was identified by Goodenow as the same weapon.

Donald E. Midyett, chief investigator for the Marin County district attorney's office, identified five pair of men's trousers as those found in suitcases allegedly used in flight from Marin County by Jones and King after the March 27 murder.

Apartments Win Again

MALDEN, Mass. (UPI) — A 258-year-old wooden structure, which once was known as the "Half Moon Tavern," is being razed to make room for a new apartment building.

Thomas Newhall built the tavern and operated it until his death in 1716. His son Daniel then took over and operated it until his death in 1760. During the American Revolution, soldiers wounded at the Battle of Bunker Hill in Charlestown, a few miles from here, were brought to the tavern for treatment.

cratic vice presidential candidate, Johnson said he would make recommendations for a running mate at the party's August convention.

5. Said he hasn't conducted any study or evaluated the impact on the presidential campaign of the entry in some states of elector slates for Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama. But he did call attention to a poll published today, which held that the Wallace candidacy would hurt the Republicans more than the Democrats.

6. Made statement on the completion of House action on this year's regular appropriations bills.

He said his fund requests were cut by 3 per cent, compared with an average slash last year of 7.4 per cent. He said this confirmed his belief that he had submitted a budget "hard to cut."

Rafferty Backs Off On Stand

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The State Board of Education and Dr. Max Rafferty yesterday agreed to support a public school program on the Bill of Rights that had earlier provoked disagreement between Rafferty and board president Thomas Braden.

In a series of rapid fire actions at yesterday's board meeting, Rafferty, the state superintendent of public instruction, agreed to accept a gift of $30,000 from the Constitutional Right Foundation of Los Angeles, a group whose Americanism he had challenged.

Braden then announced that Chief Justice Phil Gibson of the State Supreme Court had agreed to replace Rafferty as a judge for the foundation's high school teachers' essay contest. The board approved the entire panel of judges.

Rafferty had refused to serve as a judge last month. He later said he refused because three directors of the foundation had once been cited in reports from the State Senate Committee on Un-American Activities.

Braden accused Rafferty of demagoguery and said the committee reports had been discredited. He declared that the contest's purpose, to teach the Bill of Rights, was a good one.

In addition to conducting the contest, the foundation offered the state $30,000 for development of a high school course on the Bill of Rights.

Rafferty said yesterday "I will be happy to accept it in the board's name."

Fair Solves Problem Of Returning

NEW YORK (UPI)—Visitors to the New York World's Fair who want to take time out for a ball game at neighboring Shea Stadium, visit their yacht at the fair's marina or go home for a shower and a change of clothes, can return to the fair the same day without paying an additional admission charge.

The visitor tells the guard at any of the eight gates he intends to return later. The guard then stamps the visitor's palm, heel of the hand, back of the hand or one side of the wrist with an invisible dye—invisible, that is, except when held under an ultraviolet light when the visitor reenters. The dye is harmless to the skin and clothing and wears off in about 12 hours.

Billion Dollars In 4 Months' Sales

SAN FRANCISCO — New York Life Insurance Co. has passed the 30-billion-dollar mark for life insurance in force, according to western vice president G. Thomas McElwrath in San Francisco.

McElwrath said New York Life added its latest billion in a little over four months. It took the company 54 years—from 1845 to 1899—to reach its first billion in force.

At the start of 1964, the company's life insurance in force in California totaled $4,355,000,000.

More than half the world's three billion people live in perpetual hunger.

OBITUARIES

Frederick Gius, 27, Succumbs

Frederick William Gius, who grew up in Marin County and attended Sir Francis Drake High School and College of Marin, died in a Fort Bragg hospital yesterday of injuries suffered in a traffic accident Wednesday.

He was 27 years old.

A forestry researcher, Gius was assisted in a Ford Foundation research project at Fort Bragg. He received a bachelor of science and a master's degree in forestry at University of California, Berkeley.

He was born in San Francisco, but moved to Fairfax with his family at the age of three.

He was injured when his car collided head-on with another near Agate Beach in Mendocino County at 3 a.m. Wednesday. The driver and passenger in the other car were both injured.

Gius leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hector Gius of Fairfax, and three brothers, David Gius of Concord, Robert Gius of Millbrae, and Leonard Gius of Fairfax.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Immaculate Conception Church, 3255 Folsom Street, San Francisco. Rosary will be said at 9 o'clock tonight at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. Entombment will be at Italian Cemetery, Colma.

SUZANNE P. ALLEN

Suzanne Pasmore Allen, a pianist who formerly lived in Marin County, died at her home in San Francisco Monday after a brief illness.

A member of the Pasmore Trio, she lived in Marin about 15 years, her last home being in Kentfield. She was the widow of Judge E. O. Allen, who died about six years ago.

She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Mary Pasmore Shattuck, violinist with the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra; Mrs. Dorothy Pasmore Bell, cellist; Radiana Pasmore, a singer, and Dr. Edith Pasmore Sappington. She also leaves a brother, Dr. John L. Pasmore.

There was no funeral service. Mrs. Allen directed that her body be given to University of California Medical School.

ANNA STEIN

Anna Elizabeth Leege Stein of San Francisco, a former resident of Ross, died yesterday in San Francisco after an illness of three years. She was 72.

She was a native of Munich, Germany. She lived in Ross from 1923 to 1954, when she moved to San Francisco. She was active in Red Cross work and very interested in gardening.

She was the wife of Herman C. Stein, a retired interior decorator. She was a member of the German Benevolent Society of San Francisco.

In addition to her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Gwendolyn Markaret Walti of Zurich, Switzerland, and Mrs. Evelyn Von Ripper of Spain, and three grandchildren.

Funeral will be private. The family prefers tributes be donations to the American Cancer Society.

NAT ELLIOTT

Funeral for Nat A. Elliott, 48, who died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow in Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

He had made his home with his friend, Manuel Medeiros of 9 Ross Street, San Rafael.

He was born Nov. 4, 1915, in Pennsylvania. He was a veteran of World War II, having served as a staff sergeant in the 201st Infantry. He was a member of the Carpenters Union in San Rafael.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Orpha Elliott of Hagerstown, Md., and a brother, Army T Sgt. Jack Elliott, stationed in Michigan.

Private interment will be held in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

MRS. PAULSEN

Funeral was held today for Mrs. Charlotte J. Paulsen of Mill Valley, the wife of Victor Paulsen, groundsman for the Mill Valley Park Department.

Mrs. Paulsen died at her home at 544 Marin Avenue yesterday after a long illness. A native of San Jose, she had lived all her life in California, residing 40 years in Marin County.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Swetland of San Francisco; a brother, Joseph Quijada of Coronado, and two sisters, Mrs. Marie T. Higgins and Mrs. Amelia R. Spiller of San Francisco.

Funeral was at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley. Burial was private.

Burglar Invades Sausalito Cruiser

The 56-foot cabin cruiser, Estelita, owned by C. L. Cummins of 80 Cloud View Road, Sausalito, was broken into during the night and $400 in belongings stolen, Ralph Schooling, boat keeper, told police today.

Entry, believed to have been between 5 p.m. yesterday and 8 a.m. today, was made by breaking a glass in the boat door and unlocking the door while the boat was tied up at the Sausalito Yacht Harbor. Taken were a radio, a portable television set, a camera, small box of tools, and a box of cigars, police said.

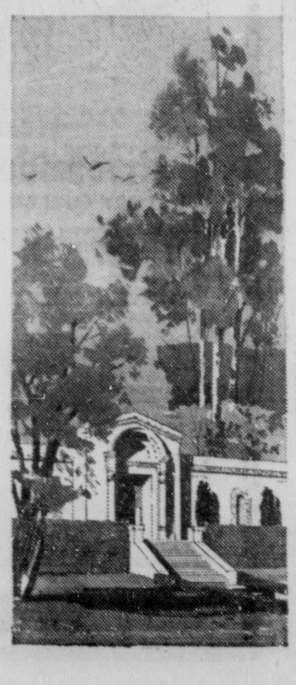
MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY in the Heart of our County



Marin pioneers chose a site in the heart of our county as a final resting place for their families. Today this location—at the west end of Fifth Avenue in San Rafael—is still convenient to all Marin points.

Marinites who choose Mount Tamalpais do so with the assurance that its beauty will grow with the years. The interest from a quarter-million dollar endowment fund—twice the legal requirement—is dedicated to the constant care and improvement of this 57-acre site.

Perhaps—like many Marin families—you wish to make your own final arrangements to spare others difficult decisions. If so, we invite your inquiry or a personal visit.

College Board Upholds Firing In Public Hearing

Dismissal of Richard Page of San Francisco, College of Marin custodian from November, 1963 to June 1 of this year, was upheld by the board of trustees last night.

Page was dismissed by college president Stephen E. Epler on recommendation of the custodian's supervisors, who reported several unauthorized absences and general inefficiency.

Public hearing on the dismissal, requested by Page, was held last night.

Several witnesses were called by Douglas J. Maloney, county counsel, on behalf of the college. Page cross examined Sam B. Serkie of San Rafael, college custodian-supervisor; William Raudio of Larkspur, superintendent of buildings and grounds, and Norman Bird, business manager, all of whom recommended his dismissal to Epler.

A brief executive session on the personnel matter was held by the board after the hearing before president Robert E. Oliver announced the board's decision to uphold the dismissal.

$700-Plus Stolen At Stinson Beach

Sheriff's deputies today were investigating the theft of a money bag containing $700 to $900 in cash from the safe at Elwood's Restaurant in Stinson Beach.

H. R. Shortleff, owner of the restaurant, reported the loss Wednesday to Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Burton. Shortleff said the money was placed in a bank bag and left in the safe under the bar on Tuesday.

When Mrs. Shortleff checked the safe about 9 or 10 a.m. Wednesday, the bag was there but the contents were missing. There was no evidence of a forced entry.

Fromm Unable To Speak At College

Author Eric Fromm will not be able to keep his appointment to speak during the College of Marin's concert and lecture series this fall.

The college board last week approved engagement of Fromm, author of "May Man prevail?" "The Sane Society," and "The Art of Loving," at a cost of $700.

Dr. Ellsworth R. Briggs reported last night that a telegram had been received yesterday saying Fromm would be unable to appear.

State Gives Raises To 24,000 Aides

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state personnel board has taken action to fatten the paychecks of about one-fourth of the state government's civil service workers, effective with checks for July.

About three million dollars was available for some 24,000 employees who will receive adjusted salaries under the board order.

The 1963 legislature made an appropriation of 38.6 million dollars for state pay raises for the 18-month period from Jan. 1, 1964, through June 30, 1965. Most of this was spent last January, when raises were given to about three-fourths of the state employees.

The three million dollars that was left over is provided under the board action for the 24,000 employees who were found to be due an additional adjustment. More than 14,000 of this number are in clerical classifications, including clerks, typists, bookkeeping machine operators and telephone operators. They will receive the additional 2.5 per cent raise.

Another group will receive 5 per cent raises. These include stenographers, key punch operators, information officers, hearing officers, office of administrative procedure, referees, unemployment insurance appeals board, building tradesmen, auto mechanics, building managers, clinical laboratory technologists and compensation insurance representatives.

Laboratory assistants received a 10 per cent raise.

The board's action, effective July 1, used 2.4 million dollars of the three million available for general fund salaries, as well as about 2.7 million dollars from special funds. Thus, some $600,000 from the general fund, and a corresponding amount from special fund remains available for further salary adjustments later in the fiscal year.

Design For New Library Is Changed

Minor changes in design for the new Mill Valley Library, which the architect said would not add to the cost, were approved last night by library trustees.

Architect Donn Emmons told the trustees he will soon submit a schedule of when specifications for the building will be completed and when bids can be called.

Paul Rosenthal, who headed the citizens committee for the library bond campaign, reported there will be some surplus funds and that, when they are known exactly, a recommendation for their use will be given the board.

Mrs. John P. Farnham was re-elected board president, and Mrs. H. H. Fudenberg was elected secretary.

Five written protests were received to the board's "no smoking" rule in the library, but trustees deciding it is too soon to evaluate the rule, said Mrs. Farnham.

DEER TANGLES WITH TRAFFIC ON GATE SPAN

Deer do not cavort every day on the Golden Gate Bridge during the commuter rush hour.

A Hollywood resident may have gained that impression as he was driving north on the bridge, 300 feet south of the north end, at 4:50 p.m. yesterday.

Arthur Rowe, 57, slowed his car when he saw a deer running south on the sidewalk of the bridge. The deer veered quickly across the roadway and into the front end of his car, which had to be towed away.

Rowe may be wondering if Northern California highways are actually more dangerous than Los Angeles freeways.

Considering the wildlife, that is.

Hallinan Kin Convicted En Masse As Sit-Ins

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The wife and four sons of Vincent Hallinan, Belvedere lawyer, were convicted yesterday of trespassing, unlawful assembly and failure to disperse during racial demonstrations at a San Francisco automobile showroom last April.

Mrs. Vivian Hallinan and the sons—Con, Terrance, Mathew and Patrick—were among 19 persons convicted yesterday of violating the laws in the sit-in disturances.

The Hallinans made bail pending arguments on motion for a new trial. The motion will be heard July 28.

A jury in Municipal Court of Judge George E. Maloney convicted eight demonstrators, including Mrs. Hallinan, Con, Terrance and Mathew.

Patrick, who had been arrested with them but who had figured in the trial only as their defense lawyer, asked the judge that the evidence against the rest of the defendants apply to him, too. Judge Maloney obliged, finding him guilty.

The other defendants convicted were Corie Harer, Kenneth Hoah Jr., John Houghton and Genevieve Hughes.

In the Municipal Court of Judge James J. Walsh, 10 other Auto Row demonstrators were convicted on similar charges.

Military Pay Hikes Gaining

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 2.5-per cent pay increase for most of the 2.7 million uniformed members of the military forces won surprisingly quick and unanimous approval of the Senate Armed Services Committee yesterday.

The proposed pay boost for the armed services—which has President Lyndon B. Johnson's endorsement—would come on top of an increase voted last year that averaged about 17 per cent for officers and 12.7 per cent for enlisted personnel.

The new raises would range from $49 a month for top generals and admirals to $3 for recruits. But commissioned officers with less than two years service would get a special break—an 8.5 per cent jump which would range from $22 to $34 monthly.

The 2.5 per cent applies to the base pay for all other officers and to enlisted personnel—including noncommissioned officers—with more than two years service. Military personnel get quarters and subsistence special allowances in addition to base pay.

Costly Cat Returned Home— But Not Exactly Voluntarily

"Monty," the $1,500 feline, was found by three San Rafael children yesterday and taken home to the H.R.H. Cattery — although not exactly willingly.

Mrs. Charlotte R. Smiley reported the little Burmese cat, so valuable because it is one of only a dozen in the world that are "champagne mist" color, was stolen from its cage in the cattery outside her home at 1 Neame Avenue Wednesday.

About 2 p.m. yesterday, Richard Cameron, 7, and his brother Willie, 5, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cameron of 18 Santa Margarita Drive, and Loretta Farley, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Farley of 21 Santa Margarita Drive, saw the little cat hiding under some bushes, only about 75 feet from the Smiley property.

They told Mrs. Cameron. She called the Marin County Humane Society. To the scene went Humane Society officer Irving Sousa and San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa and Sgt. Louis E. Foster.

Mrs. Smiley had said "Monty" was gentle and playful, so the officers tried to coax him out. He wasn't cooperative.

Finally, Sousa got a hoop snare over the cat and pulled him, clawing and squawling, from under a bush. He deposited the angry feline gingerly in its cage at the cattery.

Monty's expensive coat was smeared with grease. Mrs. Smiley said he was "wild as a Commanche" when she got home, but calmed down after she fed him.

Planners Make Debut Tonight In Tiburon

Planning commissioners of Tiburon will elect officers and set a regular meeting date at their debut meeting tonight.

Commissioners recently appointed by the city council also have been entrusted by councilmen with drawing up a board philosophy of planning but probably will not have time to do so tonight, said Peter Macgowan, temporary chairman.

Also at the 8 p.m. meeting at Del Mar School will be County Planning Director B. D. Dobbs and City Atty. Peter Allen Smith.

Planning commissioners are Joseph C. Marshall, Stephen H. Nash, Mrs. William B. Newman, Erik Rettig, and Macgowan.

Sleepy Hollow Boy Kills Rattlesnake

James Chaille, 16, of 1421 Butterfield Road, Sleepy Hollow, shot and killed a 36-inch rattlesnake yesterday evening after the snake had struck out at the tire of a bicycle being ridden by two boys.

The snake had seven rattles and a button.

James' mother, Mrs. Marjorie Chaille, gave this account of wha thappened:

Two boys, Brian and Richard O'Neil, were riding their bicycles along a new road at the end of Butterfield Road. They rode by the snake, which struck out at the bicycle tires. They told James, who grabbed a .22 rifle and shot the rattler.

Bogs abound in sphagnum moss, cotton grass, black spruce and Labrador tea. The bogs of Cape Cod support cranberries, those of New Jersey, blueberries.

Nicasio 'Mayor' Heads Boosters For School Tax

Nick Kobseff, the "mayor" of Nicasio, was named by the Nicasio School District board last night to head a citizen committee for the Aug. 18 school tax increase election.

Assisting Kobseff will be Mrs. Jean Fahey and Mrs. Jean Van Pelt.

The election is on a proposed 80-cent increase in the district operating tax maximum, bringing the total maximum to $1.60 per $100 assessed valuation. The measure was defeated June 2.

School trustees have said it will not be necessary for some time to levy the $1.60 maximum, but some increase is needed to take care of rising costs and loss of assessment due to the Nicasio Reservoir.

Banks Condition Report Ordered By Government

WASHINGTON (UPI) Federal banking agencies today ordered all banks under their jurisdiction to report their financial condition as of the close of business June 30.

It was the second call this year. Banks can expect to have two more calls in 1964.

Rabies Clinic Attracts 193 Canine Pets

One hundred and ninety-three dogs lined up at the county fire station in Woodacre to receive their anti-rabies vaccination last night.

The Marin County Health Department, which sponsors the $2 clinics, reported that it was a very healthy showing. All dogs must have proof of recent anti-rabies shots before they can get new licenses.

The health department asked today that dogs which are "obviously" pregnant, sick or unmanagable not be taken to the clinics.

Next week's clinic schedule will be Tuesday at Marion School, 1705 Marion Avenue, Novato, and Thursday at Mill Valley Corporation Yard, Sycamore Avenue and Camino Alto. The clinics run from 6 to 8 p.m.

Streets Budget Reviewed For Corte Madera

The Corte Madera Town Councitl last night revived the street department's budget and set priorities for street construction projects.

The council also tentatively approved purchase of a new street sweeper and discussed on which side of the town street repair projects would be done during the present fiscal year.

The priorities are: (1.) A culvert over Paradise Drive at San Clemente Creek. (2.) A leveling course over Corte Madera Avenue to the Mill Valley city limits. (3.) Widening of Paradise Drive from the railroad tracks to El Camino Drive. (4.) Curbs on Meadowsweet Drive from Sausalito Street to the town limits. (5.) Construction of sidewalks from Walnut to Pixley Avenues.

Councilmen Albert E. Kogler and William W. Collier were absent.

Auto's Top Slashed

The top of a 1959 Ford convertible was slashed during the night in the closed but unlocked garage of Mrs. George Andrews at 160 Summit Avenue, Mill Valley, Mrs. Andrews told police today. She also reported that a kitchen window was broken about three weeks ago by someone throwing a pine cone against it.

Hub City Chamber Drafts Letter On Downtown Zoning

A letter to San Anselmo City Council making recommendations on downtown business area zoning was discussed at length yesterday by San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce directors.

The letter is by member William J. Clyde of Clyde Building Associates. Its contents will not be disclosed until the chamber meeting next week, said Richard A. Kientz, group president.

Lacking a quorum at its noon meeting in Alexander Hall of San Francisco Theological Seminary, the board deferred action until the letter can be checked by attorneys, said Kientz.

The chamber reviewed presentations by its cleanup and beautification committee which has been checking city areas for litter to make cleanup recommendations.

Front Wheels Stolen Headlight Bashed In

Both front wheels are gone from a 1952 sedan parked on Marin Avenue in Mill Valley, the owner complained to the sheriff yesterday.

Edwin M. McInerny of 413 Marin Avenue said the left front headlight of his car was also smashed. He valued the loss at $40.

Novato Chief Warns After Garage Blast

Novato Fire Chief George Cavallero today issued a warning on the use and storage of inflammable liquids in garages.

A fire yesterday that destroyed the garage of Lloyd Perkins home at 1040 Greenwood Drive, Novato, resulted from an explosion in the garage. The Perkins's son, Bob, 18, went into the garage and lit a cigarette when "the whole thing exploded." Damage was estimated at $6,500.

"People are careless storing paint, paint thinner, gasoline and such liquids in their garages where they can explode or start fires from automatic water heaters, car exhausts sparks, or lighting a cigarette," warned Cavallero.

Valuable Hearing Aid Snatched From Truck

Fred C. Kuhn of 14 Kathy Court, Novato, lost a combination hearing and spectacles, worth $475, from his parked pickup truck in San Rafael Tuesday when he left it to enter a store, San Rafael police reported today.

Kuhn parked at noon in front of Wellen's Typewriter Co., 1113 Fourth Street, leaving the window open slightly. Someone forced the window and took the glasses, he reported.

Warning Too Late

Leroy Johnson of 2713 Heatherstone Drive, Marinwood, was somewhat curious last evening, noting his car's generator light remained on as he drove home from Albert's Arcade on Fourth Street at 11 p.m. Checking, he found the generator had been stolen while the car was parked.

Frightened Kitten Saved By Firemen

A hungry calico kitten was rescued from a large oak tree in Tamalpais Valley yesterday by firemen who ran out of ladder and had to climb the last 14 feet of the tree using spiked boots.

Capt. Richard Oswald, the rescuer, said the kitten, owned by Deborah Ulrich of 433 Marin Avenue, had been in the tree two days.

At 11:30 a.m. Civil Defense firemen Robert Irving and Charles Pickering, both high school student volunteers, stationed themselves at the bottom in case Oswald should fall. Then Oswald climbed the 16-foot extension ladder, and beyond that, used his spikes in the 30-foot climb to a tree crotch.

The child was full of appreciation, said Oswald, and he believed she was taking the kitten right home to give him something to eat.

"The firemen deserve a lot of credit," said a neighbor, Mrs. E. Montizambert of 431 Marin Avenue, who watched the rescue. "They take their lives in their hands."

Mugger Victim To Try Whistle

NEW YORK (AP) — Arlene Del Fava says she will use a police whistle to attract men.

She bought a whistle yesterday to summon help if a mugger attacks her, as one did last Sunday. She stabbed the man with a switchblade knife and was charged with violating antiweapons laws.

"Perhaps the boys won't be so eager to propose, now that I have a police record," the 27-year-old secretary said.

Police said she'd have been in the clear if she'd used an ordinary knife or a hat pin. Switchblades are outlawed.

Fairfax School Bond Backers Elect Chairman

Dr. George C. Stone of 801 Bolinas Road, Fairfax, was elected chairman last night of a citizens committee favoring passage of Fairfax School District's proposed bond issue at a Nov. 3 election.

Mrs. Gilbert P. Murphy was elected secretary and Wesley Roberts was elected treasurer.

Several committees were created to work for passage of the issue to finance expansion of the district's facilities, including purchase of additional school sites and financing classroom construction.

Second meeting of the committee will be held in about five weeks at Manor School, Stone said.

Sausalito Lions Club Officers

Francis T. Trojanowski, head of Trojan Properties in Sausalito, will take over as president of the Sausalito Lions Club at its Monday meeting. He succeeds Richard Urbais.

Other new officers are Myron Kaplan, first vice president; Thomas Hall, second vice president; Richard Blacow, third vice president; Irvine T. Low, secretary-treasurer; William McDonald, Lion tamer, and Urbais, tail twister.

Elected to the board of directors, to serve with the new officers, were Henry Meyer, Mathew J. Perry, Dr. Irving Igdaloff, Joseph De Martini, Ward Elliott, and Elmo Maggiora.

Light Car Stolen

Maile A. Snyder of 215 Main Street, Sausalito reported to police yesterday that his 1963 two-door Chevrolet Corvair was stolen from the parking stall at his apartment house between 1:30 p.m. Wednesday and 7:30 a.m. yesterday.

Dead Raccoon Leads To Injury Of Motorcyclist

Carlton Gearhart, 46, of Point Reyes Station was in fair condition in Marin General Hospital with a broken right leg after the motorcycle he was riding hit the rear end of a car stopped on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, one and one-half miles south of Inverness, today at 7:30 a.m.

Ronald Bendixen, 20, a student engineer at the Point Reyes National Seashore office on the Bear Valley Ranch, stopped his car in the roadway to examine a dead raccoon, according to California Highway Patrol Officer William Gregg.

Gearhart, an employee of American Telephone and Telegraph Co. at Point Reyes, plowed into the rear of the government car Bendixen was driving.

FIFTY YEARS OF HAPPINESS — Mr. and Mrs. Clayton F. Schwerin of San Anselmo relax in their well decorated backyard. They were married 50 years ago. They have lived in the house since 1921 and Schwerin has embellished the yard with colorful carpentry projects, ranging from an aviary to custom-made birdfeeders. (Independent-Journal photo)

Pay Raises Voted For Junior College

Salaries of College of Marin teachers, administrators and non-teaching personnel were increased by approximately 5 per cent last night by the college board of trustees.

College president Stephen E. Epler's salary was raised from $19,000 per year to $19,950. Paul M. Clymer, college vice president and dean of instruction, received a $747 increase of $16,317. Business manager Norman Bird's salary of $13,500 per year was hiked to $14,175. Irwin P. Diamond, dean of students, will receive $15,151, a $721 increase over last year. Herbert Blanchett, administrative assistant to Epler, received a $495 increase in his 1963-64 salary of $9,900.

Recommendations on salary increases were presented by Trustees Elizabeth M. Deedy and Robert E. Oliver, the world's salary committee, who had met with employee representatives several times during the last two months.

Graduate study by faculty members will be encouraged through the revised schedule by a $500 bonus for a teacher when he receives a master's degree and a $1,000 bonus for a faculty member who earns a doctorate.

Increase in total salaries was estimated at $69,629, or 5 per sent.

The revised schedule for full-time faculty members includes a $300 increase at the base of the schedule, creating a range of from $6,000 to $11,670 per year.

Board members reserved the right to modify salaries for individual positions during the school year. The administration was directed to propose a plan for study of salaries including a calendar for salary revision for 1964-65 which will provide an opportunity for employee groups to present recommendations to the board for consideration.

The Marin Junior College District board also:

1. Accepted the bid of $3,999 by North Bay Tractor Co. of Petaluma for an industrial tractor which will replace a similar vehicle which is 10 years old and no longer usable.

2. Learned that the college had received $401,930 as a result of passage of Proposition 1-A in November, 1962, which authorized the sale of 20 million dollars of bonds for junior college construction. An additional $97,000 is expected to be received by the college within the next two months through the bond issue.

3. Hired Carolyn DeVinny of San Francisco as secretary to Blanchett, assistant to the president, at $370 per month, effective next Monday.

4. Agreed to meet at 8 p.m. next Thursday in room 24 of Harlan Hall on the Kentfield campus.

One Span Leap Prevented, But Wife Missing

A Mill Valley school teacher was stopped in his attempt to jump off the Golden Gate Bridge yesterday, and an Oakland woman was feared to have been the fourth suicide off the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge.

Homer James Foote, 47, of San Francisco, a seventh-grade teacher at the Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley, drove up to a toll collector on the Golden Gate Bridge at 12:40 p.m. and said he was going to jump off the bridge.

The toll collector notified the California Highway Patrol and Foote was taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation. He was despondent over family matters, according to the highway patrol.

Listed as a possible suicide was Margaret Masako Takaesu, 49, whose purse and identification papers were found in a car abandoned one-third of the way up the incline on the Marin County side of the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Takaesu had spent Wednesday night at the home of her brother, Harold H. Itokaza, at 923 Del Ganado Road, Terra Linda, and borrowed her brother's car to drive back to Oakland.

Her husband, James, said Mrs. Takaesu had taken an overdose of pills three days ago. A search by the Coast Guard failed to turn up her body.

Previously, two women and one man have jumped to their death off the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge.

The Religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, was started in 1652 by the Englishman, George Fox.

After 50 Years They Debate Who Whistled

When Mr. and Mrs. Clayton F. Schwerin of San Anselmo celebrate their golden wedding tomorrow, Mrs. Schwerin may pucker up and whistle a bit—although she won't admit it.

That's the way it all began some 53 years ago when the couple first met in San Francisco.

"She whistled at me, because she wanted to go to a dance," smiles 72 year-old-Schwerin. His wife, Esther, isn't quite ready to concur.

"He was a happy-go-lucky kid, and I had known him before," she explains. "I was going to the bank for my boss, and he was whistling as he walked on the other side of the street.

"I whistled, too, and he came running across. He asked me dancing."

Which version is accurate hardly matters to the happy Schwerins, who have spent the last 43 years living in the same home at 58 Karl Avenue.

Schwerin, who is a commissioner of the Marin County Housing Authority, is probably one of the busiest men in Marin. He retired in 1957 after 48 years with the Firemen's Fund Insurance Co. in San Francisco.

Smack dab in the middle of the back yard sits a six-foot-high aviary, inhabited by some 40 canaries and 10 finches. He built it "in a week" in 1930, and has been raising birds ever since.

The yard is gay with colorful objects, ranging from bird feeders to ceramic and wood religious objects. He has "about 150" multicolored flowerpots arranged on a ledge near the driveway and garage.

"People ask me what I do with those things," he said. "I give them away, and then I have something to do again." I've got a lot of time."

With his time in the last 50 years, Schwerin has played semi-professional baseball, been exaulted ruler of San Rafael Elks lodge 1108, and a member of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, among other things.

His wife is "a busy housewife" but also belongs to several clubs.

She was born in Drytown, Amador County, "when it was really mining country." Schwerin was born in San Francisco.

Mrs Schwerin got the experience of a lifetime in San Francisco during the 1906 earthquake. Her family's home burned and she spent two years living in tents and temporary government structures, she recalls.

The Schwerins have one daughter, Mrs. Fred Mattei of Petaluma, and three grandchildren. They came to San Anselmo in 1921 when the few houses on Karl Avenue were surrounded by a prune orchard.

The anniversary celebration will be given by their daughter at Petaluma Women's Club, with a reception for friends and buffet dinner.

"We have had a lot of fun and a lot of happiness," was the couple's final judgement of their 50 years.

Marinwood Budget Has Sharp Rise

Directors of the Marinwood Community Services District approved a preliminary budget of $90,650 last night, up sharply from the $67,323 budget of the last fiscal year.

Although the budget was increased, the $1 tax rate for operations will be maintained. The bulk of the increase will come from operation of the new swimming pool, which is expected to be self-supporting.

There will be a sharp tax rate increase, however, as result of the $100,000 swimming pool bonds approved last year. Asst. County Auditor-Controller George Donaldson said the present 27-cent rate for bonds will probably go up to about 45 cents, because the district must pay for 18 months of bond redemption on the new bonds this year.

Directors appointed Graham V. Behn to fill a vacancy on the district's fire commission.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

12:20 p.m., San Anselmo—Grass fire on Dominican College property at end of Butterfield Road burned about one-half acre.

12:26 p.m., San Rafael — Overheated car engine caused by dry radiator at home of Dr. W. E. Bortfeld, 114 Bret Harte Road, San Rafael.

2:35 p.m., San Anselmo—False alarm at Ridge Road.

2:37 p.m., Marinwood — Illegal burning at home of Robert Gehrke, 113 Blackstone Drive.

3:02 p.m., County—Flooding carburetor caused car to burn in a southbound lane of California Park overpass, Highway 101 between San Rafael and Greenbrae.

3:45 p.m., Kentfield—Grass fire burned small area in empty lot opposite 144 Corte Anita; believed to have been caused by discarded cigarette.

5:25 p.m., Kentfield—Small fire in shingles of home of Neil Burton, 141 Cypress Avenue, caused by person burning paint off window sills.

7:27 p.m., San Rafael—Flash fire caused by ten-year-old Sandy Diamond, 24 Drake's Cove, trying to aid electric heating element light barbecue by pouring gasoline on it. Blaze singed his hair and eyebrows, caused approximately $300 damage.

8:47 p.m., San Rafael—Car fire on Lincoln Avenue between Third and Fourth Streets caused estimated $35 damage to auto driven by Arnold Schrick, 8 Tamalpais Drive, Mill Valley.

10:02 p.m., San Rafael — False alarm at corner of Second and B Streets.

Boys Vent Ire On Principal By Windows Spree

Two young boys, who admitted breaking windows at West Marin School at Point Reyes Station, told investigators they did it because "I don't like the principal" and "I wanted to quit school."

Sheriff's Deputy William S. Christensen said he got these statements from a 9-year-old and a 6-year-old, who were caught in the act of window-smashing Wednesday night.

Christensen answered a telephone call about 6 p.m. Wednesday and raced to the school. He nabbed the boys throwing rocks at windows from the school's courtyard. Nine windows were shattered.

The boys are both from prominent Stinson Beach families. Parents have agreed to pay for all damages, said Deputy Christensen.

Teen-Agers Held For Hub Burglaries

Two San Anselmo boys, aged 13 and 14, were arrested yesterday by San Anselmo police on suspicion of four burglaries since February.

The older was charged with two burglaries of First Presbyterian Church, 72 Kensington Road, San Anselmo in February and entry into a private home near his own residence May 3, said Juvenile Inspector Chester C. Orr.

Together the two were charged with taking $18 from O'Hagan's 76 Service, 830 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard on May 14.

The church was ransacked on one occasion and a portable transistor radio taken on the other, said Orr. A cigarette lighter and small change were taken from the home.

The teen-agers were cited to Marin County Probation Department. The 13 year old was on probabation for several previous offenses, said Orr.

Consumer Panel Is Warming Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government panel to help consumers with low incomes holds its first meeting next Tuesday.

Its mission is to "reach and teach consumers who have very little money to spend and who need to make every dollar count," said its chairman, Esther Peterson, special assistant to the President for consumer affairs.

Mrs. Peterson said the first meeting will be an executive session to organize work and review present programs and resources.

Young Demos Set Up Branch For Southern Marin

Peter Risley, a senior at Tamalpais High School, was elected president of the Southern Marin Branch of Young Democrats at an organizational meeting last night in the Mill Valley city hall.

Risley, 17, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Risley of 151 Stadium Avenue.

The organization, as yet unofficial, plans to discuss platform and membership again at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the city hall. At least 20 members are being sought, said Risley.

Allen Aleshire was elected vice president, and Robert Coffman, secretary. Both are Tamalpais High students and are of Mill Valley.

Workmen Racing Clock To Finish New Sky Lounge In San Rafael

Workmen at the new Redwood Club Sky Lounge and Restaurant have been laying carpet, installing fixtures and equipment, and fighting both the calendar and the hands of the clock—but executive chef Jerry Boccignone affirms by all his antipastos he'll be ready to open to the general public next Thursday.

Even before then there will be a few dry runs at this fifth floor spot in the Kaehler-Farrar Building, San Rafael. Monday (purveyor's night) will find some 250 purveyors, suppliers and their wives filling up the tables. Tuesday is press night, with newspaper, radio and TV people getting their preview. A pre-public invitational crowd of about 300 will pick up reservations on Wednesday night. By Thursday the machinery should be well oiled for a smooth operation, if Jerry and his staff haven't run out of gas.

And if the elevator signs aren't corrected by then, mentally deduct one flight from the floor you want before pressing the automatic starter. The way it is now, "G" stands for the first floor. Consequently the fifth floor will be labeled "4."

Menu lists 27 complete dinners starting at $2.95 for the filet of sole and running up to $6 for filet Mignon St. Germain, with plenty of intermediate selections —parmigiana, scallopini, sautees, oysters, frog legs, lobster, brochettes, sirloins, New Yorks, medallions, sweetbreads and others.

On the a la carte side, there are numerous salads, pastes, broiler items, seafoods, omelettes and sandwiches.

Sunday dinner specials at $2.95 include chicken and risotto, scallopini, roast sirloin, roast lamb and several others.

The luncheoner will be able to choose between sandwiches, a la carte and daily lunch specials at $1.65-$1.75.

THERE ARE a new room and new dishes down at El Borro, Tiburon's Mexican restaurant. Dorothy Boat and Sandy Keppel took over the small real estate office next door, knocked out a wall or two, made a new hallway and an additional party room—seats about 16. Good for overflows, too, on busy nights.

Keturah is now making "flan" — a Mexican custard dessert, served very cold with its own burnt sugar sauce. Also added to El Borro's wine list is a Spanish wine punch called "sangria," a combination of oranges, lemons, limes, mint, red wine and champagne. Good for what ails you.

Tiburon restaurants and bars are backing Kirby Atterbury of the Caprice again this year in a repeat of a Bastille Day fireworks program next Tuesday.

WE UNDERSTAND that Al Louie who handles the kitchen at Black Point Inn is in San Rafael General Hospital, so it's very likely the restaurant will be closed for a few days—at least over this weekend. Better check by phone before making a trip out there for dinner. Bar and lounge will be open.

THOSE INTIMATE little side tables for two at La Petite Auberge along the wall always seem to give the effect of forbidden meetings arranged surreptitiously. I must ask sometime how the maitre d' can tell — or do the couples look that way because they've fallen into the spirit of the evening and the location?

Nine times out of 10, when my wife and I visit La Petite, our "special" table is that little one by the wishing well. It's smack dab out in the open and seems to carry the admonishment: "Beware how you order here in front of everyone. Choose your viands as well as you select the wine. Linger over both graciously." So maybe we toss a couple of coins in the fountain to show composure, and after that hope if anyone is looking over our shoulders they will see the fare, the vintage and the Crafts all properly matched in good taste and sophistication.

Fact of the matter is, when you're on a spot like this, you'll seldom go wrong by tuning your ear to suggestions from the house —as we did this last time, and thereby came out far away and ahead with a most delectible combination: Filet of sole with lobster sauce, Caesar salad deftly mixed from anchovies to croutons by Paul Devaux, and brochettes of medallion of veal wrapped in smoky bacon and served with Bernaise sauce, tomato, wild rice and artichoke hearts.

So far as the wine snobs are concerned, we probably flubbed here — carrying straight through the meal on the white burgundy at the fish course, instead of adding red—but it's being done every day.

A card this week from vacationing Pierre Grigaut and his wife placed them in Paris, where apparently they're torn between enjoying themselves and a slight case of homesickness for Marin.

A CHANGE of musicians in Pat Kelly's Combo at Nero's Room, Ignacio has brought in Jack Barnes with his electric stereo accordion, adding a completely new effect in dance sound, and Al Strong on bass.

Pat and his boys are there Friday and Saturday nights for the dance crowd and they'll play your favorite numbers by request. (They're also available for private dance parties.)

OPENING of the Emporium bodes well for the Lin Fa Restaurant (changed in name from Lin Fa Gardens) in the Northgate Shopping Center. True, it's in Unit One, while the Emporium is in Unit Two—but the walk's only an appetite stimulator.

Added attraction here on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights is Larry Wickersham playing one of the new Hammond Organs. He is a staff instructor at Sherman Clay.

PARTIES FOR YOUNGSTERS can be pepped up with the antics of Ho Ho, "The clown who is a woman." She is Mrs. Roberta Carlson of 45 Meriam Drive, San Rafael and has been doing this sort of thing several years.

ROLAND BOUDREAULT at Pandora objects to being described as "a young, blue-eyed Peter Lorre type."

Okay, Roland, so we'll make that "a Peter Lorre version of Maurice Chevalier." Anything to please.

The Golden Gate Bridge has the world's longest single span, [illegible]

Ford Backs LBJ —And Romney Too

DETROIT (UPI) — Industrialist Henry Ford II, a supporter of President Lyndon B. Johnson, yesterday endorsed Gov. George Romney for a second term.

Romney said "Naturally, I'm pleased" by the announcement. The endorsement came at a news conference Ford called to announce plans for a new stamping plant for this area. Romney was present.

Ford announced earlier he would support President Johnson for re-election. But he said Michigan needed a Republican after "14 years of union rule domination in the governor's mansion."

Guerrillas Hit Village With Gun, Motar Fire

KUCHING, Sprawak State, Malaysia (UPI)—A military spokesman said today Indonesian guerrillas "poured machine gun and mortar fire into a defenseless village" in Malaysian Borneo last night.

The spokesman said a woman was critically injured and a man slightly wounded. The attack was "the fifth Indonesian incursion during the past two weeks, the spokesman said.

Japan To Send Medical Supplies To Vietnam

TOKYO (UPI) — The Foreign Office decided today to send medical equipment and clothing worth about half a million dollars to South Vietnam in response to an American request to offer assistance to that war-torn Asian nation.

The initial shipment is expected to be dispatched to Saigon next week, foreign office sources said.

Red Chinese Leaders Tour Nation Next Door

RANGOON, Burma (UPI) — Chinese Communist Premier Chou En Lai and Foreign Minister Chen Yi arrived in neighboring Burma today less than a week after the departure of Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan.

It was believed to be Chou's first trip abroad since his voyage to Africa and Albania late last year and early this year.

Indonesia Starts Work On World Trade Center

JAKARTA (UPI) — Indonesian President Sukarno yesterday broke ground for the construction of a 29-story trade and travel center.

Some of the money for the project comes from Japanese war reparations. The building will include banks, travel bureaus, and offices for airlines and customs.

Federal, Commercial Power Tie-In Is California Need

An enactment needed by the Far West is legislation to establish and finance an inter-tie system to transmit electric power from Bonneville Dam, on the Columbia River, to public-owned, corporate public utilities and private electric systems in 11 Western states. It would deliver power to areas of growth from a generating center where now, millions of dollars go over the dam in the form of potential electricity that cannot be marketed.

Particularly is this need true in California, where fantastic population and industrial growth unceasingly demands more power. The long-discussed partnership between federal, municipal and public utility interests moved closer to reality recently when Interior Secretary Udall, after extended study by his Department, advised the Senate Appropriations Committee that such a project not only is feasible by could save taxpayers many millions while the taxes paid by California's investor-owned public utilities add materially to California's revenue. The Udall statement was surprising to many—but it is common sense.

Briefly, surplus power generated within Bonneville's capacity would be made available to Western states through a series of inter-tie transmission lines. Under one such transmission, available Bonneville power would be transmitted into California by an Oregon public utility. Pacific Gas & Electric Co. would build further lines, making the additional power available over its system. There would be extension to the south, with construction by Los Angeles' city-owned power system, Southern California Edison and San Diego Gas & Electric Company. Other lines would enter Southern California and Arizona fields by diverse routes.

Construction costs would be borne by the federal government and other users benefitted—including a number of rural power co-operative districts. Federal partnership with non-federal interests has been a cause of opposition.

After the House passed an authorization measure without specifying an appropriation, the matter has been in the Senate Finance Committee. At early hearings, this committee requested the Interior Department to make a study. Result is Secretary Udall's report that such a system is feasible; that it guarantees a saving of over $2.6 billion yearly, with public-owned customers getting the greater share of the benefit.

Assuming the Senate Appropriations Committee approves the measure after Udall's report, the issue goes to the Senate for vote. If favorable, House concurrence in appropriation will be in order.

Inasmuch as power that can be generated by Bonneville—paid for by all U.S. taxpayers—would relieve necessity for more power generation plants in California, early action would benefit all power producers.

Buckeyes Bloom; Bees Beware

The California Buckeyes seem to be outdoing themselves with their magnificent white blooms. These native trees produce a kind of inedible horse chestnut later in the year.

Buckeye blossoms are attractive to bees, but deadly. The nectar of the buckeyes is a bit like thalidomide. It doesn't harm the adult bees, but carried back to the hives and fed to the developing embryos it causes grotesque deformities.

However, we know some beekeepers who have kept bees in the vicinity of buckeye trees for years and are still in business. Perhaps, after all, a few deformed bees don't make a hive.

Lone Delegate To GOP Convention Bombarded With Voters' Demands

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

WITH THE REPUBLICAN National Convention opening Monday, William O. Weissich is the man of the hour now, as far as Marin is concerned.

As the lone Goldwater delegate from Marin County, and one of only three delegates from the entire First Congressional District, Weissich will be moving into the St. Francis this weekend with his wife, Rosemary.

Goldwater delegates are apparently being bombarded by letters and telegrams from both supporters and critics of Barry Goldwater.

DELEGATE WEISSICH says the letters and telegrams fall into two categories—from Goldwater backers who demand that he stick by Barry all the way; and from critics of the Arizona senator who write that if Goldwater is nominated, they will vote for Lyndon B. Johnson in November.

Delegates are also being bombarded by other requests; namely, tickets to get inside the convention floor. But you might as well give up. Finding space on the convention floor is almost a physical impossibility.

First of all, there are 1,308 delegates and 1,308 alternates, who will be on the floor most of the time. More than 10,000 applications were turned in for press credentials alone. The speakers' platform, press section, enormous grandstand for TV and newsreel cameras, the band stand, etc., all take up space.

WELL, THEN, how about a page boy or water boy job? California is allowed nine pages on the floor, and a few honorary assistant sergeant - at - arms posts. These, of course, are gobbled up by party stalwarts who have contributed heavily to the Republican cause. And so there will be very few if any tickets for the "public at large."

But because of the extensive press and TV coverage, John Q. Public won't be missing much, except for the satisfaction of being on the convention floor in person.

In fact, you'll probably see more via TV than you could if you elbowed your way into the floor for a first-hand glimpse over seomeone else's shoulder.

HOW DID THE Cow Palace get its name? Edward Diran, secretary-manager of the Cow Palace, says that is the question most often asked by visitors. Construction began in 1935 during the depression. A San Francisco newspaper complained that while people were being evicted from homes, "a palace is being built for cows." The headline writer made it Cow Palace, and the name stuck.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

"The way I see it, he's got the South, and if he gets a couple of key Northern states, Goldwater could win in November. Uh, how about another round, men?"

More On Assessing And Marin Revenue

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Answering Tuesday's letter by Gladys Ertman of Kentfield regarding taxation etc., we would like to set some things straight regarding assessment practices in Marin County. Taxpayers should remember that the reappraisal program in 1955 to 1958 was county wide and was made under the supervision of the State Board of Equalization. At that time their recommendation was that all improvements were to be appraised at their replacement cost less normal depreciation—and this entire reappraisal was on that basis. Mr. Broemmel ran for election on the platform backing up this reappraisal program 100 per cent. The taxpayers of Marin County elected him by a very substantial majority.

Mr. Broemmel started reappraising the county again on the basis of only approximately one-quarter of the county each year, starting with Sausalito and Southern Marin. At this time, however, the State Board of Equalization had altered its opinion of what constituted "market value" and agreed that market value should be based on what a property would sell for in the open market and therefore actual sales were used as a yardstick in making his appraisals from that date on.

The State Board of Equalization is backing Mr. Broemmel up in his appraising methods 100 per cent and the State of California Circuit Court of Appeals has rendered a decision stating that he was completely within his rights in appraising only a quarter of the county at a time and placing those valuations on the immediate assessment roll following the reappraisal.

The Board of Supervisors have no control whatever on the methods of assessing by the duly elected county assessor—all they can do is, while sitting as a local Board of Equalization, they can reduce any assessment (or raise it) that has been protested, providing the taxpayer filing the protest can cite instances where exactly similar properties have been assessed at a different value. That is the only basis upon which they are supposed to reduce an assessment figure made by the assessor, unless, of course, there is a palpable error contained in the assessment.

It is apparent that the taxpaying public in general know very little about taxation: For instance, if two properties are assessed at $200 and $100 respectively and the budget requirements are $24, it is simple to figure that it takes an $8 per hundred valuation to raise this amount. Now say these assessed values are raised to $400 and $200 respectively, theoretically a rate of $4, per $100 valuation would produce the same amount of needed revenue — in other words if all property is assessed upon the same basic yardstick then all would be paying their proper proportion of taxes, regardless of what the tax rate might be. In other words if the total property tax base is three hundred million dollars in Marin County and the needed revenue to cover all budgets is around twenty-four million dollars, it will take an $8 per $100 valuation to raise this revenue but if this property tax base is cut to two hundred million dollars then to raise this same needed revenue would require a tax value of $12 per $100 valuation. So it is quite apparent that the method or yardstick of appraisal is not important so long as all properties are appraised on the same basis.

You quite evidently are not aware, Mrs. Ertman, that there is already a county-wide taxpayers group here in Marin County that has been fighting against all unnecessary or unjust taxation, for a number of years—this is the Marin County Taxpayers Association. They have actually saved the taxpayers of Marin County over eighteen million dollars in the past five years by the defeat of three particular bond issues.

There is one way and one way only whereby this taxation problem can be solved and that is by a general gross transaction tax system being installed in place of the present outlandish and discriminatory property tax system, and is the only system that would reduce the total taxes paid by a home-owner by 50 per cent. When the taxpaying public wakes up to this fact and backs it up with memberships in our association, the sooner this problem will be taken care of.

'Blue Jay' Means All Azure Jays

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In your article "Blue Jays—Meat Eaters" could you be referring to the Scrub Jay (Calif. Jay)? The habitat of the Blue Jay is east of the Rocky Mountains and not likely to be seen in Calif.

The Scrub Jay with its rasping shreek can only be described as a noisy nuisance. It also has the diabolical habit of pecking out the eyes of baby quail.

Obviously the writer of this article has not had a look at other less bold birds in the woods or he would not call this feathered delinquent Marin's most handsome bird.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

NOW THAT those confounded experts are down to identifying people by numbers instead of names, Elliot Sharp tells about a convivial soul at the Hemisphere Club who introduced two men, explaining, "Number 435-11-9974, it's high time you met your fellow member, Number 632-7-091." The men shook hands warmly, and one said, "Mr. 632-7-091, where do you hail from originally?" "Dublin, Ireland," responded the other proudly. "Funny," mused the first man. "Your name doesn't sound Irish."

THE LATE Hesketh Pearson recalls an evening he spent with the George Bernard Shaws. While G.B.S. told one story after another, Mrs. Shaw sat silently doing needlepoint. "What are you working on so diligently?" whispered Pearson to Mrs. Shaw. "What difference does it make?" she whispered back. "It's just that I've heard these stories of his five hundred times, and if I didn't do something with my hands, I'D CHOKE HIM!"

GOP Civil Rights Plank Faces Task Of Spanning Serious Gap

SAN FRANCISCO — The GOP civil right plank is being fashioned here to bridge the gap between the Republican Party's strong support of the civil rights bill and Barry Goldwater's stern opposition. It is more gap than bridge.

It is easy to put words on paper which will appear as a tidy formula to conceal the deep differences between the Republican Party and its probable presidential nominee. But they won't stand up.

LET ME ILLUSTRATE:

The present intention of the platform-makers is to hail the passage of the civil rights law as an achievement for which the Republicans in Congress deserve prime credit. True, but it blandly skirts the fact that the probable nominee views the bill as a bad law, based on bad policy, which ought to have been defeated.

Another part of the proposed plank would wink slightly in the direction of Goldwater by remarking — just passingly — that "some doubts have been expressed about its constitutionality."

Whose view is going to prevail on this aspect of the plank—the Goldwater view that the law is unconstitutional or the dominant Republican view that it is constitutional?

TO HIS GREAT credit, Senator Goldwater has shown anxiety lest the presidential campaign stir up such racial tensions that they could get gravely out of hand. It is a fair fact that, despite his convictions that the new law is unwise and unconstitutional, Goldwater does not want the coming campaign to embroil the civil rights issue and make racial conciliation unattainable.

Goldwater is not a white supremacist at all. His work to reduce racial discrimination in Arizona has been constructive and courageous. But his position, that the protection of most civil rights must be left to the states to do as they wish, is profoundly encouraging to the white supremacists and to others who want to deny the vote and other rights to Negroes.

Consider how impossible these circumstances make it for the Republicans to write a straightforward civil rights plank and how difficult for Goldwater to make a persuasive case that he can be entrusted with implementing the new law.

THE PLATFORM can affirm and Goldwater can sincerely pledge that he will faithfully enforce it.

The problem is not to mount massive enforcement, but to promote the widest voluntary compliance. Here Goldwater has thrown away his credentials to appeal effectively for voluntary compliance, by saying that it is a bad law, unwise and unconstitutional.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Lodge's Vietnam Views Encouraging To Demos

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Republican campaign strategists, particularly Goldwater leaders, are studying intently a copy made available to them of the still-secret transcript of Henry Cabot Lodge's testimony at a closed meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

There is very good reason for this backstage GOP absorption and concern.

THE TRANSCRIPT explains why the former ambassador to South Vietnam has repeatedly expressed the belief that the Johnson administration's controversial policies there will not be a major campaign issue.

Throughout the lengthy session of blunt and pointed questioning by both Republican and Democratic committeemen, Lodge voiced unreserved approval of administration policies and support of them.

Similarly, he vigorously rejected the strongly advocated proposal to "carry the war to the north"—at this time.

In every respect Lodge's testimony directly and explicitly contradicts the views and arguments of leading Republicans assailing the administration's policies and record.

IT GOES WITHOUT saying the Democrats are jubilant.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (Ark.), chairman, questioned Lodge extensively on whether there had been any differences or disagreements between him and the administration. Fulbright's interrogation was manifestly carefully prepared to obtain a record for possible future use—such as the election campaign.

Fulbright: "In the months you spent in South Vietnam, did you at any time have any disagreements or disputes with authorities in Washington?"

Lodge: "No, I did not, at no time. I received full cooperation from the president and the State Department. There was never any strain or dissension between us."

Fulbright: "What about the Defense Department; did you have cooperation there?"

Lodge: "Yes, I did. I made certain recommendations and all were approved."

SEN. STROM Thurmond (D-S.C.), who has been sharply critical of some South Vietnam policies, questioned Lodge closely about extending the war to Communist North Vietnam.

The former ambassador voiced opposition to that, and supported the administration's course on this controversial issue. Seeking a more explicit answer, Senator Thurmond pressed Lodge for a categorical statement on "carrying the war to the north."

"I oppose that at this time," he replied. "The risks involved in escalating the war are far greater than in concentrating on building up the military and political strength of South Vietnam."

"DO YOU FEEL THAT something should be done about stopping the flow of Communist weapons and supplies into South Vietnam?"

"Measures should be taken to effectively close the Cambodian border," said Lodge. "That can be done in two ways; by setting up teams of United Nations observers and strengthening South Vietnam's border guards."

"What about the recent bombing of Communist gun positions and camps in Laos?"

"While that involved some risk," said Lodge, "I considered it necessary as a warning to the Pathet Lao and Red China that we mean business and will not tolerate continued provocation."

"The policies in effect in South Vietnam," Lodge declared, "are basically the same as those laid down by President Dwight D. Eisenhower and the late Secretary John Foster Dulles in 1954. There have been some adaptations to meet changing conditions and circumstances. But basically they are the same policies as those of Eisenhower and Dulles.

"It must by very clearly understood that this is not a situation where it is all win or all lose. This is a struggle to build up a weak and strife-torn country economically and politically in the midst of a desperate military struggle in that country. That is the great problem and test we are up against there."

The Country Parson

"Farming seemed like more fun when the crop you produced was going to be used for something other than filling a government bin."

10 YEARS AGO

The Tamalpais High School District board instructed Deputy Dist. Atty. Leland H. Jordan to file a complaint against a group of architects for a bill of $15,606, which the board considered excessive for plans for a boys locker and gymnasium at Tamalpais High School.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

Use Urban Renewal Method For Richardson Bay, Scribe Urges

RICHARDSON BAY is getting to be a pretty tiresome subject, but let's throw one more idea into the pot, although this one might make the whole thing explode.

Why has not anybody mentioned solving the Richardson Bay problem by using an urban renewal development project?

The idea is so obvious and so attractive that there must be something basically wrong with it, since no one is now pushing for such a project.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors in August will consider floating a million dollar bond issue to solve the problem of cleaning up the upper part of the bay and preserving the aspects of open water. Such a bond issue will require a two-thirds vote of the residents of Marin.

SUPERVISOR Peter H. Behr said the bonds would go before the voters in November, which would be just dandy for persons who want to work on a bond campaign.

All they will have to do is find the time when they are not working on campaigns for or against presidential candidates, supervisorial candidates, the anti-Rumford initiative, school finance, lotteries, park bonds and school district unification.

An urban renewal project could be put into effect by three votes on the board of supervisors.

If a bond issue is floated, or if other local tax money is raised somehow including use of a special tax on the flood control zone the county could qualify for various matching funds for open space, recreation and the preservation of fish and wildlife from the state and federal governments.

IF THE RENEWAL route is chosen, the federal government, on approval of the plans, would kick in two-thirds of the entire cost.

And the local contribution can be in the form of public improvements, such as a park, a street or a sewer line, many of which may be paid for by local special districts.

A man generally considered one of the nation's top experts on redevelopment was contacted while this column was being prepared. He thinks that the Richardson Bay area is a natural.

It qualifies as a blighted area on several grounds, not the least of which is that much of the privately owned land is under water. Waldo Point may be picturesque, but by golly it's also blighted.

Marinship within Sausalito could also be included although the Sausalito City Council would have to cooperate, and has shied away from doing so in the past.

THERE ARE STILL more angles. The redevelopment expert commented that the land, once taken over, may be retained, (as a park for instance), may be sold or may be leased. The sale and leasing could produce a real money maker for the county, with light industry, yacht harbors, motels and a convention center as a few possibilities.

Also, senior citizen housing could be included, especially if a referendum for low cost housing is approved for the elderly.

ALSO, THE AREA is just across the highway from Marin City, which is now in a financial mess. Richardson Bay could pull Marin City out of the doldrums, with money from the bay land leases or sales used for the contribution toward rebuilding of Manzanita School, for instance.

There are problems. Renewal is a long drawn-out project and a master plan, which takes time, must be devised for the development. Property owners will object, as will developers who do not like government mixed up in the land development business.

But the idea still deserves much more thought than it has received.

Campaign Years Are Mighty Hard Times For Family Relationships

WASHINGTON — Election years are very tough on the American public, and great cause for bitterness. People you thought you could trust turn out to be bigoted, stupid, narrow-minded and uninformed. Friends turn against friends, fathers turn against sons, daughter turn against their mothers.

This particular election year should be one of the bitterest of all, if our own family is any example.

OUR UNCLE LEO isn't talking to Uncle Charlie since he found out Uncle Charlie was for Goldwater. Uncle Leo says that Uncle Charlie wants to get us into a war. Uncle Charlie has denied the charge and says he is for fiscal responsibility, and he suspects that Uncle Leo is a socialist. Uncle Leo says Uncle Charlie's probably a Bircher.

In the meantime, Cousin Sarah refuses to invite Uncle Leo over to her house because Uncle Leo is mad at Eisenhower for not speaking out against Goldwater. Cousin Sarah is not for Goldwater but she feels Uncle Leo should have more respect for Eisenhower. Sarah's husband, on the other hand, is mad at Uncle Charlie because he claims Uncle Charlie shoots from the hip and doesn't think things through.

Aunt Pauline happens to be for Rockefeller and got into a big fight with Aunt Ruth because Aunt Ruth said Rockefeller drove the Republicans into the Goldwater camp by getting a divorce. Aunt Pauline says that Aunt Ruth has a narrow mind about politics and should keep her big mouth shut.

UNCLE SIDNEY has been banned from Aunt Molly's house because, although Uncle Sidney is a registered Republican, he announced at the family Fourth of July picnic that he was going to vote for President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Aunt Molly called him a carpetbagger. Uncle Sidney told Aunt Molly she didn't even know what the word carpetbagger meant, so Aunt Molly said he couldn't come into her house.

In the meantime at the same Fourth of July party, Uncle Charlie announced that if Johnson won the election in November, he was moving to Canada. Uncle Leo said he'd give him a farewell party, which didn't go over very big with Uncle Charlie, who didn't think anyone would take him up on it.

TO MAKE matters worse, Aunt Augusta said she wasn't going to invite Uncle Lou and Aunt Stella to Cousin Alice's wedding because Uncle Lou wants Bobby Kennedy for vice president. Aunt Stella is furious because she invited Aunt Augusta to her daughter's wedding even though Aunt Augusta voted for Nixon.

There is a small pro-Scranton group in the family but they haven't picked up any supporters since Scranton announced he was going to run.

AND WE'RE ALL MAD at Cousin Marvin because he paid a hundred dollars to go to a fund-raising dinner for President Johnson, when he owes everone in the family money.

Cousin Marvin said if he hadn't gone to the dinner he would have lost his job with the government.

And so it goes. The next few months are going to be tough ones for our family, as they probably will for families all over the country. It is probably the only time in our lives when water is thicker than blood.

Skipper Faces Bleak Future At Canadian Park

TORONTO (AP)—Chuckie Joe, a battered old scow skippered by owner Ken Sinclair, is one of the last remnants of Toronto Island's once-thriving business life.

Chuckie Joe plows the water between the city and the island carrying essentials to the dwindling island population.

Sinclair's Island Freight Company is a haulage contractor, beer deliverer, house mover and sole source of oil delivery during winter.

Once a tool designer, Sinclair quit the drawing board in favor of the island's open air. Now he is philosophically awaiting the time when there will be no one left on the island to serve.

Metropolitan Toronto is gradually razing the homes of island residents in order to turn it into a park. In 1952, the first 638 leases were terminated and since then houses have been acquired in piecemeal fashion reducing the year-round population from 2,500 to 1,200.

Soon the island's three remaining businesses, a boat builder, a grocery and Island Freight, will have folded. The gruff owner of Island Freight will be the last to go. "After it's all gone," he says, "I'll still be here."

Postman Makes Final Delivery

HAWESVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The day before he retired, Arthur Webb, a rural mail carrier, sent the following postal card to all families on his route:

"Dear Patron: It has been a wonderful experience to serve such a fine and loyal group of people. I have rejoiced with many of you when you received letters from loved ones away from home. I have sorrowed when some received letters of bad news. I have anticipated with you that long awaited letter that never came. When I made mistakes your understanding carried me on. May the years ahead bring you and your families much joy and peace."

Wealthy Treasury Deepens U.S. Debt

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — With unexpected cash in hand the U.S. Treasury is indulging in one of its favorite gambits — extending the federal debt. It rarely has a good chance to do this as it has today.

The government will end up owing just as much, and probably more. But the date of payment on at least part of this debt will be pushed back. This is a long-time dream of the department chiefs who are plagued by the need to refund a continuously maturing debt. At times that can be pretty cramping.

The Treasury now has 2 billion dollars more cash in hand than it had expected — 10 billion all together—thanks to cuts in spending and increased tax receipts from a prospering economy.

It had thought it would have to raise 9 billion dollars more cash before the end of the year. Now it may need to borrow only 7 billion dollars to pay the bills before the tax receipts flow in greater volume in the early months of 1965.

The Treasury proposes for a while at least to get the needed cash $100 million at a time by increasing its weekly offering of short-term bills. Congress made room for all this by raising the legal limit on the federal debt to 324 billion dollars for one year. At present it's 312.6 billion.

It's the long-term bonds, not the bills, that cause the headache by maturing at times that may be less than convenient to the Treasury and perhaps upsetting to the rest of the money market. A big maturing issue can thwart plans to regulate interest rates and determine the ease or tightness of credit.

So now the Treasury is offering to refund in advance of maturity a record 41.7 billion dollars of such securities. Of the nine issues involved, 23.6 billion are held by private investors and the rest by Federal Reserve banks and other official holders.

How successful the offering will be is up to the holders. But the hope is that a substantial amount of these notes and bonds due anywhere from next month to February 1967, will be exchanged for three issues of bonds maturing from 1969 to 1992. Interest ranges from 4 per cent to 4¼ per cent.

That will give the Treasury more elbow room in managing the debt, even though the interest charges will be higher.

All-Time Record Earnings At RCA For Last Quarter

Earnings of the Radio Corp. of America during the second quarter of 1964 are reported to have increased 32 per cent over the same quarter last year, to establish an all-time record for the period.

Operating profits after taxes were $16,000,000, compared to $12,100,000 last year.

RCA's operating earnings for the first six months of 1964 also established a record for the period, rising 28 per cent above the first half of 1963. Operating earnings for the period were $37,600,000, as against last year's total of $29,400,000. Sales for the six-month period were up about 2 per cent over the total for the 1963 first half.

Operating earnings per common share for the first half of 1964 were 69 cents after taxes, compared to 53 cents last year. Per share earnings for the second quarter of 1964 were 29 cents, compared to last year's 21 cents.

Stock Market Closes Higher On Good Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher today on a good rally.

Trading was active near the final bell.

The strength of the advance diminished somewhat late in the afternoon as profit-taking developed.

Motors led the march and strength spread to other groups.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.6 million shares, compared with 5.07 million yesterday.

The motors' strength spread to other groups and the market appeared headed for another all-time high.

Brokers said the interest in motors stemmed from belief that the industry will have excellent earnings in the second and fourth quarters and that a strike may be avoided.

General Motors hit a record high of 92⅛ and then eased back a bit.

Chrysler equaled its 1964 high at 52.

Ford, announcing plans for a new 90-million-dollar plant in anticipation of higher sales, increased its gain to almost a point. American Motors and Studebaker gained fractionally.

Advances of about a point were made by Sears Roebuck, International Harvester, Zenith and IBM.

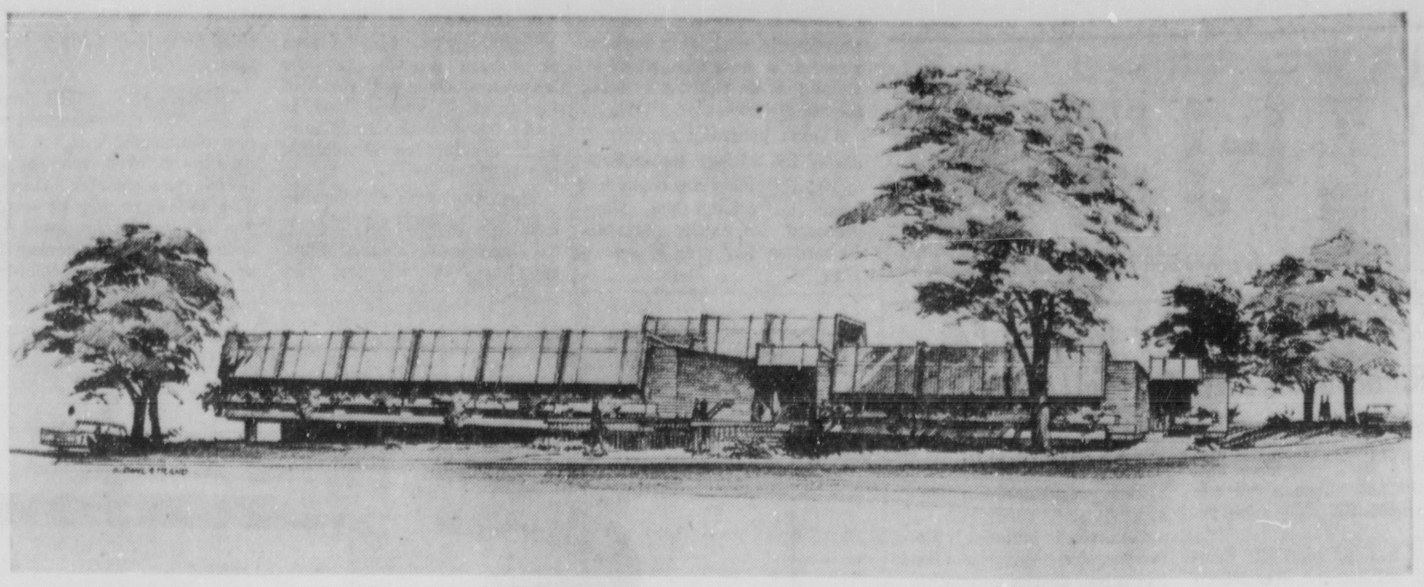
U.S. Smelting spurted more than three points and Phelps Dodge and Du Pont were up more than two.

Prices advanced in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and government bonds were mixed.

Bank Purchases Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO — A Bank of America underwriting syndicate has purchased the $1,470,000 public improvement bond issue of the County of Kauai, Hawaii.



DENTAL COMPLEX FOR NORTHGATE—This 10-suite Northgate Dental Building, designed by architects Neill Smith and Associates and to be constructed by D. M. Christensen Construction Co., is due for completion late this year. Elevated above the ground on piers to allow for parking, the building will present an unusual "floating" appearance. A second building to be erected later at the Northgate Shopping Center entrance will have a similar design.

Unified Building In Northgate Will Offer Space For 10 Dental Offices

A professional center to be known as the Northgate Dental Building, due for completion this year, will be constructed at Northgate Drive and Manuel T. Freitas Parkway.

Designed to accommodate 10 dental suites laid out to the specific needs of tenants, the center is one of two buildings which will be constructed by the D. M. Christensen Construction Co. at the entrance to the Northgate Shopping Center.

The structure will be of reinforced concrete and brick, with offices arranged around an inner court landscaped as a garden and patio area and providing entrances to the individual suites.

A private balcony will adjoin each suite. Offices will be sound-isolated and air conditioned, and fitted for the use of gas, oxygen and compressed air. A sub-surface garage will provide parking requirements of the building. On one side, a level entrance will allow access to the offices for wheel chair patients.

The building is expected to be ready for occupancy by late fall. Leasing, handled by Redwood Realtors, is 60-per cent completed.

Starting date of the second building has not yet been determined. It is planned to house a financal institution and title company on the first floor and professional offices above. Its design will correlate with the Northgate Dental Building.

Firm's Assets Rise

BERKELEY — Fidelity Savings and Loan Assn. total assets rose to $60,491,793 from $58,015,120 in the six months ended June 30, president A. C. Meyer Jr. has announced.

Champagne Tony Wins British Open

Independent-Journal Sports

Friday, July 10, 1964 13

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Champagne Tony Lema beat off a great challenge from Jack Nicklaus and won the British Open Golf Championship with a near-record total of 279 today as the two Americans tore the hallowed St. Andrews Old Course apart.

Lema, refusing to crack as Nicklaus had the greatest day in St. Andrews history, responded with a four-under-par 68 and a 70 on the final pressure-packed day.

It gave the 30-year-old San Leandro, Calif., ace a five-stroke margin over the 24-year-old Ohio Golden Boy.

Nicklaus fired a course record —equaling 66 in the morning round and a 68 in the afternoon, for 284. Never before had St. Andrews been treated to such indignities.

Neither Lema nor Nicklaus had ever seen the St. Andrews course, the birthplace of golf, before Monday, and Lema had never played in Britain before.

This was the first major golf title for Lema, who won three U.S. tournaments last month with a putter borrowed from Arnold Palmer. Lema used the borrowed putter here, and also had Palmer's old caddy.

Lema was the 11th American to win the British Open, dating back to Jock Hutchinson in 1921.

The others were Walter Hagen, Jim Barnes, Bobby Jones, Tommy Armour, Gene Sarazen, Denny Shute, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan and Palmer, who won in 1961 and 1962.

Palmer did not enter this year. Nicklaus has never won this title, the only big one he has missed.

Champagne Tony, after rounds of 73 and 68, started the final day at 141, three under par and two strokes ahead of Harry Weetman, long-hitting Englishman.

Nicklaus was nine strokes behind, after a 76 and a 74 Wednesday and Thursday—days when the winds were so strong they almost blew the players down.

The winds started again today, but soon began to die down. A bright sun shone and there was almost perfect golfing weather.

Nicklaus banged out his 66, and at one stage had closed to within one stroke of Lema, who was playing behind.

"I heard Jack was five under par," Lema said, "and there I was, three over fours."

Lema promptly parred the sixth hole, and then shot five straight threes . . . three of them birdies ... on holes seven through eleven.

In the afternoon, with Nicklaus again playing beautifully ahead of him, Lema shot the seventh, eight and ninth 3-3-3.

That ended the struggle, although Nicklaus kept right on going. On the 18th, big Jack put his drive in the valley of sin, the huge depression in front of the 381-yard hole, putted it out to within six feet and ran in the putt for a birdie three.

Lema poked along behind, confident he had won. He parred hole after hole until the Road Hole, the 17th, when he lost a stroke to par. He still had a four-stroke lead, and needed only a seven on the last hole to win.

He drove short of the depression, and was surrounded by 10,000 golf fans. It took some time to quiet the crowd, and then Lema pulled out the trusty seven iron and ran the ball to within 18 inches of the cup.

He stroked the putt in for a birdie three and the title.

Robert De Vicenzo of Argentina put together a 67, including six threes, in the final round of 285—one back of Nicklaus.

CAL CREW SWEEPS INTO OLYMPIC TRIAL FINALS

NEW YORK (AP)—California, Yale, Philadelphia's Vesper Boat Club and Harvard gained the final of the Olympic eight-oared trials today. The United States crew to compete in the Tokyo Games will be determined tomorrow.

California and the Vesper team won their semi-final heats today, the unbeaten Golden Bears of the West Coast beating a stubborn Yale crew by a half-length in 6 minutes, 12.7 seconds.

The Vesper eight defeated the previously unbeaten Harvard crew handily, turning in a time of 6:6.6 for the Olympic distance of 2,000 meters—about 1¼ miles — on placid Orchard Beach Lagoon.

Semifinals, first two crews qualify for finals:

Heat 1-1, California 6:12.7. 2, Yale, 6:14.7. 3, Detroit B.C., 6:18.7. 4, Washington varsity, 6:20.5.

Heat 2-1, Vesper B.C., 6:06.2. 2, Harvard 6:14.1; 3, Laconia Rowing Association "A," 6:17.8; 4, Washington junior varsity, 6:21.8.

Sanford Out Indefinitely; Perry Is 'In'

CHICAGO (AP)—Rangy relief star Gaylord Perry suddenly was spotlighted today as a potential regular starter for the San Francisco Giants, who may have lost veteran Jack Sanford indefinitely.

Long-ailing Sanford's struggle to keep starter status received a sharp setback yesterday when his pitching arm went numb in the second inning of an eventual 9-4 Giant spanking of the Chicago Cubs.

Sanford flew to San Francisco last night for a thorough examination of his right arm which was reported afflicted by impaired circulation.

Perry, 6-foot-4 righthander, replaced Sanford and just missed finishing a notable rescue job for his seventh verdict against four defeats.

Perry struck out seven and had the Cubs well checked until the ninth when a single, a walk and Ron Santo's two-run double brought in Bob Shaw, who retired the final Cub batter.

Giant manager Al Dark, with only Juan Marichal, 11-4; ex-Brave Bob Hendley, 8-5, and rookie Ron Herbel, 7-4, as hurlers with more than 10 starts to date, was cautious about pinning a regular starter tag on 25-year-old Perry.

"All I can say is that Perry will start Tuesday night against the Braves in Milwaukee," said the Giant pilot. "I cannot comment beyond that."

Perry has had two previous starts—losing to Pittsburgh 9-2 on May 5 after posting a 2-0 relief record dand blanking the New York Mets 5-0 on June 30. Last year, he had a 1-6 mark in 31 appearances.

Sanford has been heavy-armed all season. He made his 17th start against the Cubs yesterday, but puts his ailing flipper under doctor's scrutiny today with a record of only three complete games and a 5-7 record.

This compares with Sanford's 16-13 mark last year and 24-7 in the Giants' 1962 pennant-winning season.

Dark shows no apparent concern for the pitching status of his power-packed Giants, commenting:

"I don't know exactly what's wrong with Sanford. He has come to me four or five times before saying his arm hurt, but he didn't know why.

"The way Herbel and Perry have come through, I feel we have enough pitching depth. I have no complaint about our pitching. Coach Larry Jansen has my pitching going great."

Giants Must Play Majority Of Remaining Games On The Road

CONNOLLY

You may not agree, but the word SCRAMBLE best describes the National League pennant race as the second half gets off to a blistering start.

Any one of the first five or six clubs that builds up a sizeable winning streak could move into contention and any one of the top teams that hits a losing streak could fizzle itself right out of the fight.

The daffy schedule seems to have played a dirty trick on the Giants. They have many, many more games away from home in the second half than you'd expect. Roughly seven out of every eleven games they play is on foreign soil. And that "ain't good." The team that plays its toughest games in its home park naturally rates an edge.

But because of weather conditions in the early part of the season, and airplane economy, the schedule had to be jockeyed to keep the best team in the west early in the race and make the western teams play east in the second half.

It is difficult to try and arrange a schedule to give teams a short plane jump and thus reduce expenses, so that is why so many of the teams seems to have repeat series, almost one after another. However the schedule makers were able so far to keep the best teams meeting each other under favorable weather conditions, so in that way they console themselves.

THE GIANTS' longest competition in the second half is with Houston. Eleven games remain with five in S.F. and the balance in Houston's sticky, murky weather.

Chicago, Milwaukee, and Philadelphia each have nine more games with S.F. The Cubs have four in S.F.; the Braves and Phils three apiece. L.A. has eight games, only two of which are in S.F. Pittsburgh and N.Y. have seven more raps at the Giants with Cincy Reds and St. Louis six games each.

Before we know it the home stretch could be here and it could happen hurriedly for the Giants if they don't hurry up and start playing heads up baseball.

SO FAR the Candlstick "dunces" are a striking example of a rambling wreck, looking bad one day and sharp the next. next. There is no explanation for it, according to Manager Al Dark. Maybe there isn't anything he can do about it but from this vantage point it seems like the tail is wagging the dog.

It may be a lopsided way of looking at it, but I'm of the firm conviction that pitcher Jack Sanford is either a basket case or he isn't.

And if they say he has circulatory trouble, why try and let him pitch? Sanford and the Giant management should make up their minds whether he pitches or plays tiddle-wink in a hospital. Nobody wants an ailing pitcher to pitch, but it seems like nobody is sure whether his ailment is severe enough to sideline him.

AND IN the case of Sanford the matter should be settled now, for once and all.

In addition to the ailment of Sanford, the biggest trouble with all Giant players might be called "FENCE-I-TIS." They all want to hit home runs—they're all trying to be generals instead of privates and no army can march to victory without a few non-coms in the regiment.

Tie In Women's Nat'l Open; American Eagle Wins Again

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- Three-time champion Mickey Wright, Marlene Bauer Hagge and newcomer Shirley Englehorn shot two-under par 71s for a three-way tie yesterday as par proved elusive in the first round of the Women's National Open Golf Championship.

Playing the 6,376-yard, par 36-37—73 San Diego Country Club course under sunny skies, home town favorite Miss Wright, who has played the layout innumerable times, made the trip in 35-36 in what she called her finest competitive round here.

Mrs. Hagge, who started as a youngster in golf in Long Beach, shot 34-37, and Miss Englehorn, 23, an attractive lass who teaches golf in the winter in Los Angeles, had 37-34.

Only five of the 53 starters broke par and among the major casualties was the defending champion, Mary Mill of Gulf Hills, Miss., who soared to 38-41—79.

American Eagle Wins

NEW PORT, R.I. (AP)—Undefeated American Eagle was on the sidelines today as the observation trials for America's Cup candidates continued with Constellation meeting Columbia and Easterner battling Nefertiti.

American Eagle kept her record unblemished yesterday, scoring her second straight victory in the observation trials and her ninth over-all by beating Easterner by 2 minutes, 27 seconds.

Constellation also won her second straight in the trials, whipping Nefertiti by 1 minute, 32 seconds over a 20.7-mile triangular course on Rhode Island Sound. It was Nefertiti's first start in the current series.

Columbia was idle.

Littler Leads Field

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—Gene Littler sank three birdie putts on rain-soaked greens and took a two-point lead over National Open Champion Ken Venturi in the opening rounds of the mathematical Wykagyl Round-Robin Golf Tournament yesterday.

The 1961 Open winner from San Diego shot a 36-34—70 over the par 37-35—72 Wykagyl course and picked up 12-plus points in this unique match play, man-to-man event.

Venturi flashing some of the same kind of golf he fired in last month's U.S. Open Championship at Washington, D.C., also had a 70 and finished with 10 plus points.

Behind the two leaders came Miller Barber with plus seven points, followed by Johnny Potts, plus six; Fred Hawkins, plus four, and Dave Marr, plus two.

Patterson Now No. 2

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson, the former heavyweight champion from New York, was named Fighter of the Month today by Ring Magazine for his 12-round decision over contender Eddie Machen of Los Angeles at Stockholm last Sunday.

In addition, Patterson was boosted from seventh contender to the No. 2 spot in the July ratings by Ring. Machen was dropped from fourth to seventh. Doug Jones of New York, who was second, was demoted to fourth because of inactivity. Sonny Liston, the former champion from Denver, is No. 1, and Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., is fourth.

At the turn of the century, an average cow produced 3,600 pounds of milk a year. In 1963, the U.S. average was 7,545 pounds.

Aussies Davis Cup Stars Reinstated

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — The Lawn Tennis Assn. of Australia lifted its ban on Wimbledon champion Roy Emerson and runner-up Fred Stolle brightening Australia's hope of regaining the Davis Cup.

Emerson will play for Australia in the Davis Cup match against Canada in Montreal later this month. Stolle, however, will not be included in the team for that match because his name was not submitted to the Canadian Assn. within the required 10-day limit for the naming of the Davis Cup team.

The LTAA meeting was held in committee but an official statement issued after it by President Norman W. Strange showed there was some opposition to removal of the ban. Two motions placing conditions on lifting the ban were defeated before the meeting finally carried this motion:

"Subject to each player giving an unqualified promise to remain in Australia from Oct. 1, 1964 to Feb. 28, 1965 the ban will be lifted in respect of such players."

Emerson and Stolle had been suspended because they participated in foreign tournaments before March 1 without permission.

KTIM TO AIR LI'L LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Mill Valley Little League championship game between the Realtors of the National League and the Eaglets of the American League will be broadcast on KTIM tomorrow live from Boyle Park.

Handling the play-by-play will be John Pagliaro and Joe Behm, with a pre-game show starting at 12:50 p.m. The game will start at 1 p.m.

Top 49er Rookies To Report Early

The San Francisco 49ers said today that their top draft choices would work out with the Prospectors' coaching staff next week.

Number one pick Dave Parks from Texas Tech, number two choice George Mira of Miami and possibly number three selection Dave Wilcox of Oregon will work out at the team's Redwood City training camp prior to heading east for the College All-Star battle with the Chicago Bears.

Mira, a 185-pound signal-caller, arrived yesterday with his wife after a leisurely cross-country sight-seeing tour.

Mira discussed the recent All-American game at Buffalo two weeks ago where he was named the outstanding performer.

"That was definitely the biggest team I've ever played against," he said. "Those linemen were huge. They had size and weight both."

"But I didn't have any trouble throwing over them," he said. Statistics bore him out. He hit 21 of 40 passes for 306 yards.

Mira continued, "I'm really looking forward to playing pro ball. It will be a real challenge. The pros are all fine athletes or they wouldn't be here."

Marin Sailor In America Cup Test

Warrick Thompkins, a member of the Sausalito Yacht Club, moved into the international yachting scene this week as a crewman aboard Nefertiti which made her start in the America's Cup trials yesterday at Newport, R.I.

Being in this yacht classic is not a new thing for Thompkins. In 1958 he was a member of the crew on Weatherly in the trials but she lost out to Columbia which went on to beat Sceptre, the English challenger, for the Cup.

Weatherly did make it for the challenge round in 1962 and went on to defeat Gretel, the Australian challenger. Thompkins was not aboard Weatherly that year, however.

As he did aboard Weatherly, Thompkins, 32, is in charge of the foredeck on Nefertiti, handling the spinnaker and jib. Nefertiti is one of five 12-meter yachts competing for the right to defend the cup against the English challenge. The other United States hopefuls are Constellation, Easterner, American Eagle and Columbia.

"COMMODORE"

Thompkins, nicknamed "Commodore," grew up in Boston and came from sea-loving parents so was aboard a boat of some kind much of his young life.

Six years ago he married Janet Mosure of Santa Rosa, a gal who had done a lot of sailing herself.

Last month Thompkins joined Nefertiti's crew at Long Island Sound where preliminary trials were held June 8 through 13. American Eagle won the prelims with five straight victories.

Mrs. Thompkins, meanwhile, has been working for the welfare department in Richmond. She was staying at the home of some friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walters of 70 Windsor Avenue in San Rafael, for a while, but now is staying with friends in San Francisco.

"When my husband comes back we hope to find a place in Marin," she said.

Thompkins will be one of a 12-man crew on Nefertiti. The racing committee is considering chopping the crew limit to 11, but 12 was the number used by Weatherly in the 1962 challenge race, with 4 additional sailors used as "spares."

Terrell 5-2 Pick In TV Bout Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Ernie Terrell, like every other heavyweight contender, would like to get the next shot at heavyweight champion Cassius Clay. But the gangling Chicago boxer said today he'd settle happily right now for a crack at ex-champion Floyd Patterson.

The No. 3 contender, meanwhile, will risk his chances for advancement tonight when he faces light heavyweight contender Bob Foster of Washington, D.C., in the 10-round television fight at Madison Square Garden. (ABC-TV, Channel 7, 10 o'clock, PDT).

Winner of 10 straight, the 206-pound, 25-year-old Terrell is rated a 5-2 favorite over the 181-pound Foster, who has won three straight by knockouts.

Terrell's winning streak includes conquests of contenders Cleveland Williams and Zora Folley. His record is 33-4, including 16 knockouts.

Foster has a 14-2 record, including 10 knockouts. He was knocked out in the eighth round 21 months ago by Doug Jones, now the No. 1 heavyweight contender.

Front-Running Phils Find Another Way To Beat You

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

When All-Star hero Johnny Callison said "It's gotta be a Phillies year" he didn't mean the National League leaders were ready to sit back and wait for the breaks.

His manager, Gene Mauch, emphasized the point when he added, "If we can't beat you one way, we'll beat you another."

Callison won the All-Star game Tuesday with a three-run ninth inning homer, but he kept the Phillies 1½ games ahead of the Giants last night with a pin-point throw from right field to home plate.

Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the sixth inning off Cincinnati's John Tsitouris to take a 4-2 edge going into the seventh when Callison provided the turning point. Phillies starter Ray Culp issued a walk and rookie third baseman Richie Allen committed a two-base error on Frank Robinson's grounder, putting Reds on second and third with two out.

Deron Johnson rifled a single to right scoring one run, but Callison charged the ball and threw a strike on the run to the plate to nail Robinson, who was carrying the tying run.

Reliever Jack Baldschun shut out the Reds on one hit over the final two innings to give the Phillies a 4-3 decision. Clay Dalrymple accounted for two of the Philadelphia runs, one on his third homer of the season. John Edwards connected for the Reds.

Willie Mays and Willie McCovey helped the Giants keep pace by slamming home runs in San Francisco's 9-4 verdict over the Cubs and the world champion Dodgers sank 11 games behind by blowing a 5-2 lead with two out in the ninth inning to the Houston Colts, losing 6-5.

In other National League games the Braves downed the Pirates 11-6 and the Mets upset the Cardinals 4-3.

A year ago the pennant-bound Dodgers only needed to call on reliever Ron Perranoski and their worries were over. But this is another year.

Perranoski came in to face the weak-hitting Colts with one out and the bases loaded in the ninth. After getting a force play at the plate, he yielded a walk to John Bateman, an infield single to Al Spangler and Nellie Fox's two-run single which plated the tying and winning run. The loss was the fourth for Perranoski—one more than he had all last year when he had a 16-3 mark.

Ancient Warren Spahn (6-8) finding the victories tougher and tougher to get, won his first game in a month but failed to go the distance for the 11th straight time. He was chased by the Pirates after giving up six runs in six innings, including homers by Bill Mazeroski and Gene Alley. The Braves had staked Spahn to eight runs in the first two innings. Lee Maye drove in four Milwaukee runs with three hits and Eddie Mathews added a homer.

Frank Thomas, making his first appearance in 28 games, hit a two-run pinch hit homer off Curt Simmons with two out in the ninth inning to provide the Mets victory. Thomas had been sidelined with a gland infectiin since May 31 and had not taken batting practice until last night.

An Unexpected Bonus For Cal Dove Hunters

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California dove hunters received an unexpected bonus today in the form of a probable increase in limits for the 1964 season.

The U.S. Interior Department's announcement from Washington of basic seasons for several bird species included the raising of mourning dove limits from 10 bagged and 20 in possession to 12 and 24 respectively. The 10 and 20 limits have been in effect for years.

The increased limits still must be approved by the California Fish and Game Commission. It must set the regulations within 10 days.

POPULATION BOOM

The increased limits were made possible due to a boom in the dove population. The State Fish and Game Department said dove numbers were up 21 per cent on the West Coast.

Ben Glading, the department's game management chief, added that past California dove hunting "has barely scratched the surface of the population."

Glading speculated the commission probably would set the Northern California dove opener on Sept. 1 and the Southern California opener of Sept. 5. The seasons would run around 30 days.

Marin Softballers Lose Double Bill

The Sohner Tree Service softball team dropped a doubleheader to Parkside Misracks of San Francisco, an entry in the state tournament next month, 1-0 and 5-3 in S.F. yesterday.

An unearned run in the bottom of the seventh was good for the 1-0 victory in the first game. Winning pitcher Don Snyder and loser Earl Lowe of Sohners each hurled three-hitters.

Lou Perazzo suffered the loss in the nightcap for the Treemen, and Dave Hughes sparked the Sohner attack with a pair of singles.

Hart Shows Heart; A Great Comeback

CHICAGO (AP) — Jimmy Hart—pronounced heart—may wind up with the comeback-of-the-year award as well as rookie-of-the-year honors in the National League.

The young third baseman was almost knocked out of baseball last year when he was hit twice by pitches in his first seven major league games. A number of observers predicted he'd never be the same.

But Hart is currently vindicating the faith shown in him by the San Francisco Giants by batting at a lusty clip at a time when the power-laded Giants lineup is hitting below par.

In San Francisco's last 16 games, Hart averaged .409 with 25 safeties in 65 at bats. His hit total for the span includes four homers, a triple and three doubles. He's scored 11 runs and batted across eight.

Hart's hot bat was very much in evidence yesterday when the Giants rocked the Chicago Cubs 9-4 to remain within 1½ games of the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies.

The victory was the Giants' second straight over the Cubs after Chicago won the opener of their five-game series.

FOUR FOR FIVE

Hart contributed four singles in five at bats to San Francisco's 16-hit attack against five Cub pitchers. The rookie also scored two runs and drove in one.

It marked the third time in the last 16 games Hart has had four hits in a game. Yesterday's output raised his average to .282.

Veteran right-hander Larry Jackson, an old Giants nemesis, was no match for San Francisco as the Giants clipped him for nine hits and six earned runs in 4⅓ innings.

Willie Mays led the onslaught by hitting his 25th homer of the season in the first inning with none aboard. The Giants added two in the second on singles by Hart, Tom Haller and pitcher Jack Sanford's single sandwiched around throwing errors by catcher Dick Bartell and Billy Cowan.

The Giants splurged for three runs in both the fifth and sixth innings to put the game out of reach. Big blow during the sixth inning uprising was Willie McCovey's two-run homer, his 12th.

Marin MAGAZINE
Bright reading for the whole week

Featured this Saturday:

Marin County numbers among its residents the young president of the Bay Area's first complete film production company. Kentfield's Bruce Campbell heads Independent Producers Associated Inc., a young but growing firm with numerous projects under way and ambitious plans for the future. The story of Bruce Campbell and IPA is featured in tomorrow's I-J Marin Magazine.

A number of young Marinites are enjoying ranch life this summer. They're the lucky visitors to the El Adobe Jr. Guest Ranch, operated by Novato couple Reno and Babe Pronzini in Sonoma County just across the Petaluma River from Marin. I-J reporter-photographer Theron Newell gives you a full report on this interesting vacation spot in tomorrow's weekend supplement.

Two of Marin's most colorful cultural events of the summer are on hand again. Tomorrow, folk dancing enthusiasts will gather from throughout Northern California for the annual Marin Folk Dance Festival. And next Wednesday night, the 1964 Marin Shakespeare Festival gets under way. These two festivals provide the impetus for separate feature stories in the Marin Magazine tomorrow.

Marin's own magazine . . . picturing and reporting life in Marin today . . . personalities, recreation, coming events, book reviews, gardening, music, home improvement, weekly TV log. A week of good reading. Look for it, Saturdays.

Recipes For Salmon And Abalone; Pickled Trimmings Mighty Tasty

STEVENS

In case you have a surplus of fresh salmon in your refrigerator or freezer, and you'd like some tips on canning some for future use, or would like a list of 30 ways to prepare for the table, I still have on hand such lists. Send a self-addressed and stamped envelope to me. I'll return the list.

I know that a good many of my readers have, or will have, an over-supply of abalone, what with the minus tides this week, and I'm wondering how many of you realize that the parts of abalones that you trim off before pounding can make a mighty tasty dish of pickled trimmings. Want to try it? Just wash off the black substance, boil for 90 minutes. While boiling, prepare a pint of liquid consisting of one-third oil, two-thirds vinegar. Salt and pepper to taste. Add small chopped onion, two kernels garlic, chopped fine, and two or three bay leaves. (This amount of liquid will handle four abalone trimmings.) After trimmings have been boiled, remove from fire, drain and allow to cool. When cool, place in liquid for one-half hour. Then they are ready to eat. The above recipe was given me by "Frenchy" Levigne, and it's a good one.

GUESS I might as well add another recipe that is a humdinger. Abalone Soup. Here's how: Clean one large abalone and pound to a very soft pulp. Place in kettle; add two cups COLD water. Bring to boil over slow fire, stirring often. Now add two cups undiluted condensed milk or two cups fresh milk. Bring again to a boil. Make a thickening of one heaping teaspoon of flour and water to make a thin, smooth paste. Add to soup while stirring constantly. Add a lump of butter size of walnut. Remove from fire and salt and pepper to taste, but DO NOT ADD SALT until kettle has been removed from heat, or it may curdle. This very fine recipe furnished by Mrs. Spiro E. Milisich of Oakland.

THE PRESENT minus tides don't make for good fishing in the upper San Pablo where only late evening trolling is paying off, but should activate bass trolling, drift fishing or live bait angling in the entire S.F. and Lower Bay areas. As this is being written limit catches of sizable stripers are being landed in the above areas.

Mrs. Babson Wins Marin Golf Honor

Mrs. Aubrey Babson shot low gross of 86 and Mrs. A. E. Wilson won low net honors with a 96-27—69 yesterday during medal play at the Marin Golf Club.

Winners were:

Class A— Mrs. William Heyman, 91-18—73; Mrs. Roger Williams, 91-17—74; Mrs. Gene LaRose, 87-12—75.

Class B — Mrs. Gordon Wardlaw, 94-20—74; Mrs. Leon Balshone, 95-21—74; Mrs. William Sichel, 96-22—74.

Class C —Mrs. John Keddy, 94-23—71; Mrs. Jack Megarity, 97-25—72; Mrs. T. Marshall, 99-24—75.

Hole-in-one—Mrs. Norm Wilson, 6 inches.

Tam JV Cage Scores

Led by Bob Muth with 16 points, Terra Linda defeated Drake 48-40 Wednesday in the Tamalpais Junior Varsity Basketball League. Behind the 20 points of Roy Dolinsek, Novato defeated Marin Catholic 38-32. Redwood won over San Rafael by forfeit.

DEFENDS TITLE—Prudence Baxter (above) of Sausalito, 1963 points champion in Class H modified in her Lotus 11 will be up against this year's point leader, Chick Gast from Los Angeles this weekend when the two meet at Cotati Raceway.

Seven Marin Drivers Will Race At Cotati

Seven Marin drivers will be among the approximately 250 entries in the divisional championship sports car road races this weekend at Cotati Raceways.

It will be the first divisional event in 1964 for sports car road racing in northern California. The races, seven on Saturday and seven on Sunday, will be over a 2.4 mile course with 7 turns. The track is seven miles south of Santa Rosa.

George F. D. Pridmore of Tiburon will be driving a Formcar owned by John Gugel of San Rafael in a special Formula Vee race on both days.

Prudence Baxter of Sausalito will be driving her Lotus 11 in Class H modified; Walt Benson of Sausalito will be driving a Porsche in class E production; James J. Fitzgerald of Corte Madera will be driving a Morgan in Class G production.

Duane Rice of Novato will be driving a Fiat Abarth owned by Gordon Blumenfeld of San Rafael in Class H production; Nick Reynolds of Sausalito will be driving a Lotus 22 in Class 1 Formula Junior (Nade Bourgeault of Mill Valley is an alternate driver); and Bob O'Brien of Tiburon will be at the wheel of a Cooper in the Formula Libre class.

The races, being conducted by the San Francisco Region, Sports Car Club of America, is under the sanction of the SCCA. Admission for the show will be $2 for adults on Saturday and $3 on Sunday. Children under 16 will be admitted free on both days.

First race Saturday will start at 12:45 p.m., and the first event Sunday will start at 11:30 a.m. Radio Station KTIM will broadcast a portion of Sunday's action from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Jerry Smith will be at the mike.

Prudence Baxter, the Sausalito driver, is one of the few women sports car drivers around, and she's a good one, being 1963 points champ in her class. Another in the list of Marin Drivers, Nick Reynolds, is the same Reynolds of Kingston Trio fame. Not only a good singer, he's quite a driver.

MARIN ANGLERS HIT SALMON JACKPOT

Salmon fishing near the Farallon Islands paid off for four Marin County fishermen who won awards in the Schenley Sportsmen's Club program during the week ending last Sunday, it was announced today by Schenley officials.

One other Marin angler was included in the list of 30 winners, with his salmon being caught near the Lightship area.

Catching prize-winning salmon near the Farallones were Al Geraldi of 85 Spring Lane, Tiburon, a 45-pound, 12-ounce beauty on July 4; Warren A. Levan of 756 Del Grande Road, San Rafael, a 37-pounder also on the Fourth of July; Robert G. Kock of 373 Shoreline Highway, Mill Valley, 35 pounds, 4 ounces, on July 3, and Bill Lemons of 228 Union Street, San Rafael, 35-2, on July 3.

Catching his winner near the Lightship sector was Karl J. Reavell of 4 Holstein Road, San Anselmo, a 38-pounder on June 30.

Junior Golf Clinic Set At Peacock Gap

A junior golf clinic for members of Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club and residents of Peacock Gap in San Rafael will be held on three Tuesdays, July 14, 21 and 28, each day's clinic starting at 10 a.m.

The clinic will be open to boys and girls 18 and under.

Patterson, Folley May Fight In S.F.

Bennie Ford, San Francisco boxing matchmaker and a resident of Ross, yesterday said he has offered former world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson $50,000 or 40 per cent of the gate to box former high ranked contender Zora Folley at the San Francisco Cow Palace on Sept. 28.

Tear Gas, Hoses Used On Whites

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police used tear gas and fire hoses last night to quell a disturbance in Tuscaloosa, Ala., when an angry crowd of white persons thought movie star Jack Palance was joining in an integration attempt.

Officers, who estimated the crowd at between 600 and 1,000, arrested one man as bricks and other missiles were thrown at a theater where Palance, his wife and four children had entered. The theater was integrated this past week for the first time in compliance with the new Civil Rights Act.

Richard E. Young, manager of the theater, said there were no Negroes present at the time. He also quoted Palance as saying he was there only to see the picture and not to take part in any civil rights movement.

Young said the theater's marquee, cashier's booth and other facilities were heavily damaged by the crowd before officers used tear gas and the fire hose to bring it under control.

It was reported in Washington that J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of investigation, is seriously considering a trip to Philadelphia, Miss., where FBI agents are taking part in the search for three missing civil rights workers.

Hoover has made no final decision on the trip, but has been keeping in close touch from Washington with the search for Andrew Goodman, 20; James Chaney, 21, and Michael Schwerner, 24.

Elsewhere, Negroes continued to assault segregation barriers under the new Civil Rights Act.

A restaurant owner at Princess Anne, Md., wielding a tack hammer, chased a Negro and a white newsman during an integration attempt. Three white men and three Negroes entered the restaurant owned by Herman Muir.

After Muir had chased the Negro and white newsman, his daughter ordered the others out of the restaurant.

In Atlanta, Ga., three Negroes went to court in the first suit to test compliance under the week-old rights law. Lester Maddox, who twice had turned Negroes away from his restaurant, was ordered to show cause at a July 17 hearing why an injunction against him should not be issued.

The suit was filed by the three Negroes chased from the restaurant last Friday by Maddox, waving a pistol, and a crowd of white persons brandishing ax handles.

North Coast Water Supply Called Safe

EUREKA (UPI) — State Director of Water Resources William E. Warne told residents of the north coast today they have enough water to supply themselves and the rest of the state for "the foreseeable future."

He said the north coast will "benefit" in many ways from proposed water developments in the area so extensive that they dwarf the state's present undertakings.

Warne and some of his top aides outlined state plans to tap the river-laced region in the future for 10-million acre-feet of water a year — two and one-half times the yield of the 175-billion-dollar state water project that is currently under construction.

Of the new water yield, Warne said two million acre-feet would meet the requirements of the north coastal area to the year 2020.

The remaining eight million acre-feet would be exported to other parts of the state.

Warne spoke at a statewide water conference sponsored jointly by the State Chamber of Commerce and the Eel River Assn. The meeting was called to discuss future water developments in the north coast area—the last region to which the state is turning in its quest for water.

Preliminary plans for a system of dams and reservoirs to conserve north coast water now spilling to the sea were released recently after a seven-year study.

Residents of the region — extending from the Oregon border to the Russian River basin and from the coastal mountain ranges to the Pacific Ocean — have expressed concern that export of their presently "surplus" water will leave their growing region with future shortages.

Warne said the 10-million acre-feet that can be conserved is "enough fully to satisfy the needs of this region."

MRS. E. J. DOHERTY of San Rafael, social chairman in charge of the hunt club show Sunday featuring both English and Western riders, checks over the registration of Robyn Williams on Susie, Suzy Boyd on Roayalad, Alba Doherty on Johnny-Be-Good and Melissa Crowell, young members entering the show Sunday. More than 50 entries have been made by Marin youngsters for the show.

EQUESTRIAN instructor, Douglas Robb, manager-trainer at the Meadow Brook Hunt Club teaches Robyn Williams and Melissa Crowell in regulating the timing of their mounts. Robyn and Melissa are both riding English style. Robb, born in Dundee, Scotland has been a trainer instructor most of his life, "And wouldn't know anything else."

ROBYN WILLIAMS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williams of Novato, removes the hunt seat from her horse, Susie, following a day of riding and instruction. Robyn is wearing a black dress jacket and hunt helmet, that all youngsters under 18 years of age must wear.

Girls Just Wild Over –Horses

By DOROTHY NEWELL

Horses, horses, horses, crazy over horses—

Horses seem to be foremost in the minds of four young girls, who rush through their work at home so they can spend time at their favorite sport—riding.

The girls, Suzy Boyd, Melissa Crowell, Alba Doherty and Robyn Williams, are among the many youngsters in Marin who own their own mounts or rent them from stables, and will appear at the Meadow Brook Hunt Club Junior Horse Show in Novato beginning at 9 a.m. Sunday.

ROBYN, age 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williams of Marin Country Club Estates, rides her horse, Susie, every day. The horse, a registered quarter-horse, is boarded at Franklyn Stables on Indian Valley Road and for her riding instructions at Meadow Brook she rides across country and a short distance down the center of Highway 101 to reach the club. Robyn also has a thoroughbred mare that just had a filly this past week. She has been riding since she was seven years old. Her mother was social chairman of the club last year.

ALBA, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Doherty of San Rafael, has won five trophies in horse shows during her two years in the riding club. This 14-year-old owns Johnny-Be-Good, a thoroughbred. There is much competition among the Doherty children as Alba's brothers and sisters, Eddie, Katy and Timothy, also have their own mounts. Only her brother, Pat, is disinterested in horses. She also has a special interest in the hunt club, as her mother is social chairman for the club and her father is president of the hunt club corporation.

Among the special social programs this year is the Junior Horse Show and a trip to the Junior Grand National in San Francisco under the chairmanship of Mrs. Doherty. Alba helps around the home and in lieu of an allowance receives her entry fees for horse shows which she attends every weekend.

SUZY, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyd of Kentfield, enjoys riding her mount, an Arabian horse, Ibn Sabihs, almost every day. She also has projects she must do at home before going to the hunt club, she said. Her brother, Bobbie, has an Arabian horse, Roayalad, which Suzy was riding on Wednesday. She was dressed in a saddle seat suit and wore a derby.

Clothes also play an important part in the various styles of riding.

MELISSA, nine years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel

SUIT-ABLE FOR THEATER — This brown and white flecked wool sheath has plunging neckline and white silk brocade lapels on accompanying cutaway jacket for eye appeal. EAR FLAPS

Headgear To Tie At The Neck

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Chin straps have gone glamorous. Now they hold hats on instead of sagging faces up.

Previews of fall and winter millinery produced a quantity of wrapup headgear to tie at the neck as you will. Emme, one pace-setting New York designer, attached both ear flaps and chin tie to one of her roller brimmed chapeaux in deep red velour. John Frederics made head-hugging helmets with chin ties. Another designer, Adolfo, copied the wide stiff brim of the Boy Scout hat with narrow chin strap tie.

THIS WAS ONE of the trends at the top which the Millinery Institute of America included in its semi-annual fashion show for visiting reporters here for a detailed look at the new ready-to-wear. Shows are sponsored by the New York Couture Group of designers and manufacturers and the group's auxiliaries, such as the institute.

Many of the new hats envelop the hair completely. Adolfo's snood hats, for instance. These came in a combination of felts paired with satins.

The hat had rounded, uncrushed crowns and straight brims much like a man's derby. Worn tilted forward on the brow, they were finished at the back with gathered satin snoods.

SALLY VICTOR DID some of the snoods too, with wide, rolled brim velours. Bands and the head-hugging backs were in tricolor knits.

Any number of the new hats pitch to the front of the brow, some so low the eyes are just barely visible. Some tilt to the side, but the tilt to the back of the head, barring the entire forehead, also proved popular.

The classic beret returned for fall but what a difference from berets of the past. Some covered the hair completely, others were worn at the back of the head, pillbox fashion, or perched to the side for a profile effect. Many were big, crushable numbers — of black satin with jet beading or of white mink for dressy occasions, and simulated alligator for suits or to go with matching rainwear.

WATCH FOR head-hugging caps come fall. These are sleek and curved to the contour of the head with the sides usually narrowed down in semi-circle fashion over the ears. Designers used suede, mohair, velour, satin and fur for these.

Turbans go on from season to season, this year with large bows, jeweled or feathered pom poms dangling from many crowns. Brimmed hats ranged from the small, tailored fedoras to oversize bretons and rollers.

A lot of fuss about feathers: ostrich especially. A black velvet pillbox came with a head-tall plume of white ostrich attached to its right profile. Newest feather comes from the vulture, showing as the white border on a wide-brimmed black velvet.

Three ready-to-wear clothing manufacturers showed their collections yesterday. Some highlights:

—LARRY ALDRICH. The president of the Couture Group, named three silhouettes ahead. One is shaped and lean with a well-fitted bodice, concave front and the look of a slightly fitted shift. One is shaped and flared with a swing skirt. And the third has skirt fullness via accordion pleats, folds or panels. Aldrich showed a lot of side fastenings on coats and suit jackets. He advocated white for day or evening and said that the "revealing neckline and flounce hem are the fall look for late day. Black velvet is in."

—MAURICE RENTNER. Designer Bill Blass at this firm showed tailored slacks sleek as trousers men wear. Some were topped with fur jackets — for instance, a leopard jacket over camel's hair pants. Formal pants showed too, done in some instances in white satin worn with a white mink jacket. For late day and evening, Blass showed a lot of black in sleeveless sheer wools with turtleneck collars. He took the turtleneck into formal evenings with floor length sleeveless black satins.

—SAMUEL WINSTON. Designer Roxane liked the look of paisleys in muted shades for daytime wools. Skirts swirled from pleats or flared cuts. Pussycat bows decorated fronts of both daytime and cocktail dresses. Three quarter length coats, with doublebreasted closings, topped long evening formals.

Vestiges Of Harlow

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Vestiges of Jimmy Walker, Jean Harlow, the Lemon Drop Kid, speakeasy girls, and racetrack touts during the late '20s and early '30s will be worn by American women next season.

One by one, reminders of that era appeared on the runway as Teal Traina previewed his collection.

Elliot Ness' trench coat was there in gleaming white silk twill with white exaggerated lapels and with a fur lining.

Those gamey, long-gammed speakeasy girls, puffing on long cigarette holders, flounced onto the scene in tiers of black net with cock feather borders, or audaciously short black French lace tunics.

Some were hip swivelers in long torsoed, bias-cut costumes with a bias-cut tunic skirt fluttering over a straight short one. The swiveler, as Traina has named this swinging silhouette, showed up regularly, sometimes with the bodice cut to the wishbone, again covered to the wrist and chin.

Flat-chested brunettes, not at all Harlow or Carole Lombard types, nevertheless undulated in the kind of black bias gowns in which these celluloid queens did as well, with decolletage as low in front as in back.

One managed to keep warm Jimmy Walker's cutaway jacket with racy high peaked lapels, much more elegant in shimmering silk gabardine and sparkling diamond buttons than anything the New York mayor's tailor ever made.

Charceline Sheets To Wed In August

CHARCELINE SHEETS

The Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Sheets, pastors of the San Rafael Assembly of God Church, announce the engagement of their daughter, Charceline LaRae, to the Rev. Randall Lee Wood, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Wood, pastors of the San Andreas Assembly of God Church.

For the past year, Charceline has been employed as a teacher at the Westminster Christian School in Westminster. Formerly, she traveled widely in the states assisting her parents with the musical aspects of their evangelistic tours. Both Charceline and Randall have been students at Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz.

The Rev. Randall Wood has ministered as an evangelist and youth speaker throughout Western Canada, and is currently pastor of the Assembly of God Church in Dawson City, Yukon Territory.

The wedding has been set for late August.

Rotate Curtains And Draperies

To prolong the life of curtains and draperies, here are a few tips from the American Institute of Laundering.

If practical, rotate the curtains and draperies occasionally from sunny windows to unexposed windows to equalize the effects of the sun on the fabric. Constant exposure to direct sunlight weakens most fibers.

Frequently cleaned draperies and curtains will wear longer and look better because soil that can cause permanent discoloration does not become imbedded in the fabric. When having your curtains and draperies cleaned professionally, tell the cleaner if they contain glass yarns or synthetic fibers requiring special care.

(UPI)

Sponge Grass Stains

Grass stains, the gardener's bane, should be treated by rubbing detergent into the stain and laundering with a bleach that is safe for the fabric. On wool, sponge the stain with rubbing alcohol.

Third Garden Workshop Set

"Soil Conditioning," the key secret to successful gardening, will be explained Wednesday at 10 a.m. when Gordon Baker Lloyd of Studio House in Sierra Madre, gives his third garden workshop at the San Rafael Improvement Club.

Widely known through Northern California as well (through his KCBS Sunday programs, his columns in Flower and Garden Magazine, classes at Leisure Town and various nurseries) Lloyd also offers workshop notesheets for use in classes.

Mrs. C. J. Fitzharris, chairman of the garden section of the Improvement Club, invites all members to bring their friends to this gardening series.

On the same evening at 8 o'clock at the West End Nursery, he will discuss "summer care of lawns," with emphasis on watering, mulching, weed control, pest control and feeding.

For both programs, he invites members and guests to bring actual samples of soil, weeds or lawn problems, and other garden puzzlers.

On Sunday, he is sponsoring a special tour of Napa Valley, with a one-day tour of Muir Woods scheduled for July 19.

AN AUGUST wedding in San Anselmo is planned by Marylyn Ann Massie and Giam Simonetti. (Ken Schroll photo)

Simonetti-Massie Wedding Date Set

The engagement of Marylyn Ann Massie to Giam Paolo Simonetti of San Francisco is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Massie of San Rafael.

An Aug. 16 wedding at the First Baptist Church in San Anselmo with a reception to follow at Peacock Gap Country Club has been planned.

The bride-elect is the sister of Pamela Gail, Limda Louise and Stanley Allen Massie Jr., all of San Rafael. She attended Encina High School in Sacramento and the College of Marin and is employed with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pellegrino Simonetti of San Francisco. He is the brother of Carlo Simonetti of Burlingame, Livio and Oriano Simonetti of San Francisco and sisters and brothers in Italy, where he attended schools. He is employed with Royal Bakery.

After the wedding the couple plans to live in San Rafael.

Romaine Mountbatten Bride Of St. Louis Brewing Heir

NEW YORK (UPI) — Romaine Pierce Mountbatten, the second American woman to marry into the British royal family, was married for a third time today to St. Louis brewing heir James Busch Orthwein.

Mrs. Orthwein was the bride of the year in 1950 when she married the Marquess of Milford Haven, cousin of both Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip and best man at their wedding, at the National Presbyterian Church in Washington.

SHE TERMINATED the marriage by divorce in Mexico in 1954 and British courts granted the Marquess a divorce in 1960. He since has married Janet Bryce, daughter of a Bermuda shopkeeper.

Today's ceremony was a quiet one at the bride's Park Avenue apartment attended by only a few relatives and friends. State Supreme Court Justice Irving Saypol performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception.

THE BRIDE, 40, a fashion model wore an off-white street length lace gown and a matching picture hat. She was given away by her cousin, K. LeMoyne Billings and attended by Mrs. Joseph Moran. The bridegroom had Andrew Shinkle of St. Louis as his best man.

Mrs. Orthwein is the daughter of Mrs. Clark McIlwaine of Washington and the late Vinton Dahlgren Pierce. She has been married three times. Her first marriage to William Simpson, son of the head of Marshall Field's store in Chicago, ended in divorce in 1948 after two years.

THE BRIDEGROOM, 40, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Percy James Orthwein of St. Louis. His mother was the former Clara Busch, daughter of brewing magnate August A. Busch Sr. He is a vice president of D'Arcy Advertising in St. Louis and a director of the Anheuser-Busch Co. Orthwein was married previously to Katherine Gatch. They were divorced last May.

IN SANTA VENETIA

Janet Carol Poppin A Bride

Blessed Sacrament Church in Santa Venetia was the setting on June 27 for the wedding of Janet Carol Poppin of Corte Madera and Russell Arthur Kern Jr. of San Rafael.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Poppin of Corte Madera.

Officiating for the 11:30 a.m. ceremony was the Rev. Charles Simpson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie appliqued with lace.

Preceding the bride to the altar in gowns of ice blue organza over blue taffeta were the bridegroom's sister, Sue Kern as maid of honor, and bridesmaids, Carla Jo Zazzetti of Sacramento and Lynda Joy Crespi of San Francisco.

Kimberly Poppin of Millbrae was flower girl and serving as ringbearer was Peter Kern of Pacifica.

Michael R. Kern of San Rafael was best man for his brother and ushers were Richard Kern, the bridegroom's brother and Thomas J. Poppin, the bride's brother.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

The bride was graduated from Redwood High School and is employed with the Cal-Marin Title Co. in San Rafael. Mrs. Rose Shapiro of San Rafael and Mrs. Hazel Poppin of San Francisco are her grandmothers.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Arthur Kern of San Rafael, was graduated from Redwood High School and is employed with the William H. McDevitt Co.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple will reside in San Rafael.

ONE WAY OF USING HEAD

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y. (AP)—Pianist Van Cliburn is thankful that women are never without hairbows these days. The fad helped him out of an embarrassing situation.

Shortly before he was to perform here, Cliburn discovered he had lost his white tie, a necessary formal accoutrement for a concert appearance.

But in the audience was Miss Diane DeSousa with a white bow in her hair. She gave it up willingly, and with two safety pins from an anonymous donor, Cliburn was able to anchor it firmly at his collar. And the show went on.

Stretch Fabrics Can Be Revived

There's a trick to caring for popular stretch fabrics. Although the new easy-care stretch fashions can now be machine washed and dried, they often look limp and lifeless after several washings. The secret to keeping them new-looking is a whisk of spray-on starch and a touch of the iron. Just spray the dry, freshly-washed garment as you iron. Dark colors and hard-to-finish weaves such as gabardine stretch fabrics should be sprayed-on starched and ironed on the wrong side to avoid iron shine. Spray-on starch replaces the "body" that makes stretch fabrics look new, without affecting the pliable texture.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Australia Bound On Mariposa

SAILING SUNDAY aboard the Mariposa for Australia will be Richard Iribarne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Iribarne of San Rafael, who will meet his grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Burrell, in Sydney. Mrs. Iribarne, who lives in Australia, is now in San Rafael on her first visit to attend her granddaughter's recent wedding and see another grandson off to Poland, where he will be an exchange student. She will fly to Sydney in time to meet the Mariposa and Richard will visit with relatives in Australia until he returns to enter San Francisco City College in September.

THE ELMER WEDENS of Fairfax have returned home following a month vacation to the East Coast where they previously lived. Mr. Weden attended a conference at the Manchester Memorial Hospital in Manchester, Conn. He was formerly president of the hospital and is now an honorary trustee. The Wedens visited friends and relatives in Massachussetts, Connecticut, Maine and Vermont during their travels.

SIBYL ANN WIPER, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Wiper of Sausalito, and her fiance, Richard Ott will be honored at a cocktail gathering by Louis Hermes in San Francisco on Aug. 15. The couple, whose engagement was announced last week, plans to wed Sept. 26 at Christ Church in Sausalito.

THE SEADRIFT colony at Stinson Beach will be the scene of summer party activity—tomorrow the newlywed Larry Dunhams will be feted by James Follis, Gordon Johnson Jr. and Mrs. Ann Hart. The new Mrs. Dunham is the former Millicent Maas Woodson . . . and on July 26 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bullock will be hosts at a luncheon.

Today is Friday, July 10, the 192nd day of 1964 with 174 to follok.

The moon is approaching its first quarter; the morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn, Venus and Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1890, Wyoming was admitted to the Union as the 44th state.

In 1908, William Jennings Bryan was nominated by the Democrats as their presidential candidate, for the third time.

In 1960, Russia shot down a U.S. plane in the Soviet Arctic.

In 1962, the Telstar satellite relayed television pictures from the U.S. to Europe, and America received clear pictures back from Britain and France.

A thought for the day: President Apraham Lincoln said: "Towering genius disdains a beaten path. It seeks regions hitherto unexplored."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

Question Of Bridge Etiquette Stumps Player Without Weakness

"Forgive me for asking about so fine a point," asks a reader, "but it is the only weakness in my bridge game. It's a question of etiquette or rhetoric, I'm not sure which.

"What should you say when an opponent makes a horrible mistake that gives you an undeserved contract?"

"The opening lead was the five of spades," my correspondent continues, "and I carefully played the eight from dummy. East agonized over his play, and I gave him my best bored look.

10 OF SPADES

"Finally East played the 10 of spades. All I said was: 'What took you so long?' And I showed my hand and claimed the first 10 tricks.

"My opponents had a brief squabble over losing the five spade tricks they could have taken, but then they both turned on me. I didn't have to be so sarcastic, they said.

"Naturally, I offered them my own handkerchief to dry their tears. You have no idea what a kind soul I am. But they said they had a headache and went home. And then my wife gave me a lecture on politeness.

DOING FINE

"So tell me, Professor, what is the right thing to say?"

Don't ask me what to say; you're doing fine. When you run out of friends, you can always move to another city and start on a fresh batch.

Incidentally, East's problem looks more difficult than it really is. It's true that the ten of spades would be the correct play if South had the ace of spades instead of the jack, but East should know that South does not hold the ace.

It's easy if you put yourself in South's place with A-x or A-x-x of spades and Q-x in dummy. You'd play dummy's queen, of course. If you don't play dummy's queen, you cannot have the ace.

SAY NOTHING

If you're wondering what to say in such situations, it's always safe to say nothing at all.

It's not your problem; let the opponents solve it by themselves.

But if you'd like to smooth things over, remark casually

"The last time I made that mistake my partner was a perfect gentleman and never said a word."

QUESTION

Partner opens with one spade, and the next player passes.

What do you bid?

Answer: Bid two spades.

Despite the magnificent trump support, your hand is woefully weak. You cannot afford a jump to four spades.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

With Changing World Comes Need To Learn Lesson Of Leisure Time

VAN DELLEN

Our world is accelerating so rapidly, it seems to have no place for the subject of leisure. But we might as well face the fact that the work day is shrinking, and more older people are maintaining their creative ability because of better health. What will they do when their productive days are over?

DR. ALEXANDER REID Martin believes we should concentrate less on the underprivileged, exploited, overworked, and the poverty stricken and turn our attention to the leisure stricken. This means preparation for leisure. He subscribes to the philosophy that "only those fit for work and leisure survive as creative individuals. The others will exist as sterile robots, alienated from life and from themselves, living vicariously, and so deadened that they compulsively seek overstimulation from the extreme, the lurid, the bizarre, and the macabre."

The man of the future may be forced to put his capacity for leisure on the same level as his capacity for work. This is difficult to accept because most of us have grown up with the concept that leisure is earned through hard work—a reward for a job well done.

IN ADDITION we consider time for leisure and leisure as the same thing. They are as different as merely existing and really living. On the other hand, work should complement leisure and those who have the capacity for both are fortunate.

A hobby should not be a substitute for work; it keeps the individual and his mind busy because he cannot stand to be alone or does not know how to enjoy his free time.

THE PERSON WHO retains his capacity for leisure usually possesses excellent emotional traits acquired through good mental health. It is difficult to enjoy leisure when plagued with compulsions that have a must or an imperative quality. "I must work" or "I must get ready for tomorrow's task" only serves to interfere with relaxation, reflection, marveling, and the other expressions of leisure necessary for creative growth.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if a stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CHRONIC HEPATITIS

L. G. S. writes: Why do some cases of hepatitis become chronic?

REPLY

This is the nature of the disease. We can assume some people have less resistance to the causative virus or that the liver is not healthy when the disease is acquired. Lack of treatment or disregard for the symptoms may play a role.

ULCERATIVE COLITIS

W. E. writes: Is ulcerative colitis caused by infection?

REPLY

The cause of the disease is unknown. It has all the earmarks of a severe bacterial infection of the bowel, but no causative microorganisms have been found. Hypersensitivity, emotional factors, and nutritional inadequacies are possible causes.

FLUIDS AND PILLS

Mrs. A. M. writes: Would it be advisable to take diuretic pills to get rid of the water accumulated by the use of contraceptive pills?

REPLY

This can be done but seldom is necessary unless large amounts of fluid accumulate.

SULFUR DIOXIDE

C. H. writes: I like stewed dried apricots but the label says "prepared with sulfur dioxide." Is it safe to eat these products?

REPLY

Yes. This substance is added for its bleaching and preservative qualities.

Fuel Cells Gradually Finding Applications

By GENE BYLINSKY
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Fuel cells, which convert chemical energy directly into electricity, a few years ago were hailed as a promising means of powering automobiles, tractors, and even supplying the energy needs of homes.

As with many other gadgets, however, press agentry far outdistanced reality. One company went so far as to equip a tractor, a golf cart and two fork lift trucks with fuel cells. But it stopped there.

Technical problems and the high cost of manufacture made such commercial applications impractical it is now obvious that it will take years to make them competitive with gasoline power plants.

But fuel cells nevertheless are gradually finding applications in specialized vehicles. Outer space and the ocean in particular seem to be promising areas.

A few days ago, a fuel cell powered the experimental dive of a small one-man submarine off Groton, Conn. The research sub Star I belongs to General Dynamics Electric Boat Division. It's shaped like a teardrop, is nine feet long and weighs about 2,500 pounds.

The sub is the first in a series of small submersibles which will be used to evaluate components and systems needed in all future underwater vehicles. It can dive to 200 feet.

The compact fuel cell system including fuel tank is only 22 inches long, 22 inches high and 13 inches wide. It delivers enough power to propel the submarine's two electric drive motors and to operate its communications, navigation, life support and lighting equipment.

The fuel cell offers obvious advantages to the submarine. It more than doubles, to 12 hours, the endurance time. Fuel cells, unlike batteries, require no recharging, which in the case of Star I would have taken about eight hours. A fresh supply of hydrazine and oxygen, on which the sub's fuel cell runs, can be pumped into the fuel tank in five minutes.

The submarine's fuel cell was manufactured by Allis-Chalmers Co. of Milwaukee, Wis.

The theory of the fuel cell has been known for at least 150 years but research on a large scale didn't start until the 1950s. A fuel cell is simple in construction and is far more efficient than a battery. It usually contains two electrodes and an electrolyte solution. Fuel is fed to the electrodes and the electrolyte solution acts as a vehicle through which the current carrying electrons moves freely to and from the electrodes.

The electrochemical reaction that takes place at the electrodes produces electrical energy.

One of the obstacles to fuel cells' wider use has been the high cost of fuels to power the cells.

This isn't too large obstacle for space applications, however, where it still costs about $5,000 to place one pound in orbit.

For this, and other reasons, the two-man Gemini spacecraft will be eventually equipped with fuel cells instead of batteries. The first flyable fuel cell system for the Gemini spacecraft has been delivered by General Electric Co., to McDonnell Aircraft Corp., Gemini prime contractor.

The Gemini cell employs liquid oxygen and liquid hydrogen fuel. It will produce about two kilowatts of electricity and also provide potable water for astronauts. The fuel cell unit is scheduled to fly aboard the next Gemini test flight in September. The three-man Apollo lunar spacecraft also will employ fuel cells.

A smaller fuel cell, one producing 45 watts of power, will be tested for 100 hours under zero gravity conditions aboard an Air Force satellite this summer.

Student Leaders Busy Attending Conferences

Terra Linda High School student body president Bonnie Brown and secretary Barbara Parcher left today for a three-day conference of the California Assn. of Student Councils at Asilomar.

The school's nine yell leaders and song leaders attended a yell and pompom summer camp at Olympic Village in Squaw Valley.

First Novato Employee Is Retiring

Fred Westfall, the first employee of the City of Novato, was honored at a retirement dinner at Nero's Restaurant last night by the city employees.

Westfall, head of the building inspection department, went to work as the city's first building inspector on May 23, 1960. He had served on the Novato Planning Commission when it was organized immediately after incorporation in January, 1960.

His resignation was effective today, but he was asked by the city council to continue on a part-time basis until a replacement is hired.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget, representing the city council, presented Westfall with a plaque with his key to the city hall on it.

Merl D. Mauroni, inspector, gave him a transistor radio from the employees. There were 35 employees and guests present.

Junior College Trustee Ired By Grad Absentees

Absenteeism of College of Marin graduates at commencement exercises was brought to the attention of the college board last night by Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy, who doesn't like it.

"Even some of the students who were to have received special awards at last month's exercises were not present," she said.

She asked the administration to look into the possibility of making attendance at graduation compulsory.

Trustee Joseph D. Garguilo, former College of Marin student, agreed with Mrs. Deedy, saying graduation from junior college was a high point in his life and he felt the same feeling should be shared by other graduates.

Gallinas District Increases Budget But Cuts Taxes

Directors of the Gallinas Village Community Services District last night approved a preliminary budget with increased funds for recreation but with a tax cut of 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation. Last year's tax rate for the district was $1.

The board agreed to ask the county board of supervisors to find funds for a walkway for children from the entrance of the Gallinas Village subdivision to Meadow Drive, because children use the route along North San Pedro Road to go to school.

The total budget approved was $68,010. Sewer charges will yield $12,410 and $36,700 is being carried foreward from the last fiscal year. Some $6,000 for recreation facilities unspent last year will be combined with $10,000 in new money to start some park development.

The board agreed to contract with a nursery for increased landscape services, especially near the tract entrance.

Teen-Agers Win Convention Duty

All nine members of the newly organized Novato Teen-age Republicans will be working at the Republican National Convention in San Francisco, their adviser reported today.

Mrs. Kent R. Bulfinch of 3 Carmel Drive said the youngsters, aged 14 to 18, will serve as tour guides and messengers. Her son, Scott Bulfinch, 15, was installed as president of the group Wednesday night at an installation meeting at the Bulfinch home.

Other new officers are James Gribbin, vice president; Myra Scott, secretary, and Pat Collins, treasurer. Committee chairmen include Bill Convis, transportation; Dennis Gribbin, membership, and Miss Scott, publicity.

AUDITED PAID CIRCULATION ABC

One in a series of messages to advertisers

What is an ABC figure?

Chatting with a merchant the other day, we mentioned our "ABC figure."

"What," he asked, "is an ABC figure?"

Perhaps what we told him will also interest you.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, an independent, nonprofit association of well over 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies, and publishers. Its purpose is to provide accurate and factual reports on the circulation of member publishers. In the advertising and publishing industry, the ABC insigne is often referred to as the "hallmark of circulation values."

At regular intervals, an ABC traveling auditor visits our office to check our records. The findings of this physical audit are embodied in an Audit Report, published by ABC—the report literally tells us what our circulation figure is.

Virtually everything an advertiser should know about our circulation is found in this report, facts and figures without opinion.

Few retailers bother to ask to see a copy of our report, yet we want you to know one is available anytime you are interested in checking the quality and quantity of our circulation audience—the audience for your advertising messages.

What is an ABC figure?

It is our way of making sure that you get full measure for your advertising in this newspaper.

Comedy Likely One Of Year's Best

By LES DARD

Marin movie theaters offer a particularly interesting variety of film fare these days. Let's have a look at what is current and what is coming:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

What a movie is "What a Way to Go," which opens next Wednesday. It is the wackiest, and loaded with some of Hollywood's top names: Shirley MacLaine, Paul Newman, Robert Mitchum, Dean Martin, Gene Kelly, Robert Cummings, Dick Van Dyke.

Shirley MacLaine is center of attention who has a Midas touch and a kiss of death. Every man she takes up with is rewarded with fabulous wealth—then drops dead before he can fully enjoy it —or Shirley.

Hence the title.

And with each of four passing mates, Shirley becomes richer.

The story is told in flashbacks, with Shirley trying to give away $200 million because she feels guilty. When the government refuses her money, she goes to a psychiatrist to rid herself of anxieties about herself and her fatalism and her fortune.

At the end, Shirley is reunited with the one man she said she would never marry, Dean Martin.

This lavish comedy is sure to be one of the year's big hits.

LARK THEATER

Also due Wednesday is "My Life to Live," the arresting, almost documentary look at the decline and fall of a beautiful girl.

It is a curious, offbeat French film in which its director, Jean Luc Godard, experiments with numerous cinematic devices. Not all of them work, but the result is interesting.

Godard's pretty, Danish-born wife, Anna Karina, plays Nana, who begins the film as an unsatisfied housewife who seeks expression of her individuality.

Nana's tragedy is told in 12 episodes, each preceded by a brief chapter heading and each intended to demonstrate certain points in the woman's search for identity and final destruction.

Godard does not paint a pretty picture. Instead he portrays a life of sordid desperation and terrible aloneness. Adults only.

RAFAEL THEATER

Walt Disney's new "The Moon-Spinners" also arrives Wednesday, a mystery suspense story with an exotic background and young romance woven in.

Its star is Hayley Mills, as bumptious as ever. There is added attraction in the appearance of one-time film great Pola Negri, her first in more than 20 years.

The picture was filmed largely in Crete.

Hayley plays the niece of Joan Greenwood, a collector of folk songs. They come to one of the Crete islands to record songs, including one about the moon-spinners.

The title name refers to three legendary ladies of the skies who, according to ancient fable, spin the full moon.

Hayley and company are plunged into the intrigue of an international jewel theft when she becomes friendly with young Peter McEnery, a London bank clerk falsely accused of complicity in the theft of fabulous emeralds in his care.

Eli Wallach is properly menacing as leader of the gang holding the stolen gems.

Limpid Mediterranean sunshine provides tantalizing backgrounds.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Coming Sunday, an absorbing study of mixed-up emotions based on a Broadway success, "The Chalk Garden." It also stars Hayley Mills, but in a much different environment and co-starred with Deborah Kerr.

The gripping suspense story takes place in a lovely old house in the south of England on the chalk cliffs of Dover.

Miss Kerr is engaged as governess-companion to Hayley, an incorrigible 16-year-old who lives there with her doughty grandmother, Edith Evans.

There is mystery in the house and mystery about Miss Kerr. Hints are given from time to time, but the truth when it comes is a shocker.

John Mills, actor father of Hayley, plays the butler and household major domo. There is the subtle suggestion of romance between he and Miss Kerr which adds to the intrigue.

101 DRIVE-IN

Peter Sellers comes forth Sunday in "The World of Henry Orient," which is made the more engaging by the pixyish presence of two teen-age girls, Tippy Walker and Merrie Spaeth.

The irresistible adolescents, exploring Manhattan's Central Park come upon concert pianist Henry Orient — Sellers, that is — and Paula Prentiss.

From that point on, one girl has a crush on Henry.

Sellers is wildly comical, and Tom Bosley and Angela Lansbury amusing as the parents of one girl. But what steals the show is the delightfully fresh talent of Tippy and Merrie

MOTOR MOVIES

The tremendous "West Side Story" goes on screen Sunday, a must-see movie for any who missed it the first time around.

The Leonard Bernstein musical offers a tragic "Romeo and Juliet" love story, told with music that is truly overpowering, dancing that is breathtaking and photography that is superlative.

Natalie Wood stars as a gay, innocent Puerto Rican girl who falls in love with a neighborhood boy from a rival gang, Richard Beymer. Their love becomes a focal point of West Side Manhattan's bitter racial hatred and the means by which the picture delivers a powerful sociological message.

Dazzling entertainment, not to be missed.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

The shocking story of a middle-aged man helplessly obsessed by a young girl, "Lolita," is now showing.

James Mason is outstanding as Professor Humbert, Sue Lyons surprisingly convincing as the nubile adolescent. Shelley Winters as her mother and Peter Sellers as the depraved playwright who steals Lolita's love enrich this adult film.

Again, strictly for adults.

NOVATO THEATER

Ian Fleming's "From Russia With Love," a spoof of the whodunit, opens Sunday.

It's the second filming of a Fleming novel, and of course is dominated by Secret Agent 007—James Bond — played again by Sean Connery.

An international crime syndicate sets a trap for Bond in Istanbul, and baits it with lovely Daniela Bianchi.

From the moment Bond enters the spy-ridden city, one hair-raising incident follows another.

Istanbul, Venice and the Orient Express give the perfect flavor to the Technicolor intrigue.

On the same bill is "The Best Man," an interesting political drama starring Henry Fonda and Cliff Robertson.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"How the West Was Won," a film with tremendous scope, spectacular photography and big stars like Debbie Reynolds, James Stewart, Gregory Peck, Karl Malden, Henry Fonda, Carolyn Jones, Lee J. Cobb, Carroll Baker, George Peppard and Robert Preston is held over.

The film is divided into halves, the first dealing with families moving through what was then the "West," via the Erie Canal and the Ohio River. The second part shows the nation torn asunder by the Civil War, the post-war push to the West Coast, building of a transcontinental railroad and final consolidation of the empire.

Photographically outstanding are a ride down the rapids, a buffalo stampede and—most spectacular of all—the theater-shaking train ride that winds up in the train's piece-by-piece disintegration.

Spectacular entertainment for the whole family.

Hottest, Coldest Spots

NEW YORK (UPI) — The highest temperature reported to the U.S. Weather Bureau yesterday, excluding Alaska and Hawaii, was 107 degrees at Mineral Wells, Tex., and Wichita Fall, Tex. The low this morning was 38 degrees at Mulan, Idaho.

Oak Springs Homeowners Pick Slate

James C. Molica of 40 Oak Springs Drive, San Anselmo, has been elected president of the Oak Springs of Marin Homeowners Assn. for 1964-65.

Other officers are Mrs. Harold Laster, secretary; Howard Martin, treasurer, and Erwin Paine, advisor to the executive board as past president of the group.

Master plan for development of two acres of land on Oak Springs Drive near Woodside Avenue for a recreational area consisting of a swimming pool and a clubhouse was approved by the association.

Investigation into methods of financing the development has been initiated by the group, according to Molica.

A barbecue has been planned by the association on the site of the Agency Appoints New Caseworker

Karl H. Livengood of 714 Cabin Drive, Mill Valley, has been appointed to the staff of the Catholic Social Service Agency of Marin.

The former assistant director of the Mission Community Center in San Francisco, he holds a master's degree from Western Reserve University in community organization and group work.

Livengood's appointment increased the number of the agency's caseworkers to five. Working with Rev. John J. O'Connor, executive director, and Margaret Frings, casework director, are Livengood, Mrs. Raymond J. Hebel and Sister Marcia Godar of San Rafael.

Actors Guild Reaches Truce With Producers

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Directors of the Screen Actors Guild voted unanimously yesterday to ratify a new three-year contract with the Assn. of Motion Picture and Television Producers covering filmed television shows.

The agreement, hammered out in 10 and one-half hour negotiating sessions Tuesday and Wednesday nights, could be extended for a fourth year by mutual agreement. Ratification by Guild members still was necessary, but little opposition was expected.

Bias Suit Against Fair Exhibitor Thrown Out

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two law suits which sought to close the Jordan Pavilion at the New York World's Fair because of an allegedly anti-Jewish mural were thrown out yesterday by a State Supreme Court Justice.

Justice George Postel said he was "sympathetic" to the suits brought by the B'nai B'rith's Anti-Defamation League and insurance man Robert D. Blaikie but was powerless to act.

Marin Scholars Earn Special Recognition

Four Marin County students who graduated from the University of California last month have been awarded citations for "highest excellence" in their academic fields on the Berkeley campus.

Among the top scholars in the graduating class were Matthew Brennis Hallinan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hallinan of 61 Peninsula Road, Belvedere, anthropology; David Shaw King, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lord King of 200 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere, zoology; Orville Frank Grimes Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Orville F. Grimes of 1660 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, French, and T. Gary Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Rogers of 16 Los Cerros Drive, Greenbrae, military science and tactics.

Violinist Will Be Next Music Chest Performer

Jacob Krachmalnick of Kentfield, renowned violinist who has been appointed concertmaster of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, will give a recital at Forest Meadows, San Rafael, at 3 p.m. Sunday under auspices of the Marin Music Chest.

Krachmalnick has been concertmaster with the Cleveland Orchestra, the Concertgebouw of Amsterdam, the Philadelphia Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. He will play pieces by Vivaldi, Grieg, Smetana, Prokofiev and Wieniawski.

Joan Crawford Mends

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Joan Crawford, 56, continued to show improvement today in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, where she has been confined with a recurring respiratory virus infection. A spokesman for Miss Crawford said she was "doing fine."

Marin Demos Slate Kentfield Potluck

Marin Democrats will hold a potluck supper at 5:30 p.m. Sunday at the Roger Kent estate, 200 Woodland Road, Kentfield.

Ruth Lederman of Kentfield and Sue Bradley of Ross, co-chairmen for the event, said it is the first major get-together for Democrats after the June primaries.

Alcohol License Denied For Tiburon Night Spot

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state department of alcoholic beverage control has denied an application from Robert G. Clayton for an on-sale beer and wine license for Piper's Cave, 1704 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon.

The department said the premises were not equipped to operate as a bona fide public eating place and the applicants did not intend to so equip it.

Sanitary District Votes Tax Slash

The board of the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District last night approved a preliminary budget which calls for wiping out completely any property tax support for district operation.

The effect will be to lower the tax rate in the area from 25 cents to 15 cents wer $100 assessed valuation. All the tax money will be used to pay off bonds.

Operations budget was set at $85,800 with $38,200 of that going for salaries. Some $14,309 was carried forward from the last fiscal year, and this money, plus the amount to be collected in sewer fees, will cover operation costs.

Last year, 13 cents of the tax rate went for bonds and 12 cents for operations.

In many parts of Asia farmers believe the flowering of bamboo heralds a famine.
